

Glimpse of Wesleyan Gymnasium

The Wesleyan Alumnae

NOVEMBER

WESLEYAN COLLEGE LIBRARY
MACON, GA.

1940

THE WESLEYAN ALUMNAE

PUBLISHED QUARTERLY BY THE ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION OF WESLEYAN COLLEGE
MACON, GEORGIA

NOVEMBER, FEBRUARY, MAY, AUGUST

Subscription Price, $1.00 per year

Entered as second-class matter February 12, 1925, at the Post Office at Macon, Georgia under the Act of March 3, 1879

Executive Secretary:
Jennie Loyall

Vol. XVI, No. 4, NOVEMBER

Editor:
Eunice Thomson

Member American Alumnae Council

NATIONAL OFFICERS OF THE WESLEYAN ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION

President

Mrs. Harold C. McKenzie
(Sue Tanner)

First Vice-President

Mrs. W. C. Turpin, Jr.
(Edith Culpepper)

Second Vice-President

Mrs. Alonzo Domingos
(Lucia Chappell)

Third Vice-President

Ann Maria Domingos

Fourth Vice-President

Sarah Jones

Secretary

Mrs. C. Baxter Jones
(Kitty Cater)

Treasurer

Mrs. A. L. Gilmore
(Rosaline Jenkins)

Executive Secretary

Jennie Loyall

Alumnae Editor

Eunice Thomson

Alumnae Trustees

Mrs. Charles C. Hinton
(Alleen Poer)

Mrs. W. B. Jennings
(Mattie Huff)

Mrs. T. G. Polhill
(Mary Park)

Trustee

Mrs. S. T. Coleman
(Edith Stetson)

THE WESLEYAN ALUMNAE

Volume XVI

NOVEMBER, 1940

Number 4

The Conservatory Goes Forward

By FRANCES (PEABODY) McKAY, A.B. '25

Ralph Ewing, who was appointed executive director of the Conservatory during the summer, was presented formally as an artist to the Macon public for the first time by the Macon Alumnae Club, when he appeared in joint recital on Monday night November 4 with Professor Joseph Maerz, music director of the Conservatory.

Mr. Ewing has a splendid bass voice and combined with the artistry of Professor Maerz's accompaniments and solo work furnished a delightful evening of entertainment. The concert was for the benefit of the alumnae scholarship fund for Macon girls. (Mr. Ewing and Mr. Maerz will be available for similar concerts to any other alumnae groups desiring to sponsor their appearance).

This was a combination cultural and social evening as the alumnae held informal Open House for all of the concert guests in order for them to see the redecorated main building of the Conservatory. The many changes and modernization of the first three floors include the removal of the elevator, entire re-wiring with new light fixtures and floor sockets; doing over all walls, woodwork and floors with attractive papering in the dormitory rooms; and refurnishing the Grand Parlors as a students' lounge. The students' rooms have been refurnished or the furnishing done over, also.

As soon as the redecorating was complete Dr. and Mrs. Dice R. Anderson entertained with a formal reception, introducing Mr. and Mrs. Ewing to the faculties of the College and Conservatory, Conservatory graduates and representatives from the cultural clubs of Macon.

The entire program of the Conservatory has been reorganized in accordance with the policy formulated by Dr. Anderson and a committee appointed by the Board of Trustees: Dr. Edmund F. Cook, chairman, Alleen Poer Hinton and Linda Anderson Lane. This policy is to institute a program to meet the needs of the young men and women of the South for professional training in the fields of music, drama, art and commerce; as well as to utilize all of the Conservatory facilities for the development of the cultural life of the city of Macon and the state of Georgia. Mr. Ewing is supervising the carrying out of this program.

WILLIAM F. WALDROP

New Professor of Public School Music

Three new departments have been added this fall. They include the Department of Church Music, under the direction of Mrs. Doris Onderdonk Jelks; the Department of Public School Music, directed by William F. Waldrop; and the Department of Sculpture and Ceramics, directed by Marshall Daugherty.

Mr. Waldrop is an addition to the faculty this year. He is a graduate of the James Millikan University, Decatur, Illinois, and received his Masters Degree from the University of Iowa in the field of Psychology of Music, as applied to the teaching of band instruments. This department will enable the Conservatory to offer the Bachelor of Science degree in Public School Music and its graduates will be able to satisfy requirements of any state that grants a professional or supervisory license for the Bachelor degree.

Mr. Ewing has been named supervisor of music in the Macon high schools and has organized an Inter-Hi Chorus and Inter-Hi Orchestra, as part of the plan to utilize the Conservatory facilities in the service of the community. Mr. Waldrop is offering free instruction in instrumental playing to the one hundred best equipped school children in the Macon public schools, grades fifth through ninth, also, as a step in this plan. A gift from James H. Porter, Wesleyan benefactor, of musical recordings will increase the efficiency of these organizations immeasurably.

Henrietta Collings has been added to the Conservatory faculty as assistant to Fannie (Singleton) Ogden, in the Juvenile Music Department. She will teach Music Appreciation.

Roy Domingos, Conservatory B. M., has returned to do fellowship work at the Conservatory and is also assistant instructor in the Department of Theoretical Music.

The Macon Civic Chorus has been organized under the direction of Mr. Ewing and Mrs. Jelks, which will include representative voices of the city. This organization will present one major oratorio a year and sponsor movements for community singing of sacred music.

The Macon Symphony Orchestra is being revived under the direction of Professor Maerz.

Glimpse of a Dormitory Room at Wesleyan Conservatory After Redecorating

A great honor has recently been bestowed on Professor Maerz in having been named a member of the National Advisory Board of the Music-Of-The-Month Club, Inc. He was one of seven music educators chosen throughout the entire United States and the only representative from the South. Other nationally known authorities, such as Edwin Hughes, President of the National Association of Music Teachers, are among Professor Maerz's associates on the Council.

New Girls at Wesleyan

The number of students at both the college and conservatory this year has increased. In the freshman class at the college are 105 girls, representing nine states, including Georgia, Florida, Alabama, South Carolina, Tennessee, New York, New Jersey, Oklahoma, and Pennsylvania. New transfer students have come into the upper classes.

The three girls who are great granddaughters of Wesleyan alumnae have had a long connection with Wesleyan, through many generations. Roberta Jones is a great, great granddaughter of Thomas Hardeman, Sr., trustee of Wesleyan from 1842 to 1861, and father of seven daughters who attended Wesleyan. One of these daughters, Ann E. (Hardeman) Griswold, graduated in the first class. Many of Roberta's aunts, great aunts and cousins, Hardemans, Caters, and Joneses, are Wesleyan alumnae. During the recent campaign for Wesleyan, the Jones family repurchased for Wesleyan in memory of Roberta (Hardeman) Jones of the class of 1886, a room in the freshman dormitory. Roberta, granddaughter and namesake of the older Roberta, is living this year in this room.

Roberta is great granddaughter, granddaughter, and daughter of Wesleyan alumnae.

Helen Farmer, first cousin of Roberta Jones, is great granddaughter, and daughter of Wesleyan alumnae. Her mother, Helen (Cater) Farmer, is a former president of the Macon Alumnae Club of Wesleyan. Helen is also a boarding student at the college this year.

Elizabeth Branch of Atlanta is great granddaughter and granddaughter of alumnae, had six aunts and great aunts to come to Wesleyan, and 25 cousins. Elizabeth's grandfather Branch was at one time president of Andrew College in Cuthbert, Ga. Her great, great uncle, Dr. J. O. Branch, was a member of the Wesleyan Board of Trustees for 14 years, and Chairman of the Board for eight years.

Elizabeth's great grandmother, Margaret Antonia (Pettus) Branch, was taken to Wesleyan from Ocala, Florida, in a covered wagon. Slaves went along with her and her sister to keep off the Indians. It took a month to make the trip.

Great Granddaughters of Alumnae

Great Grandmothers

Elizabeth Branch	*M. Antonia (Pettus) Branch, 1858
Helen Farmer	*Tabitha Jane (Guyton) Parks, 1847
	*Amelia Elizabeth (Wimberly) Cater, 1844
Roberta Jones	*Tabitha Jane (Guyton) Parks, 1847
	*Amelia Elizabeth (Wimberly) Cater, 1844
	*Lucia (Griswold) Hardeman, 1862

Granddaughters of Alumnae

Grandmothers

Winifred Battle	Mamie (Willis) Battle, 1882
Elizabeth Branch	Harriet (Hollinshead) Branch, 1890
Harriet Ann Dasher	*Annie (Jones) Dasher, 1884
Frances Hurt	Beatrice (Heckle) Tucker

THE WESLEYAN ALUMNAE

Roberta Jones	*Roberta (Hardeman) Jones, 1886
Mary Ann Mathews	Annie (MacDonell) Mathews, 1880
Harriet Merrill (Conservatory)	Hattie Grace (Wharton) Moore, 1883
Helen Partin	Annie (Davis) Hardee, 1888
Frances Shumate	*Julia (Mathews) Parker, 1864
Dotte Smith	Mary (Pickens) Simons, 1888

Daughters of Alumnae

	Mothers
Harriet Ann Dasher	*Lois (Wright) Dasher, 1912
Suzanne Davis	Edna (Mizell) Davis, 1906
Helen Farmer	Helen (Cater) Farmer, 1913
Martha Gaines	Bessie Sue (Taylor) Gaines, 1921
Wilhelmina Hunt	*Pearl (Martin) Hunt, 1906
Roberta Jones	Carolyn (Cater) Jones, 1917
Mary Ann Mathews	Weeta (Watts) Mathews, 1919
Martha Niblack	Mattie May (Tumlin) Niblack, 1910
Patricia Slater	Nell (Glenn) Slater, 1918
Dotte Smith	Annie (Simons) Smith, 1914

Nieces of Alumnae

	Aunts and Great Aunts
Janet Allcorn	Kathleen (Ayer) Hatcher, 1893
Sadye Claire Barnes	Sadye (Johnson) Langston, 1926
	Jessie (Barnes) Hargraves, 1918

NEW GIRLS WHO ARE DAUGHTERS, GRANDDAUGHTERS AND
GREAT GRANDDAUGHTERS OF ALUMNAE

Front row, left to right: Martha Niblack, Winifred Battle, Frances Hurt.

Second row: Dotte Smith, Roberta Jones, Helen Farmer, Martha Gaines, Wilhelmina Hunt.

Third row: Patricia Slater, Mary Ann Mathews, Helen Partin, Suzanne Davis, Elizabeth Branch, Frances Shumate.

Elizabeth Branch	*Lucy (Pettus) Stevens, 1863
	*Anna (Branch) Wynn, 1882
	*Maud (Branch) Ellis, 1885
	*Zetella (Marshall) Harris
	Carrie (Houser) Hollinshead, 1896
	Hattie (Branch) Sibley, 1925
Elsie Carmichael	Nannie (Carmichael) Beeland, 1888
Julia Clark (Conservatory)	*Mary E. Dixon, 1859
	*Julia Dixon, 1860
	Claudia (Clark) Clark, 1901
	Marion (Sconyers) Little, 1913
Mary Louise Davis	Louise (Davis) Davison, 1909
	*Willie Davis, 1903
Minnie Ellis	Louise Atkinson (Ellis) Ross, 1909
Helen Farmer	*Kittie (Cater) Oliver, 1861
	*Mattie (Cater) Kendrick, 1862
	*Ida (Cater) Rogers, 1876
	*Florence (Cater) Howard, 1879
	Carolyn (Cater) Jones, 1917
	Jane (Cater) Sargent, 1919
	Frances (Cater) Snow, 1926
Sarah Glover.....	Martha (DeLay) Kennedy, 1925
Clementine Graham	Willie (Graham) Vaughn, 1917
Harriet Jenkins.....	Tommie Lou (Turner) Craft, 1904
Roberta Jones	*Kittie (Cater) Oliver, 1861
	*Mattie (Cater) Kendrick, 1862
	*Ida (Cater) Rogers, 1876
	*Florence (Cater) Howard, 1879
	*Lena (Hardeman) Chappell, 1894
	Lula Hardeman, 1897
	*Ruby (Jones) Grace, 1891
	Roberta (Jones) Gardiner, 1928
	Elizabeth (Jones) Williamson, 1923
	Helen (Cater) Farmer, 1913
	Jane (Cater) Sargent, 1919
	Frances (Cater) Snow, 1926
Mary Ann Mathews	Helen (Mathews) Luce, 1911
Martha Niblack	*Anelia (Shankle) Perkins, 1885
	Ella (Hall) McCord, 1884
	Lillie (Hall) Walker, 1885
	Mozelle Tumlin, 1915
	Winifred (Tumlin) Smith, 1912
Ruth Olliff	Esther (Flanders) Woodruff, 1916
Ann Outler	Annie Bess (Outler) Dyer, 1915
	Fannie Belle Outler, 1923
Anne Peacock	Elberta (Peacock) Leonard, 1895
Ethel Orr Pierce	Addie (Kellam) Orr, 1926
Dorothy Anne Pim	Lucy (Cunyus) Mulcahy, 1924
Carolyn Pittman	Kate Neal, 1886
	Lillian (Kimbrough) Floyd, 1927
Frances Sanders	Carrilea (Sanders) Cashion, 1923
Frances Shumate	Ella (Parker) Leonard, 1890
Patricia Slater	Ethel (Dekle) Silva, 1908

Margaret G. Smith	Gertrude (Exley) Heyward, 1906
Nannette Snelling	Paula Snelling, 1919
Martha Weaver	*Ria (Weaver) Burks, 1879
	Mary (Weaver) Bethea, 1895
	Margaret (Weaver) Smith, 1897
	Anna Weaver, 1926

Sisters of Alumnae

Sisters

Sadye Claire Barnes	Frances Barnes (Junior)
Julia Clark (Conservatory)	Elizabeth (Clark) Murphree, 1923
	Mary (Clark) Beall, 1931
Geneva Davidson	Mary Haynes Davidson, (Senior)
Wilhelmina Hunt	Elizabeth (Hunt) Harrell, 1930
Lura Jean Menges	Ruth Neil Menges, 1938
Carolyn Moyer	Irene Moyer, 1939
	Ruth Moyer, 1940
Ruth Olliff	Martha Olliff, 1937
	Jessie Olliff, 1940
Mary Jo Peterson	Lillian (Chandler) Peterson, 1933
Elinor Rees	Frances Rees, 1934
	Lee Rees, 1940
Dotte Smith	Maryan Smith, 1939
Mary Smith	Margaret Smith (Junior)
Kathryn Spivey	Christine Spivey, 1940
Virginia Sutherland	Sybil Sutherland, (Sophomore)
Betty Tarpley	Mildred (Tarpley) Perry, 1934
Emily Winslow	Rena Winslow, 1934

Wesleyan Float in Boston, Massachusetts

When the American Legion held its annual convention in Boston, Mass. in September, Wesleyan was represented by a float, decorated in lavender and purple and bearing two lovely girls representing Alma Mater and Learning.

Frances (Peabody) McKay, who is publicity director at Wesleyan Conservatory this year, had the brilliant idea of having one of the Georgia floats to honor the first college for women, and she worked tirelessly on plans for it. Attractive booklets about Wesleyan were printed for distribution to the visitors in Boston.

In Boston Wesleyan was ably represented by Marion (Luse) Chenery of the class of 1886, who took entire charge of seeing that the float was properly executed, selected the girls to be on it, provided them with lovely flowers, and altogether made it a most successful occasion for Wesleyan and one on which the college received much valuable publicity.

RUBY SHARP ROSSER

Just before the opening of Wesleyan this year, great sorrow came to the campus in the death of Mrs. George Elijah Rosser, wife of the head of the Biblical Literature Department at the college, and herself for many years a teacher of Bible at the Conservatory.

Mrs. Rosser was ill only a few days, and her many friends were shocked by her sudden passing. As an honorary escort at her funeral at Mulberry Street Methodist Church, the women who had been in her Sunday School class marched in and took their places together on one side of the auditorium. It was an inspiring sight; hundreds made up the group, and filled a large section of the pews. Truly the good that she has done lives after her!

Mrs. Ruby Sharp Rosser was of distinguished lineage. Her father was prominent in Church and State. She belonged to a family of teachers. She was at one time librarian of Wesleyan College. At the age of fourteen she was graduated with first honor at Reinhardt College, named for her mother's family. Later she was graduated with distinction at La-Grange College. For many years she taught Biblical Literature at Wesleyan. She was the teacher of one of the greatest women's Bible classes in Georgia, the class having been named for her. She also regularly lectured to other groups of Bible students, and her brilliant talents were under ceaseless demand for varied service in the church and community. I am willing to say that she was the incarnation of sacrificial, Christ-like love.

G. E. R.

Ruby Sharp Rosser

IN MEMORIAM

Leila Artope, Ex 1874
 Etta (Clisby) McKay, A.B. 1875
 Susie (Lamkin) deMorgan, Ex 1876
 Julia (Brown) Wimberly, Ex 1877
 Susie (Gray) Hillard, Ex 1877
 Emily (Humber) White, A.B. 1880
 Anne (Trippe) Rambo, Ex 1881
 Mattie Nutting, A.B. 1883
 Callie (Law) Dean, A.B. 1883
 Annie (Randle) Stewart, Ex 1886
 Mary (Tate) Holland, Ex 1887
 Mary Baber-Blackshear, Ex 1889
 Martha (Estes) Dimon, Ex 1889
 Annie (Speer) Anderson, Ex 1889
 Minnie Goodall, A.B. 1891
 Ruby (Jones) Grace, A.B. 1891
 Clifton Wing, A.B. 1892

Margaret (Moore) Jarrell, A.B. 1892
 Stella (Peter) Fabyan, Ex 1894
 Virginia Persons, Ex 1896
 Pearl (Bradley) Rogers, Ex 1898
 Elinor Jones, Ex 1903
 Helen (Roberts) Ross, A.B. 1904
 Johnnie (Logan) Lewis, Ex 1905
 Clyde (Shingler) McKenzie, Ex 1906
 Florence (Legg) Hope, Ex 1918
 Ora Brake, Cons. 1926
 Sara Clyde (Adams) Brown, A.B. 1928
 Rose (Arnau) Simmons, Ex 1929
 Bobby (Tanner) Wiggins, Cons. 1931
 Cynthia (Comer) Ross, Cons. 1932
 Josephine (Simerville) Fulmer, Cons. 1932
 Julia Catherine (Weaver) Lucas, A.B. 1937

Gifts To The Historical Collections

Philomathean Program of 1866

The oldest Philomathean program in the Wesleyan historical collection was sent to the college this summer by Mrs. William H. Kiser of Atlanta, daughter of Lucie Marion (Cook) Peel, whose name appears on the program. This is the oldest "Society" program in the Wesleyan collection, the nearest one to it being an Adelphean program of 1868, given to the college by Eunice Whitehead of Macon some years ago.

Lucie Cook was a beautiful and talented girl, the daughter of General Philip Cook, beloved throughout the state, and her grandfather, Major Philip Cook, was long in command of Ft. Hawkins, Macon stronghold against the Indians. She was editor of the "Philomathean Gazette" when at Wesleyan, and spurred interest in its pages, writing for it herself poetry, comments on foreign affairs, and humorous sketches.

She graduated in 1868, and in 1875 married Colonel William Lawson Peel, banker, civic leader, and President of the Atlanta Music Festival Association. She was one of the most distinguished women in the South, and certainly one of the most useful in patriotic projects. She was enthusiastic in her support of the D.A.R., a charter member of the first chapter organized. She was Honorary State Regent for life. She organized the Joseph Habersham Chapter, and personally conducted the mammoth work of the Joseph Habersham historical collections. She collected a list of more than 5,000 Georgia soldiers, most of whom had been consigned to oblivion, and the list was published in a report by the government, properly certified by the Secretary of State.

She died in 1923. Her daughter, Lucy Peel Kiser, had the program appropriately framed for Wesleyan. Her mother was 17 years of age at the time of the "Celebration" which the program recalls, and her part on it was an essay, "Reveries of a Diamond Ring."

Album of the 1870's

A quaint old book, entitled "Mental Photographs, an Album for Confessions," kept in 1873-'76 by Florrie (Allen) Chappell was sent to Wesleyan this summer by her sister, Mrs. Shelton Frederick Howell of Americus.

Florrie (Allen) Chappell, a graduate of 1876, was a charming and interesting person, devoted to Wesleyan, and a guest of the college on several Commencement occasions. She died in November, 1937, and asked that her sister send all of her Wesleyan keepsakes to the college.

The Album has pages with spaces for her friends to fill in their favorite colors, books, amusements, ideas of happiness and misery, etc., to tell of their ambitions, their dislikes, their ideals. Some of those who filled in these pages were: Prof. Cosby W. Smith, Lillian (Roberts) Solomon, Mary (Lane) Edwards, Bertha (Link) Guttenberger, Lizzie (Plant) Schofield, Lila (Jones) Winn, Victoria Holmes, Ida (Carter) Rogers, Kate (Ashburn) Campbell, Aurie (Smith) Davis, and others.

Diploma and Essays of 1860's

The diploma of Ellen C. Holt, dated 1866, and her junior essay on "Passing Away" were given to the Wesleyan Historical Collection during the summer. Ellen Holt was the daughter of the Hon. Thaddeus G. Holt, who was from 1850 to 1870 a trustee of Wesleyan, and who built the lovely Holt home in Macon on Georgia Avenue and Orange Street.

Ellen Holt married D. E. Norris, and died some years ago. The diploma and essay were kept by her good friend, Miss Fiddle Miller of Gordon, Georgia, teacher in the public schools, who died last fall. It was Miss Miller's wish that the keepsakes should be given to Wesleyan, and they were brought to the college by Mrs. C. C. Johnson of Gordon whose daughter, Ruth, is a new member of the Junior class this year.

Address of 1879

A clipping giving the address of the Hon. J. S. Hook at a Wesleyan Commencement in 1879 was given to the college recently by Louise (Stubbs) Lowrey, A.B. '25, of Macon. It had been kept all the years by her grandfather.

Picture of a Student of the 1840's

Through Lillian (Roberts) Solomon of Macon, A.B. 1876, Wesleyan received a picture of Sarah Ann Abbott, one of the earliest students of Wesleyan. Pictures of the graduates of the 1840's are rare, and we are delighted to have this addition to our historical collection.

Sarah Ann Abbott became Mrs. Barker, and many of her descendants came to Wesleyan. Her daughters were Sallie (Barker) Hill of the class of 1873, and Lillie (Barker) Smith of the class of 1877. Granddaughters Parna Hill, 1899 (who gave the picture to the Wesleyan collection), and Mary (Hill) Brown, 1911, and great granddaughter Sara Smith, A.B. 1939, also attended Sarah Ann Abbott's Alma Mater.

Report of 1885

Blanche (Ellis) Nyhan of Macon gave to the Wesleyan collection one of her report sheets, dated March 31, 1885. She received grades in literature, Original Composition, Bible, Reading, Elocution, Latin, Arithmetic, Astronomy, Geology, Mental Philosophy, and Penmanship, besides in such matters as Care of Books, Attention to Duty, Deportment in Study Room, etc.

Scrapbook Pages and Photograph

From the scrapbook of Lena (Bateman) Pool of Butler came two pages with clippings about Wesleyan to be added to the Wesleyan Historical Collection. Pictures of Dr. W. C. Bass and Prof. Cosby Smith, a Historical Sketch of Wesleyan, and a picture of the college buildings since 1882 were in the scrapbook pages.

The material was sent by Lena (Bateman) Pool's sister, Mrs. C. E. Benns of Butler, with whom she makes her home. Mrs. Benns also sent a photograph of Lena Bateman as a Wesleyan student, a most welcome addition to the collection.

Diploma and Catalog

The diploma of Wilhelmina Lanier, dated 1844, and a Wesleyan catalog of 1877-78 were given to Wesleyan by Mrs. Fred J. Cooledge, Jr. of Atlanta. Mrs. Cooledge marked in the catalog the Wesleyan graduates to whom she is related, and they are: Sarah V. (Clopton) Pierce, A.B. 1840; Martha E. (Ligon) Clopton, A.B. 1842; Wilhelmina (Lanier) Eason, 1844; and Sarah (Chapman) Eason, 1849.

Gifts to the Library

Mary Culler White, recently returned to China after a furlough in the states, gave to the Wesleyan library a scrapbook compiled by her aunt Mrs. Alice Culler Cobb, "lady principal" of Wesleyan. The book contains newspaper clippings and programs presented at the college from 1876 to 1882. On one page is an account of the wedding of Minnie Bass and Richard Burden, beginning, in the flowery language of the day, "Cupid has again shot his arrow of love in our midst and pierced two hearts, one of loveliness and the other of manliness." There is an account of the organization of the South Georgia Conference Woman's Missionary Society, of which Mrs. Cobb was first president, and another of the death of Dr. E. H. Myers, former president of the college, during the yellow fever epidemic in Savannah.

Edith (Stetson) Coleman gave to the library a quaint old marriage contract, which was found among the papers of the late Mary Baber-Blackshear. It is a valuable addition to the historical material.

Marion (Elder) Jones gave the library a copy of the 1917 "Veterropt".

Lila May Chapman of Birmingham, Ala., gave the library the last volume of the Phi Mu "Aglaia".

Booklet By Charles J. Haden

A most attractive booklet giving the story of George V. Gress, donor of the Cyclorama in Atlanta and written by Charles J. Haden of Atlanta, husband of former alumnae trustee Annie (Bates) Haden, was presented to Wesleyan by the author.

At the request of the head of the reference department of the Carnegie Library of Atlanta, Mr. Haden wrote the history of the Cyclorama and the Zoo, and a biographical sketch of their interesting donor. There are three pictures in the booklet showing the building in which the Cyclorama is housed, a scene from the painting, and the bronze tablet to Mr. Gress.

Book of Georgia and Georgians

Mrs. Murray Howard of Atlanta, author of a new book, "Georgia Homes and Notable Georgians," has given to Wesleyan a copy of this lovely volume, which is a valuable addition to the collection of material on the state.

Wesleyan is represented in the book with a picture and sketch. Many lovely homes over the state are shown, and there are brief biographical sketches of prominent Georgians. The book is dedicated to the memory of Harry Stillwell Edwards, noted Georgia writer and friend of Wesleyan.

The book is the fourth by this writer, the others being "Progressive Georgians", Georgia Homes and Landmarks", and "Women of Georgia".

Annual of 1902

Annie (Daniel) Brown, who graduated in music in 1902 and received a medal in music that year, has recently presented to the Wesleyan Historical Collection a copy of the Wesleyan annual of 1902, the first annual, known as "The Zig Zag."

Annie (Daniel) Brown lives now in Columbus and is an active member of the Wesleyan Alumnae Club. She studied music at Wesleyan under Miss F. Eva Massey.

Mary (Evans) Glass, A.B. 1851, one of the founders of the Adelphean Society, was an aunt of Annie (Daniel) Brown. Her picture appears in the "Zig Zag" with the history of the society. Her father, James E. Evans, Methodist minister, was a trustee of Wesleyan and pastor of Mulberry Street Methodist Church.

Addition To The Art Collection

A new oil painting, the work of Paul King of Stony Brook, Long Island, was added to the Wesleyan collection of art during the summer. The painting, entitled, "Snowing", is the seventy-sixth title in the collection which was begun five years ago through the influence of Helena E. (Ogden) Campbell of New York, artist and alumna of Wesleyan.

Mr. King is a friend of Mr. Edward Dufner, already represented in the collection by three lovely paintings. He is a member of the National Academy of Design, of the Salmagundi Club, of the Philadelphia Art Club, of the National Arts Club. He has received many prizes for his work, and is represented in permanent collections in New York, Philadelphia, and Washington, D. C.

When he had an exhibition of his paintings at the Ferargil Galleries in New York City, it was said of him: "Paul King's father, Bernard H. King, lived in Buffalo and worked in precious metals. The art experience of the son was mainly in lithography, at which when sixteen he showed remarkable ability. A few years later we find him in New York studying under Mowbray, later travelling in Holland, France, and Italy.

"King's paintings are of himself, sincere like Paul King, popular, amazingly solid, and intensely pleasing. He brings to his work devotion to Weir and Twachtman and Winslow Homer. We find a glistening dreamlike quality and delightful design that leads us by the ocean or a pearly brook. Boats he paints, and gray houses in the winter, and portraits."

WE DO THANK ALL ALUMNAE

For their kind understanding and consideration for the past few weeks through the misfortunes that befell those looking after the Alumnae Office and the magazine: through the long illness and death on November 8 of Thomas Dabney Loyall, father of Jennie Loyall, Alumnae Secretary, and the sudden death two days before of her sister's husband, Dr. Charles J. Woods, and the automobile accident and injuries of Rev. T. H. Thomson, father of Eunice Thomson, Alumnae Editor, from which he has now recovered, but which necessitated her absence from Macon at various times.

Greetings From Mattie (Huff) Jennings

To her first commencement as alumnae trustee Mattie (Huff) Jennings coming from Philadelphia was a charming visitor at the Rivoli campus for the days intervening between the trustee meeting and graduation day. . . . Follows in part her greetings to the alumnae at their Saturday meeting:

The quotation that is uppermost in my mind today is one my contemporary grandmothers will recognize as having been put to use in the nursery many times, for I feel as did the old lady who fell asleep on the King's highway—"And there came an old peddler whose name was Stout and cut her petticoats round about. He cut her petticoats almost up to her knees, and she began to shiver and she began to sneeze. She began to shiver and she began to cry, 'Lack a mercy on me! This is none of I! Can this be I? As I suppose it be, I have a little dog at home and he will know me. If it be I, he will wag his little tail. If it be not I, he will only bark and wail.'" I need my little dog for identification today, for surely, "This is none of I!" Who am I to be talking to this group? I, who was the least among my fellow students, I, who saw the honors carried off one by one all these "old ladies" who sit in front of me, while I lagged behind and took life so lightly! Who am I to do this thing?

Perhaps it is with the modern idea of finding out how the other half lives that led the intelligentsia to call me to give an account of myself!

However, I brought from Wesleyan some things that have been of invaluable good to me in my strenuous life and all of these were convincing proof that the teaching force is of 90% importance in education, for I gained much from the personalities of my teachers—more than from their text books.

From one strong-minded Mrs. Cobb, I learned to do hard things and like the doing of them. She was one who always contended that the teacher should be above financial considerations, and teach for the sheer love of it. Then the two Allen sisters—Christian gentlewomen! Their unconscious influence was incaluable. How Miss Allen did struggle with my flat "a's" and tried to moderate my "e's" that sounded like "i's". That was a worthy task, and an effort to give a cultural touch to my poor English. I've ever been grateful for this alone.

This has been said to be the most tragic hour in history since the day of Calvary. The hour when after nearly 1000 years the shores of the most civilized nation on earth are about to be invaded by a ruthless beast of a Frankenstein, and one holds one's breath in fear for the outcome to civilization as we have known it.

Many years ago there was a day of great darkness in America, a day when the sun seemed to have gone out and people everywhere were in a panic. The House of Representatives was in session in Connecticut and one member said that in his opinion the Day of Judgment had come, and he moved an immediate adjournment. One old man named Davenport arose, and replied that "if this be the Day of Judgment, I wish to be found at my place of duty, and so I move that candles be brought in and we proceed with our business." It does seem to me that Wesleyan has indeed followed the example of that old citizen and, despite the gloom of the debt that hung over her, and "the destruction that wasteth at noon-day," she has lighted her candles, and gone about her business of training young women for Christian citizenship in America.

An English writer has said that the greatest danger to our civilization was the contrast presented by the marvels of man's powers and the imbecility brought to their use. "We have powers fit for the Gods, and have brought to them the mentality of school boys and savages. Witness the airplane—the greatest of inventions, which today threatens civilization with destruction. The superman made the airplane and the ape got hold of it." He adds that, "the greatest contrast in the history of mankind was in the youth of totalitarian countries and our Democracy. Our youth have no passion for a cause, no crusade worth their powers, nothing to which they can devote their lives. They are all dressed up and no place to go, educated and indulged, while the youth over there are singing songs of victory under what to them is a magnificent obsession."

But the World of Tomorrow brings to our youth the greatest challenge of all time, and the World of Today brings to those of us who are older a task more than we can face alone. Can we stand together, youth and old age, and pledge a loyalty to Christian ideals and womanhood and give our whole selves to that? Wesleyan has had tremendous assets in the past—courage and faith—and these she can share with some of us, whether guests of students, as we go away from the campus these next days. If some mornings we wake and find our hearth stones cold, and a certain deadness within our hearts, we can touch the living embers of her warm faith and steadfast gleam of her unfaltering courage and light our souls with these.

Editorial Note: It is interesting, in view of Mattie (Huff) Jennings' tribute to the Allen sisters that the Alumnae Office had a letter recently from Elizabeth Allen (now Mrs. C. E. Patillo, Sr., of 3116 San Carlos Ave., Tampa, Fla.), in which she said:

"I was teacher and Lady Principal of the Boarding Department for five years, educating my young sister in regular course and music. She was Anne Allen, now Mrs. F. S. Johnston of Franklin, N. C. There are several of my students living here in Tampa where my late husband had St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, and they always invite me to their Wesleyan meetings.

"I celebrated my 20th birthday on the 29th of February, when I was 80 years old. My heart swelled with tender emotion when I received cards from nine different states from 'old Wesleyan girls'. That is explained when I remember that I had my sixth birthday at Wesleyan, and girls and faculty gave me a party in the Grand Parlor."

SCHEDULE

— of —

FUTURE EVENTS AT WESLEYAN

- November 14th—ERNEST WOLFF, Baritone
- November 27th—WESLEYAN DRAMA DEPARTMENT
Play "From Nine till Six"
- November 29—ALBERT SPALDING, Violinist
- December 18th—MACON CIVIC CHORUS
Christmas portion of Handel, "Messiah."
- January 17, 1941—WESLEYAN DRAMA DEPARTMENT
(Play to be announced)
- January 28th—MIECZYSLAW MUNZ, Pianist
- February 7th—WESTMINSTER CHOIR
- February 26th—RICHARD CROOKS, Tenor
- March 27th—WESLEYAN DRAMA DEPARTMENT
(Play to be announced)
- May 30th—"IOLANTHE" Musical Comedy by Gilbert and Sullivan. This production given by Wesleyan College and Conservatory culminates the musical events of this school year.
- May 31st—GRADUATION SOIREE

Weddings

Anderson-Carter

Carol Anderson, A.B. '36, to William Eugene Carter, Jr., of Albany and Waycross, in December, 1939.

Aycock-Dorris

Betty Aycock, Ex '39, to Dr. Henry Clay Dorris of Jackson and Winona, Miss. November 23.

Bailey-Godwin

Lilly Bailey, Conservatory '33, to Cecil J. Godwin of Edison and Bamberg, S. C., December 24, 1939.

Bailey-Howard

Rietta Bailey, A.B. '34, to Frederick Ervin Howard of Manteo, N. C., June 8.

Baird-Murrah

LaVerne Baird, Conservatory '40, to Jack Hardeman Murrah of Brunswick, July 14.

Ballenger-Klunder

Mabel E. Ballenger, L.B. 1897, to Henry Klunder of West New York, N. J., June 7.

Beeland-Pipes

Maude Beeland, Ex '40, to Samuel Wesley Pipes, III of Mobile, Ala., June 19.

Benbow-Burnside

Dorothy Benbow, Ex '41, to Otis Halbert Burnside of Auburn, Ala., February 17.

Bigelman-Long

Bertie Bigelman, Conservatory '39, to John Henderson Long of Jacksonville, October 21.

Birch-Harrison

Hazel Birch, A.B. '37, to William Henry Harrison of Memphis, Tenn., in November.

Bowers-Bowen

Elizabeth Bowers, Ex '38, to James Young Bowen of Royston, August 8.

Brewer-Brewer

Irene Brewer, Ex '35, to Dudley Eaton Brewer of Atlanta, in April.

Brooks-Worley

Frances Brooks, A.B. '36, to John Thomas Worley of Atlanta, November 23, 1939.

Callaway-Hoffman

Mary Callaway, Ex 1930, to James Lawrence Hoffman of Gadsden, Ala.

Carter-Franks

Pansy Carter, Ex '31, to Walter Hubert Franks of Sandersville, April 27.

Colvin-Pascal

Mary Ruth Colvin, Cons. '35, to Robert Pascal of Philadelphia, Penn., February 25.

Crook-Griffith

Mary Clark Crook, Conservatory '36, to Arthur Griffith, Jr. of Macon in February.

Culpepper-Edwards

Sarah Mary Culpepper, Conservatory '31, to Harvey Sims Edwards of Greenville, N. C., August 6, 1939.

Culpepper-Lee

Martha Park Culpepper, A.B. '37, to William Francis Lee of Newnan, August 15.

Daniel-Lee

Dorothy Daniel, Conservatory '37, to William David Lee of Columbia, S. C., December 7, 1939.

Dozier-Brakle

Virginia Dozier, A.B. '25, to John W. Van Brakle of New York.

Ferguson-Fuller

Betty Ann Ferguson, Conservatory '38, to James K. Fuller of Cedartown, September 24.

Flatau-Joselove

Carol Flatau, A.B. '33, to Julian Joselove of Atlanta in December, 1939.

Fleming-Hogan

Winnie Fleming, Conservatory Ex '43, to John F. Hogan, Jr. of Macon, in November.

Garrett-Cook

Edna Garrett, Ex '39, to Robert Wilson Cook of Tifton and Columbus, August 23.

Glass-Draughon

Elizabeth Glass, Conservatory '40, to Elmo Levy Draughon, Jr. of Macon, September 1.

Godbee-Watson

Sara (Thompson) Godbee, Conservatory '16, to Dr. Lester P. Watson of Swainsboro, February 11.

Goodson-Osteen

Elaine Goodson, A.B. '38, to Dr. Wentworth Loyd Osteen of Augusta and Pembroke, Ga. in August.

Grantham-Brown

Dean Grantham, Conservatory Ex '43, to Thomas Edward Brown of Swainsboro, January 19.

Greene-Sieg

Ida Ellis Greene, Ex '33, to Leroy O. Sieg of Atlanta in the fall.

Griffin-Mills

Sara Griffin, Ex '39, to James Cobb Mills of Henderson, N. C., December 21, 1939.

Guilford-Snelling

Edna (Mozo) Guilford, Special '04, to James Palmer Snelling of Macon, January 1.

Hall-Arnold

Katherine Hall, A.B. '37, to Dr. John S. Arnold of Griffin, in June.

Hall-Mason

Elizabeth Hall, A.B. '34, to Fred Bailey Mason of Chickamauga, in June.

Hall-Moore

Helen Hall, Ex '38, to James Benjamin Moore of Macon, in July.

Hammond-Mitchell

Marie Hammond, Conservatory '34, to Dr. John T. Mitchell of Miami, Fla., October 22.

Hancock-Cassidy

Hilda Hancock, Conservatory '27, to Francis Thomas Cassidy of Macon, November 13, 1939.

Hausman-Zittrouer

Martha Hausman, A.B. '40, to Randall M. Zittrouer of Atlanta, in the summer.

Hester-Simmons

Dorothy Hester, A.B. '27, to William Walter Simmons, Jr. of Memphis, Tenn., in April.

Hill-Thurman

Virginia Hill, Ex '39, to William Neal Thurman of Atlanta, in August.

Holder-Hagan

Lois Holder, A.B. '29, to Richard Carlton Hagan of Urbana, Ill., June 19.

Holloman-Pugh

Sue (Reavis) Holloman, A.B. '33, to James Frank Pugh, Jr. of Atlanta and Lynchburg, May 25.

Holmes-Burns

Hazel Holmes, Ex '40, to James Derry Burns of Macon, June 11.

Hurley-Cullen

Elizabeth Hurley, Ex '34, to William Thompson Cullen of Evanston, Ill., in the late fall.

Hurst-Anderson

Katherine Anderson, Ex '38, to Augustus Edwin Anderson of Augusta, October 5.

Hutchinson-Lane

Novelle Hutchinson, B.M. '33, to James Clifford Lane of Greensboro, Ga., in June.

Israel-Faulk

Rosa Israel, Conservatory '37, to Mark S. Faulk, Jr. of Jeffersonville, December, 1939.

Jackson-Brown

Ethelena Jackson, Ex '36, to Malcolm Hardy Brown of Macon, September 21.

Jay-Gurkin

Beatrice Jay, Ex '34, to William S. Gurkin of Newark and Bradley Beach, N. J., September 11.

Johnson-McNeill

Mary Ruth Johnson, Ex '36, to John T. McNeill of Thomson, April 6.

Jones-Smith

Annie Wheat Jones, Conservatory Ex '39, to David Dudley Smith, Jr. of Eastman and Macon, October 22.

Jones-Leach

Marybeth Jones, A.B. '39, to Pete Singleton Leach of Cochran and Newnan, in August.

Jones-Smith

Winnifred Jones, A.B. '30, to Dr. Garland Garvey Smith of Emory University, in June.

King-Epps

Billie King, A.B. '39, to Dr. George Law Epps of Newberry, S.C., June 1.

Kline-Mustard

Constance Kline, Conservatory Ex '41, to Robert Wall Mustard of Atlanta, in March.

Knight-Meyer

Audrey Knight, Conservatory '34, to Henry J. Meyer of Ossining, N. Y., February 18.

Knight-Gillem

Beth Knight, Conservatory '35, to Lieut. Alvan C. Gillem, III of Fort Benning, July 31.

Lamar-Morrison

Martha Lamar, A.B. '29, to Joseph Valentine Morrison of Savannah and Americus, in January.

Laney-Higgins

Gene Martin Laney, Ex '36, to James Cochran Higgins of Sanford, Fla., September 19.

Lee-Moody

Virginia Lee, Conservatory '35, to Littleton Berry Moody of Macon, January 3.

Lockhart-Cowan

Fay Lockhart, Conservatory '26, to Chalmer Lincoln Cowan of Macon, June 22.

Loh-Hazlehurst

Vivian Loh, Conservatory '38, to David Marshall Hazlehurst of Macon, in the spring.

Lowe-Brown

Mary Lowe, Conservatory '39, to James Harold Brown of Swainsboro, in the early winter, 1939.

Luke-Oliver

Mary Luke, A.B. '31, to Thomas William Oliver, Jr. of Brunswick, June 27.

Maddox-Wilson

Wilda Maddox, Conservatory '40, to the Rev. John Elbert Wilson of Midville, June 25.

McBride-Mills

Ala Rebecca McBride, Voice '39, to John Bryan Mills of Hazlehurst, February 4.

McCamy-Wrenn

Christine McCamy, Ex '42, to Cecil Wrenn of Albany, June 23.

McDonald-Jorgensen

Lois McDonald, A.B. '32, to Matt L. Jorgensen of Atlanta and San Jose, Calif.

McDowell-Dover

Virginia McDowell, Ex '39, to Dr. Tom Allen Dover of Clayton, October 19.

McMichael-Fields

Ruth McMichael, A.B. '32, to Lawrence Edwin Fields of Atlanta, June 8.

McWhorter-Bickerstaff

Louise McWhorter, A.B. '38, to Frank Carlton Bickerstaff of Athens and Savannah.

Meeks-Vindal

Gladys Meeks, A.B. '32, to Harold Melvin Vindal of Washington, D. C., in November, 1939.

Metz-Martz

Ethleen (Pafford) Metz, Ex '17, to Andrew Martz of New York City, August 17.

Middlebrooks-Clark

Frances Middlebrooks, Ex '40, to Marion Raymond Clark of St. Louis, Mo., April 6.

Milam-Rich

Winifred Milam, A.B. '39, to Charles Edward Rich of LaGrange, October 11.

Mizell-Hopkins

Jewell Mizell, Ex '43, to Alva J. Hopkins, Jr. of Folkston, June 20.

Moore-LeRoy

Sue Moore, A.B. '27, to Hester Franklin LeRoy of Augusta, in August.

Murrell-Smith

Elizabeth Murrell, Ex '38, to Claude Smith of Florence, S. C., in October.

Norman-Hamrick

Mary Norman, A.B. '33, to Robert Whitten Hamrick of Cedartown, July 14.

Nunn-Brown

Caroline Nunn, Ex '38, to Marion Larry Brown of Washington, D. C., in the early spring.

Oxley-Clark

Sophie Oxley, Ex '41, to Augustus Howard Clark, Jr.

Parker-Saunders

Kathryn Parker, Conservatory '39, to Charles Winston Saunders, Jr., of Lexington, Ky., April 19.

Pate-Meyer

Betty Pate, Ex '41, to Ronald Edgar Meyer of State College, Penn., September 7.

Peacock-Powell

Mary Ann Peacock, A.B. '36, to Oscar Johnson Powell of Arlington, Ga., in June.

Perkins-Heard

Estelle Perkins, A.B. '29, to Asbury Latimer Heard of Elberton, December 27, 1939.

Peters-Taylor

Mary Virginia Peters, A.B. '38, to Simeon Lindsey Taylor of Manchester, in the late fall.

Philips-Martin

Clare Philips, Ex '38, to Sidney Walter Martin of Tifton and Athens, Ga., July 30.

Pinson-Haas

Vivian Pinson, A.B. '28, to Dr. Hans Haas of Austria and Chapel Hill, N. C., September 30.

Pridgen-Massey

Elaine Pridgen, A.B. '40, to Walter M. Massey, Jr. of Macon.

Proudfit-Dickson

Consuelo Proudfit, Ex '19, to Dr. James A. Dickson of Cleveland, Ohio, November 22, 1939.

Puckett-Winston

Clara Puckett, A.B. '39, to Richard Kinnebrew Winston of Athens and Augusta, June 15.

Ray-Livingston

Sara Ray, A.B. '38, to Willoughby Charles Livingston of Macon, December 29, 1939.

Respass-Springfield

Molly Ray Respass, A.B. '39, to Rev. Wesley Thaxton Springfield of Sulligent, Ala., June 18.

Reynolds-McCommons

Dorothy Reynolds, A.B. '33, to Owen McCommons of Greensboro, in February.

Rhodes-Smith

Marguerite Rhodes, Ex '34, to Donald Wallace Smith of New York City, in June.

Roberts-Day

Camille Roberts, Ex '39, to Marvin Day of Atlanta, November 23.

Rylander-Hudson

Frances (Davenport) Rylander, Ex '11, to Lee Hudson of Americus, April 20.

Senter-Coleman

Mary Ruth Senter, A.B. '31, to Walter Barton Coleman of New York and Austin, Texas, in September.

Shankle-Budd

Julia Victoria Shankle, Ex '32, to Wesley Lowry Budd of Oxford, June 26.

Shepherd-Hollowell

Launa Shepherd, Ex '29, to Emory Delano Hollowell of Santa Monica, Calif., October 13, 1939.

Simpson-Holloman

Floy Simpson, A.B. '33, to Garland Hamilton Holloman of Itta Bena, Miss.

Smith-Vickers

Elizabeth Smith, Ex '37, to Claude Wallace Vickers of Chattanooga, June 8.

Smith-Rice

Margaret Starr Smith, Ex '34, to Zachariah Armistead Rice of Atlanta, in the early fall.

Smith-Farmer

Muriel Smith, Ex '39, to John Wooding Farmer of Atlanta in September.

Smith-Edwards

Norma Smith, A.B. '33, to William Marcus Edwards of Claxton, December 30, 1939.

Stewart-Wingfield

Betty Stewart, A.B. '38, to Alvin Wingfield, Jr. of Atlanta, June 18.

Stiles-Knight

Elizabeth Stiles, Conservatory '35, to Lieutenant Elwin Thomas Knight, U. S. A., in June.

Taylor-Tarver

Margaret Taylor, Conservatory '37, to Jackson William Tarver of Lyons, in March.

Vickers-Hasell

Jacqueline Vickers, Ex '42, to Nathaniel Ingraham Hasell of St. Simon's Island, February 10.

Wall-Warlick

Mildred Wall, Conservatory Ex '33, to John Henry Warlick of Granite Falls, N. C., November 28, 1939.

Washburn-Soule

Margaret Washburn, Ex '38, to Charles Soule of Pensacola, Fla., in March.

Weems-Gilreath

Katherine (Tanner) Weems, A.B. '31, to Nelson Gilreath of Carrollton, in January.

West-Pirkle

Eugenia West, A.B. '34, to Lieut. Russell L. Pirkle of Key West, Fla., August 4.

Wilkins-Orr

Lou Wilkins, Ex '36, to Robert L. Orr of Byhalia, Miss., in June.

Williams-Wiley

Frances Williams, Conservatory '41, to Olin W. Wiley of Cordele, July 12.

Willingham-Crandall

Josephine Willingham, Conservatory '31, to John Roswell Crandall of Macon, October 16.

Willingham-Moore

Pauline Willingham, A.B. '33, to Rev. John Allen Moore of Belgrade, Yugoslavia, in Rome, Italy, January 10.

Willis-Rollins

Mary Eugenia Willis, Ex '43, to Raleigh W. Rollins of Bainbridge, June 27.

Wilson-Vinson

Evelyn Wilson, Ex '42, to William Ezekial Vinson of Fitzgerald and Akron, Ohio, December 25, 1939.

Wright-Tribble

Helen Mathews Wright, A.B. '38, to Jack Herschel Tribble, Jr., of Ft. Valley, in November, 1939.

Wright-Williams

Martha Holt Wright, A.B. '37, to Scott Rogers Williams of Ft. Valley, June 22.

Class Notes

Reunion Class in 1941

1933, 1934, 1935, 1936

1914, 1915, 1916, 1917

1895, 1896, 1897, 1898

1876, 1877, 1878, 1879

An especial effort has been made to get many news notes about Wesleyan alumnae, particularly about those alumnae from whom we have not heard in a long time. We have had good help from many alumnae, not only the class secretaries and class captains, but from many others. The editor extends thanks to the following for their assistance:

Martha (James) Acree
Mary (Allman) Alford
Rossie Andrews
Lizzie (Dickson) Bennett
Mary (Mabbett) Bowman
Lois (Daniels) Brandon
Mildred Brannen
Miriam (Jones) Brinson
Maryella Camp
Eloise (Cooper) Cannon
Josephine (Redwine) Carmichael
Ora (Rawlins) Carter
Mary Jean Chapman
Margaret (Atkinson) Clark
Mary Dudley (Fort) Colley
Mary Alice (Strange) Daniel
Nina (Tabor) Dorsey
Jeffie (Fincher) Fambro
Mildred (Castleberry) Giddens
Ruth (Ray) Gleaton
Genie Griner
Sarah Hammock
Marguerite (Miller) Herndon
Olivia (Dubberly) Hughes
Elizabeth (Lipham) Jones
Anne E. (Benton) Jordan
Florence (Crisler) Lawrence
Kathleen (Cowan) Lewis
Cleo (Coley) Love
Helen (Manry) Lowe
Louise (Cooper) McKinney
Mary (Banks) Morcock
Margaret (Long) Morrison
Lucille (Wallace) Nuckolls
Catherine (Polhill) Pate

Maryella (Veatch) Perry
Mary Virginia Peters
Carolyn (Anderson) Pierson
Mabel (Wynne) Roberts
Josephine (Whitehurst) Rozar
Mildred Shirah
Jeffie (Bennett) Smith
Eunice (Partin) Smith
Annie (Simons) Smith
Margaret Snooks
Reba (Moore) Standifer
Alice (Ray) Stebbins
Eva (Brewer) Taylor
Helen (White) Thornton
Margaret (Cone) Tolbert
Helen (Dover) Turner
Florence (Averill) Walker
Katherine (Snooks) Walker
Nannie (Kitchings) Weathers
Bertie Williams
Ruth (Ricketson) Whipple

The following note appeared in the "Twenty Years Ago" Column in the Macon Telegraph on October 13: "Graduates of fifty years ago are revisiting their Alma Mater, Wesleyan College, during a U. D. C. convention. Mrs. Helen Plane, Mrs. John A. Perdue, and Miss Alice Baxter are among those already here."

1855

A most impressive program was held by the A. A. U. W. Branch of Ft. Worth, Texas, in January, centering around memories of Helen (Swearingen) Kirby, who graduated at Wesleyan College in the class of 1855, and became Dean of Women at the University of Texas. The program included a sketch of the college during the 1850's, pageant-pictures of the life of Helen Marr (Swearingen) Kirby, and the singing of the Wesleyan Alma Mater.

1863

The oldest living graduate of Wesleyan is Sarah (Robertson) Strozier of Cordele, formerly of Greenville, Ga. The Alumnae Office has had several delightful letters from her this fall, written in her own hand. You would never believe she is 95 years of age! She says in one, "I broke my arm in two places on the eighth of January, and have been unable to keep house, so my present address is % Judge E. F. Strozier, Cordele." It is our plan to have a special article about her in an early issue of the Alumnae Magazine. She has a picture of her class of 1863.

1869

Two sons of the late Mary (Barry) Persons of Forsyth were honored in Macon this fall when the name of the Georgia Casualty Building was changed by vote of the City Council to the Persons Building in recognition of Robert T. Persons, capitalist, and G. Ogden Persons, superior circuit judge. Robert T. Persons, known affectionately as "Uncle Bob" recently went to Washington with a Middle Georgia delegation to seek a role for this section in national defense. With Persons as spokesman, the delegation was successful in getting the Federal Government to designate Macon as the site for the new Camp Vinson.

1872

Jennie (Moreland) Sadler has recovered from a recent illness, to the delight of all her friends.

1873

Walter Barnard Hill, son of the late Sallie (Barker) Hill, was married in June to Sarah Mell Duggan of Atlanta.

Ida (Frazer) Turrentine had the pleasure this summer, while she was staying at the Clayton Hotel in north Georgia, of meeting a great-niece of Catherine (Brewer) Benson, first graduate of Wesleyan. She was a Mrs. Hollis, owner of a gift shop in Clayton.

1874

Mary T. (Ford) Walker makes her home at the Canton Hotel in Canton, Ga. She writes that she is still interested in Wesleyan, the Adelphean Society of which she was a member, and the U. D. C.

1876

Class Secretary: Mrs. W. G. Solomon (Lillian Roberts), 610 College St., Macon, Ga.

Mary Ella (Wilkinson) Green is in the best of health at 83, and enjoys her home and flowers in Milledgeville. She has five children, fifteen grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren. Her husband died ten years ago.

1878

Class Secretary: Mrs. Washington Dessau, Sr., (Fannie Gilmer) 301 Hines Terrace, Macon, Ga.

Theopa (Bobo) Banks of Grantville spent the past summer at Lake Junaluska, N. C.

Alice (Brimberry) Bussey, after having to guard her health for some time, is again able to take part in the work of her church in Cuthbert, and enjoys it immensely. She is enthusiastic now about reorganizing the Missionary Society according to the new United Methodist rules.

Fannie (Gilmer) Dessau is greatly improved after a serious illness.

The reorganization of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church South into the Woman's Society for Christian Service of the united Methodist Church was the occasion for many happy memories of the early days of the society. The Macon papers carried recently a story of the organization of the society in 1890 with the late Tochie (Williams) McDonell, beloved worker in the church, as its first president, Katherine (Pate) Jelks is the oldest Wesleyan alumna in Hawkinsville. She makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. D. P. McGriff.

The president of the Albany Wesleyan club writes: "No Wesleyan alumnae news of Albany is complete without news of Annie (Tucker) Muse, A. B. 1878, sixty-two years as loyal an alumna as Wesleyan will ever have! She continues active in church and civic work, blessing all those whose lives she touches wherever she goes. Recently when the Woman's Missionary Society held its last meeting before its reorganization, she was the only living member of the society at its organization around 1880. It was a thrill to have her name written as a charter member of the Woman's Society of Christian Service."

Jennie (Martin) Douglas gave a warm welcome to Mrs. Dice Anderson and Carolyn Malone when they called upon her in January at her home in Lake Mary, where her husband is postmaster and she inspired them by her warm loyalty.

1879

Class Secretary: Mrs. Cuyler King, (Henrietta Nisbet) 1706 Park Dr., Charlotte, N. C.

Carrie (Rogers) Hall retired several years ago after 20 years of service in the government bureau in Washington. She now lives in the midst of her children and grandchildren in suburban Washington, and is as alert and interested in happenings of the day as when she left Wesleyan an honor graduate to get her first teaching experience on the old Matthews Plantation.

Alma (Tharpe) Baldwin lives in Conyers, where her husband is cashier in the bank.

1880

Class Secretary: Mrs. Alfred Truitt (Ida Price), 987 Columbia Ave., Atlanta, Ga.

Addie (Singleton) Branham of Oxford writes, "I still love the dear old college, and send you greetings from a Wesleyan Alumnae meeting at the home of Rosalie (Radford) Stillwell in Covington, Ga."

1881

Class Secretary: Mrs. L. J. Rozar (Josephine Whitehurst), Milledgeville, Ga.

We have learned that Mary Georgia (Pate) Watson of Hawkinsville died April 8, 1937. In an old scrapbook she kept, members of the family found a clipping giving an account of the Wesleyan graduating exercises on June 15, 1881, with this statement: "Parallel between Shakespeare and Mother Goose" was the unique subject entered upon by Miss Georgia Pate of Hawkinsville. In treating this subject Miss Pate displayed a wonderful imagination and a keen perception of the sublime and the ridiculous, weaving together in chaste language, fact and fancy. Miss Pate wrought out a remarkable and interesting composition in a most attractive manner. By reason of her fine reading, the audience was enabled to hear and appreciate it."

Josephine (Whitehurst) Rozar was at Wesleyan this fall, visiting her daughter Nannette, who is dietitian. She is the same charming, gracious capable person she always was, and it is a joy to see her. She tells us that her friend, Mrs. M. M. Parks, a member of the Wesleyan Alumnae Club of Milledgeville, will spend part of this winter in Miami with her children there, though she still calls Milledgeville "home". Little Marvin Parks Hilburn, eight-month-old son of her daughter, Dorothy, is the latest addition to her list of grandchildren.

1882

Class Secretary: Mrs. Mary Anderson (Mary Jones), Talladega, Ala.

A newspaper article in the Americus paper in May told of Julia (McLeod) Van Riper's trip to Macon to attend her class reunion at Wesleyan. The article states: "In the class of 1882 also were Miss Mary Troutman and Mrs. Gussie Mathews Stone, both of whom lived at one time in Americus. Mrs. Mamie Willis Battle, an Oglethorpe girl, who was a roommate of Mrs. May Speer Ansley, was a frequent visitor to Americus. Mrs. Van Riper tells an amusing story of a rich Florida girl who appeared in a gorgeous dress costing $500. This caused President Bass to call for a dress reform, and subsequent classes graduated in white cotton, severely plain, and white cotton stockings."

From Olive M. Stone of Richmond, Va., daughter of Gussie (Matthews) Stone, came this message in the spring: "My mother died on December 16, 1938 at the home of her daughter in Houston, Texas. Among the last things she took pleasure in doing was speaking in her church and missionary society on Wesleyan College during the campaign for funds. She was a loyal and devoted alumna."

Susie (Bonnell) Stone was present at the meeting on September 6 of Wesleyan Alumnae of Oxford and Covington. There were seven alumnae and four Wesleyan students present. Mary (Banks) Morcock, presiding officer, asked each one to write something about herself, and Susie wrote: "Lynn Branham and I were so thrilled to go back to Commencement last May with Brother and Mrs. Cline, as it was the 100th anniversary of the first graduating class and Lynn's mother was a member of that class as Elizabeth Flournoy. The entire commencement was most impressive and entertaining."

Mary (Jones) Anderson of Talladega, Ala., wrote, when she received a copy of Leola Armstrong's letter to her classmates after their reunion last Commencement, "I regret more than ever my inability to attend the reunion. I've treasured memories of our fiftieth reunion as one of the most delightful occasions of my life. I have not seen Leola since the day of our graduation, but I recall her as a dainty little girl with a sweet face crowned with a wealth of dark curls."

1883

Class Secretary: Mrs. W. D. Lamar, Dorothy (Blount), 238 Georgia Ave., Macon, Ga.

Dorothy (Blount) Lamar was honored by Mercer University at their Commencement exercises in June by being awarded the honorary degree, doctor of laws, and by being invited to give the main address at the graduation exercises. It is the first time in history of Mercer that a woman has delivered the commencement address. In October, Dorothy (Blount) Lamar was presented with a Pioneer medal by the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs.

Callie (Law) Dean, former Alumnae Trustee of Wesleyan, died at her home in Gainesville in February. She was long identified with the religious, social, and cultural life of the city. Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Frank M. Spratlin and Mrs. Joel Chandler Harris of Atlanta and Mrs. Frank C. Wright of Gainesville; two sons, H. H. and A. F. Dean of Gainesville, and eight grandchildren.

A beautiful tribute to Mattie Nutting, who died on March 26 after a long and painful illness, appeared in the Adelphian magazine, written by Dorothy (Blount) Lamar, her classmate. The following excerpts are from the article:

"With her niece, Miss Cora Walker, Miss Mattie established in Macon the Woman's Exchange, headquarters for that dainty needlework to be found only in such establishments, and market for the wares of those culinary artists among gentlewomen in reduced circumstances. With rigid rules not to be broken for anybody, the secret of Who made What was sacredly kept, because many of her clients were sensitive about being in 'trade.' For many years her establishment was unique, but lately the incursions of cheap machine-made table covers, baby clothes, etc., reduced the patronage of the Woman's Exchange to such an extent that it was forced to change hands. But the old customers of 'Miss Mattie' and 'Miss Cora' still speak of them in terms of affection and yearning. Had the author of 'Cranford' been privileged to know this Woman's Exchange with its old English flavor, the world would have added to its literary store a new classic."

1884

Class Secretary: Mrs. D. W. Krauss (Minnie Harwell), St. Simon's Island, Ga.

Dedication of the Willingham Chapel at Mercer University was held on September 27 this year. The chapel honors the memory of Anne (Rushen) Willingham's husband and other members of the family. The chapel was completely renovated, the seating capacity enlarged, and a tower for memorial chimes built by the Willingham family. The ceremony of dedication was an impressive one, with Dr. Ellis A. Fuller of Atlanta, president of the Georgia Baptist Convention, giving the address of the occasion.

Agnes (Teasley) Coggins) has sold her home in Canton, Ga., we hear, and moved to New York with her daughter, Cade (Wesleyan, '14) who has done some outstanding work in oil painting.

1885

Class Secretary: Mrs. T. E. Davenport (Alice Lowery), 1114 Elm St., Americus, Ga. Macon Representative, Mrs. Ed T. Cook (Annie Cargill) 303 Corbin Ave.

Agnes Barden Burdett, granddaughter of Effie (Barden) Burke, and grandnieces of Agnes Barden, '90, has been awarded the most outstanding honor that can be conferred by Salem Academy when she was chosen one of two top honor students. Agnes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Burdett of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Lula (Holleymon) Spanford lives in Bradenton, Fla. Recently her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Griffith of New York, paid a visit to her mother's Alma Mater on her way to Bradenton.

Georgia Virginia (Tharpe) Ramseur is a widow, and makes her home with her sister, Mrs. Walter Baldwin of Madison, and with her brother, Mr. Ed Tharpe of Ft. Valley.

Rosa (Stovall) Parker is a widow, living in Madison, Ga. She has one son living.

1886

Class Secretary: M. Kate Neal, 1364 Emory Rd., Atlanta, Ga.

Nina (Grest) Clark and her husband, Judge D. M. Clark of the city court of Jesup, Ga., are very active in the Methodist church in their home town.

Emma (Norris) Hall, after two years of invalidism, is still interested in Wesleyan and her classmates. She keeps her sense of humor, her patience, and her gentle goodness.

Mary (Holtzclaw) Robeson recently moved from her country home near Marietta to town.

A letter from Minnie (Wilcox) Anderson of Falls Church, Virginia, came shortly after Commencement telling of her regret that she was unable to be with her classmates in reunion. She says, "In Washington are Louise Campbell, and Ida (Wilburn) Ray. Louise has been my 'good angel' during this year and a half when I have been shut in. In this tiny place we have a beautiful Colonial church, 'The Falls Church', where Washington was once a vestryman. My granddaughter, Peggy, is a sophomore in high school now, and I am eager for her to come to Wesleyan."

1887

Class Secretary: Mrs. E. A. Douglass (Jennie Martin), Lake Mary, Fla.

Ella H. Burney, after years as a teacher in Miami, Fla., is now society editor of "The Madisonian."

Oreola Cheves is president of the Garden club of Montezuma.

A student at Wesleyan in the 1880's and a Philomathean was Jean Kendrick, who came to the college from an old plantation near Henderson, Ga. She is now Mrs. William Vaughn of Alameda, California, and last spring her attractive granddaughter, Virginia Swayne, was a student at Wesleyan.

Carrie Sessions makes her home with her sister, Mrs. George Anderson of Marietta, although she spends several months a year visiting in Blackshear, Ga. Friends say that she spends her time doing nice things for other people.

One of the most charming women in Lakeland, Fla., is Jessie (Thrasher) Hunter, still interested in the church after having done pioneer work in giving and raising funds for churches in Alabama. As president of the Missionary Society in Dothan, Ala., she helped with the building of two churches and provided organs for them. Mrs. Cobb found her serving as District Secretary at Opelika on one of her visits there. Jessie was a table mate at Wesleyan with two other "Jessies," Jessie Munroe, wife of the late Bishop James E. Dickey, and Jessie Spivey, wife of Governor Terrell of Georgia. Jessie (Thrasher) Hunter's daughter, Mrs. Kirkland, lives at Aubondale, and her husband is head of the Citrus Fruit Growers of Florida.

Rhoda (Parramore) Fraleigh is having a happy life with her children and grandchildren in Madison, Florida. One daughter lives with her, and another has a beautiful home next door.

1888

Class Secretary: Mrs. W. T. Stone (Ida Lowrey) Blakely, Ga.

Newnan is delighted to have Margaret Cook in their midst, after many years in Japan as a missionary. She is a great comfort to her sister, Mrs. Atkinson, since the death of her husband, "Miss Margaret" conducts the mission studies in her church in a most effective way.

Stella (Dasher) Story was one of the founders of the U. D. C. in Ashburn. She is very active in the work of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Methodist Church.

Elam F. Dempsey's biography of Dr. Atticus G. Haygood, father of Mamie (Haygood) Ardis, has created widespread interest. The Los Angeles Library has ordered a copy, as has the famous Huntington Library in Pasadena. Mamie sends a program of her Junior Choir at the Downey Methodist Church in California and says she is enjoying taking cello lessons to play with her granddaughter, Jean, on the clarinet.

Ida (Lowrey) Stone divides her interest and time among the children of her three children. She is very happy that her oldest grandchild, Lowrey Stone, Jr., finished Blakely High School with first honor and entered Emory at Oxford, the Alma Mater of his father and grandfather, and the school where so many of Ida's family have been associated as teachers. She is also very proud of her daughter Polly, now Mrs. Norman S. Buck of New Haven, Conn., and her three little girls, Caroline, Judith, and Alison. This summer Polly wrote a patriotic song, "On Guard, America!" which was sung by Lanny Ross over the radio recently.

Alice Napier, Professor Emeritus of mathematics at G.S.C.W. in Milledgeville, had a happy vacation spent in Georgia, North Carolina, and Mississippi. She is devoted to her great nephew, Napier, III, whose mother is Mary Ethel (McLean) Napier, A.B. '36.

Mary (Pickens) Simons, throughout the years that she has lived in Dublin, has contributed much to the artistic and cultural life of the city. She has a studio in her home where she spends many hours painting. For a number of years she has planned the music for the D. A. R. programs and is organist of Christ Episcopal Church. Her many friends will regret to learn that her husband, one of Dublin's most prominent citizens, passed away this year. Mary is the mother of Annie (Simons) Smith, 1914, and the grandmother of Maryan Harley Smith, 1939, and of Dorothy Simons Smith, who entered Wesleyan as a freshman this fall. She has also a fine son, James Simons, III, who lives in Florida.

Carrie B. Wight is a great lover of flowers, and operates a florist business in Cairo at her home.

1889

Class Secretary: Mrs. Geo. Watson (Annie Lou Laney), 319 Duncan Ave., Macon, Ga. Macon Representative, Lella Clark, 76 Arlington Place.

Mary Baber-Blackshear, pianist, dramatist, poet and historian of Macon, founder and first president of the Macon Bird Lovers' Club, died on August 2 after a long illness. "Miss Mary" and her sister, "Miss Birdie" of the class of 1892, conducted a successful dancing school at their home, "Merrymakers' Retreat" for many years, until Miss Mary's failing health caused them to retire in 1932. The sisters were the granddaughters of Dr. Ambrose Baber, important in diplomatic circles, first physician of Macon, and founder of Christ Episcopal Church in the city. In the spring of this year "Miss Mary," who spent much of her time since her retirement writing poetry, had two poems accepted for publication in a volume of Contemporary Religious Verse, assembled by the Rev. Vinson Burns of Palisades, N. J. "Miss Birdie" has given to Wesleyan much interesting material which belonged to her sister, her Wesleyan notebooks, newspaper clippings, and her writings.

Below is one of "Miss Mary's poems:

ALWAYS THERE

She's mean and persistent—obscuring all my view!

*How frumpish her gown of that dingy, sombre hue
With hoopskirts, wide flounces, shirring, ribbon, fur cuffs
And scallops, fringed ruffles, feathers, train and full puffs!
I'm waiting and hoping that she'll soon go away,
But fear from her manner she intends there to stay.
At times she will stir when light oddly seems peeping
From under the frills; my heart then begins leaping
With joy, but it stops, for Miss Cloud—
Look!—The Shining!
Now, where?—Why, the light is her gown's silver lining!*

Minnie (Edwards) Akerman and her husband, Judge Alex Akerman, have a new home in Orlando where they are settling permanently since Judge Akerman retired recently from the bench. They celebrated their Golden Anniversary on February 3, and were happy in having their children with them for the occasion: Margaret (Akerman) Menard, of the Wesleyan class of 1915; Walter Edward, who, with his wife and four children, lives in Orlando; Amos, a captain in the U. S. Army, now living in Jackson, Miss.; Emory, a lawyer in Orlando; Eugenia, who married Dr. Russell Carson of Ft. Lauderdale; and Alex, Jr., a lawyer in Orlando, also, partner of his brother, Emory.

Annie Lou (Laney) Watson has been confined to her bed for some months following a stroke of paralysis.

Ada (McElhannon) Holder is associate editor, her husband being editor, of the Jackson, Ga. Herald, one of the best weekly papers in the state. She is known as an excellent newspaperwoman.

Mellie (Powell) Jones is the wife of a beloved retired Methodist minister in Cairo. They have five children, Walter C., a doctor in Miami, Fla.; Powell, who has the Chair of English in Western Reserve University in Cleveland; Joe, who is connected with the Department of Justice, Washington, D. C.; Margaret (Mrs. J. B. Roddenberry, A.B. '21 of Cairo); and Lucretia (Mrs. H. B. Hoover, A.B. '27, of Lincoln, Mass.)

Mary (Tate) Holland of Marietta, long a leader in civic and cultural activities of that city, died in July after a long illness. She was the daughter of Major William Tate and Mary Byrd Tate, direct descendant of William Byrd of Richmond, Va., one sister, Stella (Tate) Rambo of the class of 1894, now living in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, survives her. She was a sister of the late Congressman F. Carter Tate, Dr. William B. Tate, Mr. Phillip M. Tate, and Mrs. Edward M. Cole. She was a first cousin of the late Col. Sam Tate, trustee and benefactor of Wesleyan college for many years. She is survived by two sons, William Tate Holland, Marietta attorney, Phillip B. Holland of Chicago, Ill., the sister mentioned above, and four grandsons: William Tate, Jr., Richard Byrd Holland of Albany, Ga., Robert N. and Phillip Holland Suhr of Marietta, Ga.

1890

Class Secretary: Mrs. W. P. Coleman (Ida Mangham), Massee Apts., Macon, Ga.

Bessie Anthony is one of the most active workers in religious and cultural interests in Hawkinsville. She and Virginia Jelks, of the class of 1909, live together in the old Jelks home.

Olive May (Askew) Wilkinson of Newnan gives her entire time to her husband, who has been in poor health recently. She is very good at puzzles, and has won many prizes for her solutions.

Lizzie (Dickson) Bennett lost her husband, Dr. J. C. Bennett of Jefferson, Ga., in 1934. In 1933 her youngest daughter, Beth Bennett Dye, died leaving a two-year-old son, Billy Bennett Dye. Most of Lizzie's time is given to this child, who is the idol of her heart.

Mittie Dell (Heath) Pendergrass and her son, Joseph, live in the old homestead in Jefferson, Ga. Her husband a distinguished physician of that city, died a few years ago. Her daughter, Mary Agnes, was married in February to J. P. Crimmus of Washington, D. C.

The children of the late Ramelle (Nicholson) Ellis and Judge William H. Ellis, retired Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Florida, are a great credit to their parents. The oldest son, W. N. Ellis, is a prominent lawyer in Orlando and has recently built a beautiful home in Winter Park. He has two daughters, Julia Ann, 8, and Dorothy Ramelle, 2, whom we hope to have at Wesleyan in the future. Ramelle's only daughter, Marie Ellis Clark, lives in Winter Park also. She took music at Wesleyan when she, Eloise Ainsworth, and May-Ling Soong were little girls at the college. Marie was living with President and Mrs. Ainsworth after her mother's death. Marie's only son is in school at Dahlonga, Ga. Ramelle's youngest son, Melville, is manager of Sears-Roebuck in Jacksonville and lives in Avondale there. He has a son, C. W., five years old, and a daughter, Martha Ramelle, two.

Mary Nimqui (Williams) Smith has been pianist at the Hartwell Methodist Church for over 15 years. Her only daughter, Nell, is a teacher in the school in Camak, Ga.

1891

Class Secretary: Mrs. W. N. Ainsworth (Mary Nicholson), Massee Apt., Macon, Ga.

Sympathy is extended to Gertrude (Holland) Satterfield in the sudden death of her husband on August 9, in Harwell, Ga. Gertrude has one daughter, Laura Lee, living at home, and two sons; Joe, who is with the Standard Oil Company in Hartwell, and Henry, with the same company in Atlanta.

One of the full-page advertisements in the Saturday Evening Post this summer carried pictures in color of the family of William N. Ainsworth, Jr., of Atlanta, son of Bishop W. N. Ainsworth, former president of Wesleyan, and Mary (Nicholson) Ainsworth.

Flora (Turner) Smith is a widow living in McDonough, Ga. Her daughter, Louise, is associated with Davison-Paxon in Atlanta, and her son, Ernest, has just been elected to the State Senate.

Friends of Caroline (Waterman) Parsons, who has been quite ill recently in the Piedmont Hospital in Atlanta, will rejoice to know that she is much improved and back home in Hawkinsville now. She and her husband gave the chimes for the new electric organ in the Methodist church in their home town.

1892

Class Secretary: Mary Bond Smith, 501 Vineville Ave., Macon, Ga.

Jule (Armstrong) Cohen is secretary of the First Presbyterian Church in Athens, Ga.

Lucy (Chapman) Gilbert is a leader in musical circles in Dublin, and has inspired the children of Calhoun Street School, where she teaches, to appreciate good music.

Lillian (Dent) Kirby and her sister make their home together in Newnan, Ga. Her friends will be sorry to know that she has not been very well lately.

Daisy Peddy has given up teaching music in Newnan because her health has not been very good recently. She and her sisters, Laura and Louise make their home together.

Mary Bond Smith, Class Secretary, sent the following tribute to those of the class who have gone home this year, Margaret (Moore) Jarrell and Clifton Wing:

"The world of things unseen—unfelt—unheard—

Is strangely friendly now

Because you walk where we have never trod

And sing the songs the melodies of God."

Mattie (Tarbutton) Harris is president of the newly formed Woman's Society for Christian Service in Sandersville, and two years ago headed the campaign committee in her church to raise funds for the payment of Wesleyan's debt.

Pearl (Wight) Clower attended the programs in Chatauqua, N. Y. this summer and has travelled extensively in Canada and the east.

Ethel Peter is librarian at Leesburg, Fla. and is a sister of the late Stella (Peter) Fabyan, '94.

1893

Class Secretary: Mrs. R. O. Jones (Loula Evans), Newnan, Ga. Macon Representative: Mrs. W. D. Anderson (Linda McKinney), 945 Vineville Ave., Macon, Ga.

Anna (Collins) Toole has had her daughter and granddaughter visiting her in Arlington, Ga. this summer. They enjoyed a trip to Tennessee.

Florrie B. (Evans) Smith is interested in the church in her home town, Ashburn, Ga. She has been treasurer of the Woman's Missionary Union for 27 years. Both her daughters are Wesleyan graduates.

Loula (Evans) Jones has done a fine piece of work as president of the Wesleyan Alumnae Club of Newnan, especially during the recent campaign for Wesleyan. She is an active member of the Methodist Church and Missionary Society.

Catherine Beggs, daughter of Bessie (Fox) Beggs of Savannah, married Philip McLaughlin on September 21 at a beautiful ceremony, and has an apartment in Macon, where her husband is associated with the Georgia Power Company.

Since the death of her husband in 1937, Emma (Walker) Wylly has been living in Darien with an invalid uncle. She formerly lived in New York, and spent several months this summer there with relatives and friends.

Neila Lou Walton lives in Newnan, Ga. She is not strong, and does not go out a great deal, but is much beloved by all who know her.

Eloise (Nicholson) McIntosh of Tallahassee, is charming as ever in her sweet home there and interested in the church and all things good.

1894

Class Secretary: Mrs. Lucy K. Johnson (Lucy Keen), 59 Boulevard, Gainesville, Ga.

Rosa (Link) Forester has four grown children, George, Loulie (who is Mrs. Sidney Burns of Macon, A. B. 1925), Francis, and Emily. Emily is the only one at home with her parents now.

Mamie (Robinson) Felton of Montezuma is twice a grandmother, her daughter, Mary, having a son nearly two years old, her son a little boy eight years old.

Marilu (Napier) Coney is a charming person, much beloved in Hawkinsville, where she lives. Ill health during the past few years has forced her to give up her church and club work.

Sallie (Shinholser) Miller is active in work of the church and Sunday School in Sarasota, Fla. and has a music class which grew from two children last year to twelve before the year was out. Two of Sallie's married children live in Sarasota, and the grandchildren are her chief joy.

Neppie (Warren) Holland's husband is a farmer in Byron, Ga. They have three daughters, three sons, and two grandchildren. Their children live in Chickamauga, Macon, Americus, Columbia, S. C., and Atlanta, Ga.

1895

Class Secretary: Mrs. Harry Ainsworth (Marion Hayes), Thomasville, Ga.

May (DeLacy) Jessup has five grown sons, four of whom are married and living in Eastman, the fifth in Atlanta.

Ella Jones is one of Blakely's most dearly loved citizens. She teaches Latin in the high school, where she has taught ever since she left college. She is very youthful in spirit.

Willie Mae (Scarfe) Crowder is in Mill-edgeville with her two daughters, Louise, a teacher in the home economics department at G. S. C. W., and Fay, a student majoring in music.

Jonna (Vinson) Bateman is the widow of the late C. L. Bateman of Byron, Ga. She and her sister, Mrs. Martha Aultman, live in the old family home in Byron.

1896

Macon Representative, Lois Rogers, Wesleyan College, Macon, Ga.

Minnie (Blitch) Harris and her two daughters, Marianne, '35, and Laura, '36, moved in July to their new white-painted brick Colonial home, and they are busy these days planting grass, building terraces, moving shrubbery, and completing the decoration of their charming new home. Laura teaches a class of 11-year-old boys in the Baptist Sunday School in Sandersville, and both she and Marianne are active in literary club and service league work.

Sympathy is extended to Florence (Candler) Sledd in the death of her son, Robert N. Sledd of Decatur in August. He is survived by his widow, a seven-year-old daughter, three sisters and three brothers.

Pauline (Daley) Burch has a daughter, Joy, who is now Mrs. H. M. Moore, who lives in Nashville. She also has a foster son, Marshall, thirteen years old. Pauline lost her husband, Judge J. E. Burch, in December.

Aimee (Dunwody) Glover writes: "Each time the Wesleyan Alumnae comes, I turn eagerly to see where my classmates are and what their interests are. I am still living in Marietta and am the happy grandmother of six small children, four boys and two girls. The latch string to our house is always on the outside and a warm welcome awaits any or all of you inside. Do come to Myrtle Hill!"

Annie (Hardeman) Blackshear had the misfortune to fall and break her hip some months ago. Her friends will be glad to know she has entirely recovered.

Lila (Napier) Jelks has served as Regent of the D. A. R. in Hawkinsville, and President of the Garden Club. She is now a state officer in the D. A. R.

Sadye Tarbutton spent the past summer at her new home at Lake Junaluska, N. C. For many years she has been librarian at the Sandersville Public Library, which is sponsored by the Transylvania Club, donating her time and services to the community. Her special pets are her two nephews, Hugh, 8, and Ben Tarbutton, Jr., 10.

Estelle (Willingham) Whitfield of Hawkinsville spends most of her spare time collecting early American glass, while her husband's hobby is camellia culture. They have three children: Frances married Henry Elliott and lives in Cartersville; Mary (Mrs. Henry Duggan), lives in Albany; James is connected with Jones and Erwin, an interior decorating firm in New York.

1897

Class Secretary: Mrs. S. T. Coleman (Edith Stetson) 317 College St., Macon, Ga.

The new address of Mabel (Ballenger) Klunder is 6120 Bergenline Ave., West New York, N. J.

Vera (Clinton) McBirney's lovely daughter, Dorothy, was married in May to Robert Marion Hardy of Yakima, Washington, President and director of the Sunshine Mining Co. and director of the National Bank of Commerce of Seattle. The wedding was one of the loveliest of the Tulsa season, and one of great interest in that city where Dorothy was a popular member of the Junior League, the Chi Omega Sorority, the Shakespearean Society, the Ninety-Nine Club of International Women Fliers, and the Tulsa Town Club.

The lawn of Florence (Cohen) Lieberman's home in Sandersville is a showplace in springtime, with a glorious succession of jonquils, daffodils, hyacinths, tulips, and pansies.

Mary (Mabbett) Bowman of Quitman has a grandson, the son of her son Wallace Bowman of North Carolina.

Minnie (Parker) Zetrouer has moved from Auburndale to Rochelle, Florida. She sends her love to "dear Wesleyan where I spent the happiest days of my life".

Helen (Powell) Lang is active in church and literary club work in Sandersville. She has five grandchildren, Martha and Powell Lang, Jr. of Millen, Billy and Neal Lang of Sandersville, and Frances Lang of Cincinnati, Ohio.

May (Vinson) Walsh lives in Montezuma. She is the mother of two charming daughters, both of whom are married.

Bertha Wood is teaching in Griffin, Ga.

1898

Class Secretary: Mrs. R. G. Stephens (Lucy Evans), Washington, Ga.

Katie May (Peddy) Cuttino's husband was recently appointed Postmaster in Newnan, Ga., George Peddy, her Rhodes-Scholar son, has returned and is teaching at the University of Iowa. She has a brand-new red-haired granddaughter.

A marker honoring the memory of Samuel H. Rumph, father of Clara Elberta (Rumph) Grice, was unveiled in Marshallville in July.

Sympathy is extended to Claude (Sheffield) Bostwick of Arlington in the death of her husband in the late spring. She has five children and three grandchildren.

Elizabeth (Sheats) Davidson, since her husband's death, divides her time between her home in Tallahassee, where her business interests are and Miami, where her one son is located.

1899

Class Secretary: Lucy Gleaton, Conyers, Ga.

Mamie (Ballenger) Haney makes her home with her sister, Ludie (Ballenger) Morgan in Rockmart.

Annie (Kimbrough) Small had two sons to marry recently. Augustus Bailey Small III married Martha Elizabeth Harrison of Macon on September 16, and Ralph Browne Small Jr., married Mary Edie of Yonkers, N. Y., October 11.

Irene (Murph) Banks is a very busy person, for in addition to running a house and farm, she is superintendent of the Children's Division of the Methodist Sunday School in Newnan, vice-president of the Reading Circle, and a Circle leader in the Missionary Society.

1900

Class Secretary: Mrs. J. E. Hays (Louese Frederick), Rhodes Memorial Hall, Atlanta, Ga.

Sympathy is extended to Martha Opal (Condor) Richardson of Hartwell in the tragic death of her son, formerly county agent at Lexington, Ga., in an automobile accident. Her husband has been for many years clerk of the court of Hart County, and they have three children living. They have a beautiful country home near Hartwell, Ga.

Fannie (Harmon) Smith is assistant clerk and treasurer of the city of Milledgeville.

Mae (Hazlehurst) Hammond is active in the Episcopal church in LaGrange. Her husband is in the gas and oil business. Their daughter, Marie, studied voice in New York last winter, and was married in October of this year (see Weddings).

Elizabeth (Leake) Henderson is a teacher in the Bartow County school system.

Romie (Leake) Milam lives in Cartersville, Ga. She has two daughters and five sons.

Josephine (Reid) Brooks' husband is Dean of the School of Commerce at the University of Georgia. They have two daughters, both of whom are married, the wedding of one of them taking place this summer.

1901

Class Secretary: Mrs. C. V. Clark (Claudia Clark), Louisville, Ga.

Lucie (Banks) Snead has had a delightful summer visiting in North Carolina. She lives in Grantville, Ga.

Bessie (Cotton) Banks of Grantville has two lovely grandchildren, Betty Banks and Bill Jarrell, Jr., of LaGrange.

Beulah (Hines) Reid of Milledgeville enjoys her home and her garden. She says laughingly that she spends most of her time moving a petunia from the north to the south side of the yard (and back again), or a zinnia from the east to the west.

Lena (Lovejoy) Boyer's main interest now is her three-year-old granddaughter, Joy, the child of her daughter, Henrietta (Boyer) Skinner, Conservatory '28.

Katherine (Lovejoy) Akin holds a responsible position with the E. Z. Mille in Cartersville. Her husband and son, Warren, are prominent lawyers of Cartersville.

Hazel (Mabbett) Matthews of Quitman has a grandson, born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mathews of Thomasville.

Martha (Nelson) Christian is head of Miller Bell Dormitory at G. S. C. W. in Milledgeville. She enjoys her girls and her work. She is much interested in the work of her missionary circle.

Mary (Park) Polhill, the new Alumnae Trustee, is still contributing her services in many church and community activities in LaGrange.

Bertha (Peavy) Vinson's husband is a druggist in Byron, Ga. Her children are: Dr. J. W. Vinson, Jr., who is associated with his father in business, and Katherine, of the class of 1930, instructor in physical education in Albany, Ga.

Dorothy (Rogers) Tilly received the highest honor that can be bestowed by the Woman's Missionary Council of North Georgia by being named Honorary Life Patron of the Council. The Wesleyan Christian Advocate has carried several articles recently which carried her signature.

Marie (Whitaker) Whitfield lives in Mill-edgeville where her husband is a prominent wholesale grocer, and president of the Board of Trustees at G. S. C. W. One of the most interesting pictures in the living room of their home was painted by Marie while a student of art at Wesleyan. She spends much time in her garden, and nothing gives her more pleasure than sending flowers to her friends, or to the sick.

1902

Class Secretary: Mrs. F. M. Mullino (Mary Addie (Murphy) Montezuma, Ga.

Gertrude (Ausley) Kelly lives in Tallahassee, Fla., where her husband is in the lumber business. They have four children, A. C., Jr., Albert, Sarah, and Frances.

Announcement of the government's plan to place an army training camp in Macon on the site of old Camp Wheeler recalls many interesting incidents of 1918. The camp site is near Holly Bluff, home of the late Harry Stillwell Edwards and his family, and the Macon papers recently carried pictures of Roxie Lane Edwards and a reporter going over the property as Roxie told him stories of Camp Wheeler.

Emmie Lela (Gramling) Perkinson's husband is a prominent doctor in Marietta. They have three children, Tom, who is married and living in Dallas, Texas; Howard, a daughter, who won many honors at Randolph-Macon last year; and Neal, at Emory University.

Annie (Nolan) Ward is a widow living in McDonough, Ga., where she has business interests.

Louise (Peddy) Wadsworth lives in Newnan and is librarian in nearby Senoia. Her son, Jimmy, is in the tenth grade. Her daughter, Louise Wadsworth, who graduated at Wesleyan in '39, teaches in Greenwood, S. C., and has written several interesting articles for the Atlanta Journal magazine section this summer.

Abbie (Wilcox) Lowrey lives in Leesburg, Fla. and is interested in her home and children and grandchildren and her beautiful hand-work. Her daughter, Mary (Lowrey) Lynch has one son, five years old and lives in Silsbee, Texas. Another daughter, Alice (Lowrey) Baetzman has two sons, Fred and Charley, age five and two respectively are living in DeLand, Fla. Abbie (Lowrey) Bell, another daughter has one son, Bobbie, 9 years old and resides in Leesburg, Fla.

1903

Class Secretary: Lucy Lester, 640 W. Coll St., Tallahassee, Fla.

Maud (Allen) Wall is the wife of a prominent physician in Eastman. They have one son who is married and lives in Eastman, and a daughter, Mary Allen.

Ludie (Ballenger) Morgan's husband is a hardware merchant in Rockmart. They have three children, two sons, Elbert Morgan of Rome, Ga., and Terhune Morgan of Chester, S. C., and one daughter, Elizabeth. Ludie and her husband accompanied their daughter to Annapolis in June for her fiance's graduation. She was married to Lt. H. W. Herring on June 26.

Maude (Benton) Ballard lives in Monticello. She has two sons, G. Speights, Jr., who graduated with Phi Beta Kappa honors at Emory this spring, and is now studying at Harvard; and Lucian, a senior at Dartington College, Rome.

Pearl (Benton) Campbell of Monticello is known for her beautiful handwork.

Edna (Brunson) Vinson lives quietly in her lovely home in Blakely, devoting a large part of her time to church work. Her only son, Joe, is married and lives in Washington, D. C., where he is associated with F. B. I.

Alice (Cary) Tupper's husband is a retired insurance executive. They live in a beautiful country place near Cartersville.

Effie (Crawford) Moseley is the wife of Judge M. C. Moseley, Ordinary of Peach County, Ga., and County Commissioner.

They have five children, Professor J. R. Moseley, teacher in Augusta Junior College; M. C. Moseley, Jr., of Griffin; Martin Moseley of Byron; Mrs. Wilson Reeves of Roberta; and Mrs. C. S. Clay of Durham, N. C. Effie taught music for 33 years. She recalls that Melvin Douglas, actor of Hollywood, was a baby when she took music from his father, Edouard Hesselberg of Wesleyan. She is Regent of the Fort Valley Chapter of D. A. R.

Julia (Daniel) Dearing is a widow and lives in Athens, Ga. She has four children, the youngest a freshman at the University of Georgia.

Mary E. Dozier is a teacher in Charlotte, N. C. She sent her contribution to the Wesleyan campaign in memory of her mother, Susie Moreland, who was at Wesleyan in 1871-72.

Hattie (Garbutt) Gross is the wife of the newly elected state senator from the 20th senatorial district of Georgia. He was one of the moving spirits of the organization of the Washington County Electric Membership Corporation, which has increased the R.E.A. lines three times.

Elizabeth (Graves) Bethune is very proud of her grandchildren, Elizabeth Bethune McDonald and Malcolm Scott McDonald, children of her daughter, Maxine (Bethune) McDonald. She also has a son, Thomas, and a daughter, Anne, who was at Wesleyan in the class of 1939.

Bessie (Houser) Nunn confesses that her hobby is writing poetry, and we were delighted to have this poem from her pen:

YE SILVER FRIENDS

*Ye siver friends! Great worlds of light
That gleam and glitter through the night,
Ye stars that seem not far, yet call
One's thoughts to spaces that appall,
What see you lost to mortal sight?*

*You seem to beckon e'er so slight,
Twinkling a message through the night
To us upon this earthly ball,
Ye silver friends!*

*What would you say to guide men right,
As forth you flash your signals bright?*

Would you as swift your light beams fall

*Say, "Trust in God who holds us all
In His creative hands of might,"
Ye silver friends?*

Cecile (Huff) Carter is one of the best teachers in the Dalton school system. She teaches in the primary grades.

Frances (Kent) Rose is noted in Ashburn for her beautiful flowers. Her husband is a prominent business man. Frances is very active in church work.

Clyde (Killebrew) McNeill is beginning her 37th year as a teacher and her 27th year in the Arlington, Ga. schools. Every graduate who returns home seeks "Miss Clyde" for advice and encouragement.

Ethyl (Tabor) Harrison is the wife of a prominent merchant of Lavonia. She is the mother of three married sons, and has three grandchildren.

Jennie (Vereen) Bell's husband is Judge R. C. Bell of the Supreme Court of Georgia. They live in Cairo, Ga., and their children are: Alexandria, who is Mrs. Tom Daniel of Atlanta, and Vereen, an author of note. You have probably read his stories in "The Saturday Evening Post", "Esquire", and various nature and sportsmen's magazines. He was Assistant Editor of "American Boy", but resigned to give his full time to his own writing.

Sympathy is extended to Ethel (Wynne) Harley of Colorado Springs, Colo., and to Mabel (Wynne) Raberts, of the class of 1905, Eastman, Ga., in the death of their brother, Fred Wynne, in October. Mr. Wynne had been in poor health for some years. Mabel (Wynne) Roberts lives with her mother in the old home place in Eastman.

Myrtle (Fennell) Waldo is organist in the Methodist Church in Gainesville and is delighted that her only son, Selden Fennell, has begun the practice of law at home this winter, after having graduated at the university there with a splendid record and worked in a law office in Miami last winter.

1904

Class Secretary: Louise Lin, Wesleyan Conservatory, Macon, Ga.

Leila Anderson lives alone in her lovely home in Marietta. She travels quite a bit and is planning to spend the winter in Cuba with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson.

Eleanor (Dallis) Stallings is president of the Wesleyan Club of LaGrange, Ga. Her lovely daughter, Mary, is a senior at Wesleyan.

Alleen (Lowe) Wright's daughter, Jesse, was married in April to Eugene Gantt Hardy of Macon.

Jane Roberta Smith of Dublin was awarded the Mary C. McCants Memorial Scholarship for library study at Emory University library school. The scholarship was established by Mrs. B. F. Bullard of Savannah and was awarded by a committee of the Georgia Library Association. Roberta Smith did graduate work at Columbia and at the University of California. Since 1934 she has been librarian of the Carnegie Library in Dublin.

Tommy Louise (Turner) Craft lives in winter at the John C. Calhoun Hotel in Anderson, S. C., run by her son, Jack, Jr., and in the summer at Mayview Manor, Blowing Rock, N. C., run by her husband. She has one daughter, Louise, a student at the University of Georgia.

Elise (Armor) Wills' only daughter, Adrienne, married Emory Lunceford in December, 1939, at a lovely home wedding in Greensboro, Ga. She wore her mother's wedding gown. Elise's son, Claude C. Jr., married Dorothy Senter in June at Vineville Church in Macon.

Sympathy is extended to Fannie (Winship) Haskell in the death of her husband at their home, Halcyon Lake, near Macon in July after a long illness.

Almena (Coleman) Pierson has an attractive Antique Shop in her home in Tallahassee and is interested in the social and church affairs of the city and the political affairs of the state. Her lovely daughter, Marta, is studying in F. S. C. W. there and her only son is in business in Tallahassee.

Martha (O'Hara) Reppard and her husband and young daughter Barbara, have an attractive home in a beautiful orange grove on one side and overlooking a lake on the other, a few miles from Orlando. Her only near neighbors are her mother and her aunt, Mrs. Roswell Atkinson, who lives next door and make a charming addition to her family. Martha's son is in the Citrus Fruit Packing business in and their daughter Alice (Reppard) Slayden, Ex. '33, has done some interesting work in Speech in New York where her husband was called temporarily by his business.

1905

Class Secretary: Margie Burks, 640 W. Coll St., Tallahassee, Fla.

Aline (Bradley) Boykin leads a very full life in Carrollton, Ga., where her lovely home is always open to groups or individuals who are promoting worthwhile things in that city, as well as to her many friends who find her hospitality delightful. She is associate teacher of a large Sunday School class of women. For many years she has been active in the North Georgia Woman's Missionary Society. A year ago Aline and her husband purchased an attractive home at Lake Junaluska, not a cabin or camp, but a lovely year-round home. They have only one child, a daughter, Caroline, now Mrs. John Beury of Brunswick, and two fine grandchildren, a girl and a boy.

Announcement was made recently of the engagement of Anne (Shaw) Richardson's son, Dr. Charles H. Richardson, to Miss Mildred Emily Faxon of Kansas City, Mo. Charles, Jr., is now serving his internship at Bellevue Hospital in New York City.

Woodie (Schley) Campbell, Columbus, Ga., is proud of her twins, Cooper, Jr. and Woodville, who graduated in 1938. Cooper is now in Boston with the Allis-Chalmers Electric Co., and Woodville, the daughter, is interne Dietitian in Presbyterian Hospital in New York.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Ophie (Smith) Guerry of Montezuma in the death of her husband, Judge John B. Guerry, in an automobile accident recently. Ophie is president of the Georgia Federation of Music Clubs, and was named Macon County Representative in the September General Assembly.

Alice (Williams) Benton's son, J. L., Jr., married Florence McCord of Jackson in October. Her husband is one of the leading peach growers in the state, and she is active in garden club, church, and civic affairs. Her daughter, Anne E. (Benton) Jordan, of the Wesleyan class of '29, moved back to Monticello last January.

1906

Class Secretary: Mrs. T. J. Stewart (Ostavia Burden), Vineville Ave., Macon, Ga.

Estelle (Darden) Bell is a leader in literary club work in Sandersville, being a member of The Round Table. Her children are Virginia, 14, and Clifford, nearly 13.

Eliza (Hill) Martin and her family have moved from Carrollton to Conyers, where her husband is in business.

Julia (Johnston) Oliver's husband, who was one of the most prominent men of Grady County, died two years ago. Julia is active in church circles and is president of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church.

Nannie C. (Kitchings) Weathers is the wife of the Postmaster of Cairo, and is the mother of two children. Mariwilburn, the daughter, is now Mrs. Dunbar Grist of Blakely, and is a graduate of Huntington College, Montgomery. The son, Arthur Kitchings, graduated at Emory University this summer and is now Area Director in N. Y. A. work in Waycross, Ga. Nannie has taught the fourth grade in Cairo schools for a number of years, and is active in church and civic work.

Martha (Lewis) Kaderly is proud of her son, William Frederick Kaderly, Jr., who received the M. A. degree at Mercer University in June at only 21 years of age.

Sara Lou (McRae) Pennington of Eastman has two sons and three daughters, all married except the youngest daughter.

Mattie (Robinson) Maffett is librarian in the Montezuma High School. She has two daughters and one grandchild.

Clyde (Shingler) McKenzie's death in Ashburn in July brings sadness to her classmates and Wesleyan friends. Her husband, Dr. G. C. McKenzie, is a prominent business man in Ashburn. She leaves four children.

Kate (Williams) Fleming of Camilla has recovered from a recent operation.

Annie Mary (Wood) Rawlings' only son, William, is a sophomore at the Medical College at Tulane, his pre-med work having been completed at the University of Pennsylvania.

1907

Class Secretary: Mrs. Nelson Mallary (Willie Erminger), 117 Callaway St., Macon, Ga.

Edna (Briggs) Johnson moved from Atlanta to Orlando eight years ago and lives in a pretty home on the lake with her dining room overlooking her lovely garden. Her one son, T. K., Jr., attended the University of Florida, and is now helping his father with the Packard Agency there. Edna, who played her violin so well at Wesleyan, enjoys the music programs and lectures at Rollins College.

Julia (Coney) Pate of Hawkinsville is interested in religious, social, and D. A. R. activities in Hawkinsville. She has four children. Her oldest daughter, Julia, is president of the sophomore class at Wesleyan this year. Two younger daughters are in high school. Her son, Frank married Caroline Lowe and lives in Tampa, Fla.

Mae (Cook) Wilcox has her bright and attractive little niece, Barbara Thomas, living with her. The child's mother is Elizabeth (McArthur) Thomas Currie of the class of 1926, and her grandmother was Lola (Cook) McArthur of the class of 1902. Barbara is now ten, and is looking forward to coming to Wesleyan some day.

Inez (Daughtry) Burnet teaches library science at the University of Georgia every summer. She has been head of the department of library science at Oklahoma University. She has three children. Mary, the oldest, received her doctorate at the University of Paris in 1938, and graduated "mention tres honorable". Duncan, a son, lives in Spokane, Washington. Robbin, the youngest, just graduated from Tech. Inez's husband is librarian at the University of Georgia.

Janie (Johnson) Tinsley's husband is pastor of the Methodist Church in Hazlehurst, and Janie is vice-president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and also leader of the spiritual life group. Her daughter, Dorothy, is a Wesleyan graduate, the wife of M. C. Dailey, missionary to Mayari, Cuba, and they have a little daughter, Martha Jane. Janie's son, Carroll, has been studying at the Mortimer L. Schiff Scout Reservation at Mendham, N. J. this summer and is going to be a Boy Scout Executive.

Elizabeth (Jones) Franklin still lives at beautiful historic Birdsville, near Millen. She has two sons, Ben, Jr., and George, and has a new granddaughter, Mary, Ben's child.

Eliza (McDuffie) Morgan lives on Riverside Drive in Gainesville, Ga. She is in charge of the Hall County League of Women Voters.

Ella Clare McKellar received her fifth college degree this summer, the Doctor of Philosophy at Boston University in June.

Grace (Troutman) Wilson's only daughter, Grace, married Kenneth Waters last October, and lives in Baltimore. Troutman, her older son, is connected with the Standard Oil Co. in Atlanta. Bobby, the younger son, who graduated in pharmacy from the University of Georgia in June, now holds a position with Reid Drug Co. in Athens. Grace's husband is head of the Department of Pharmacy at the University of Georgia.

Elizabeth (Witte) Harvey lives in Monticello. She has three children, Sarah, who teaches school in Thomson; George, and James.

Willie (Erminger) Mallary saw many of her Wesleyan friends last winter when she went to Florida for the College.

Almena (Coleman) Pierson gave a dinner party at the Hotel Floridan in Tallahassee. Margie Burk and Lucy Lester had her and Jennie Loyall for dinner and tea in their attractive home near the campus of F. S. C. W.

In Orlando Martha (O'Hara) Reppard had a dinner party for her and her house guest from Georgia, both of whom were bridesmaids in Martha's wedding.

In Clearwater she spent a delightful afternoon with Anne E. (Willingham) Baxter who gave her a lovely afternoon tea in her attractive home on the lake there with tea in the beautiful Japanese Gardens on the outskirts of the city. Also a visit to Mr. Pierce's peacock farm, an interesting place with the largest collection of peafowls in America.

In Tampa Mary Brown, one of "Miss Willie's" Sunday school class in the old days, gave a Spanish dinner in Ybor City. Willie's son, Nelson, Jr. is at the University of Georgia this year.

1908

Class Secretary: Mrs. Clayton Buchanan (Mattie Adams), 208 Vineville Ave., Macon, Ga.

Fannie Lou (Armor) Smith's children are: Julia, who was at Wesleyan in the class of '33, Armor, who is owner and operator of a poultry farm in Eastman, and Dudley, Jr., reporter on the Macon Telegraph and News. Dudley Jr., was married in October to Annie Wheat Jones of Macon, alumna of Wesleyan Conservatory.

Fannie (Askew) Williams has a lovely home in Blakely, and is prominent in social activities. She has just completed two successful years as Regent of the Peter Early Chapter of the D. A. R. Her only son, John, Jr., who graduated from Georgia Tech in 1937 is now in Jackson, Miss., studying aeronautics.

Louise (Atkinson) Hardaway has moved from Lenoir, N. C. to Arcadia, S. C., where her husband is pastor of the Baptist Church. She has three fine sons.

Gladys (Bray) Hamrick is superintendent of examinations in the Welfare Department of Georgia.

Florine (Burdick) Davis' son, Wylie, graduated from Mercer University in June and was one of the first applicants for the U. S. Naval Reserve in Macon to be accepted.

Since the death of her husband, Mattie (Carter) Davis and her second son, Carter, make their home together in Blakely. She devotes much of her time to church work. She has two grandchildren, little Patricia Davis, a year and a half old, and Guyton McLendon, Jr., three, both most attractive children.

Genie (Daniel) Smith has been teaching in Hagan, Ga. for a number of years.

Myrt (Felton) Adams of Montezuma has a small grandson, Felton Adams, Jr., almost a year old.

Ruth Hopkins is the fine principal of a large grammar school in LaGrange, Ga.

As chairman of the trustees of the Sandersville Public Library, Fannie Lou (Irwin) Irwin was in charge of remodeling the library two years ago. The building, now a show-place, is made of handmade brick salvaged from the Washington County courthouse which Sherman's army burned in 1864 on their march to the sea.

Annie (Kirkland) Morris lives in St. Petersburg where she is enjoying her first grandson, Richard, son of her oldest daughter, Ruth. She has two older daughters, Genevieve and Mary Ben.

Rubie (Lovejoy) Parks has two married daughters and a son who is studying medicine at Emory University. She very much enjoys her little grandbaby, her daughter Louise's son.

Ilma (Mitchell) Abney of Athens is a widow with three children, Walter Lewis, Tom, and Ann, all of whom were married last year within ten months of one another.

Irma Lou (Neal) Little is president of the Woman's Society for Christian Service in Marietta, and is a delegate to the Jurisdictional Conference to be held in Richmond, Va., in December.

Regina (Rambo) Benson is a "live wire" and has a hand in all civic affairs in Marietta. She is president of the Marietta Theatre Guild and one always know when she gets up a play it is going to be good. She has three children, Regina Ann, Warren, and Marcellus.

Carolyn (Richardson) Chastain of Montezuma has a daughter, Alice, who was at Wesleyan in the class of 1936, and a married son, George, Jr.

Lucy (Stanley) McArthur, after studying and teaching music at Wesleyan, continued her studies in New York and Chicago. She has taught music privately and in colleges since that time, and at present has retired from teaching and is living in her old home place near Dublin.

Mary (Westbrook) Kling has a most attractive new home on the lake at Lake City. She and her husband have built it recently since his retirement. Their adopted son has finished school and is now in the Navy.

1909

Class Secretary: Mrs. W. C. Cantrell (Estelle Maning), Carrollton, Ga.

William F. Quillian, Jr., son of Nonie (Acree) Quillian and former president of Wesleyan Dr. W. F. Quillian, was married in June to Margaret Hannah Weigle, daughter of Dean and Mrs. Luther Allen Weigle of New Haven, Conn. "Billy" is a graduate of Emory and of Yale Divinity School, and received the Day Fellowship for a year's study at Edinburgh and Basle. He is now a candidate for the Ph. D. degree at Yale. In October Dr. and Mrs. Quillian moved to the Prince George Hotel, New York City, where Dr. Quillian is taking up his new work as Secretary of Promotion in the Division of Education and Cultivation of the Board of Missions and Church Extension.

Birdie (Daniel) O'Callaghan is Head of Residence in Bell Hall Annex at G. S. C. W., Milledgeville, Ga.

Lucy (Grace) Davis is the wife of an outstanding doctor in Byromville and the surrounding section. She has a son who is also a doctor, and is connected with the Georgia State Hospital in Milledgeville. Lucy has travelled extensively both in this country and abroad in recent years. She is president of the Women's Missionary Society of her church.

Idawee (Harlan) Jackson and her husband live in Tampa. At home with them are their son, Jack, who is assistant manager of one of the large department stores there, after attending Emory; and their youngest daughter, Suzanne, who is attending Tampa University. Idawee has a young granddaughter born last December, Christopher Ann, the daughter of her daughter Eloise (Mrs. Kemp Thames). Idawee's oldest daughter, Stella Thurma, attended Florida State College for Women, where she was an A. D. Pi.

Leah (McKenzie) Easterlin of Montezuma is an accomplished musician. She has a daughter, Mary Ann, and a son, William.

Nell (Pittenger) Webster of Dennison, Ohio, was a welcome guest at Wesleyan in the spring, when she stopped by the college on her way to Florida. It was the first time she had been back to the college since graduation, and she enjoyed seeing the old building on College Hill, as well as the new campus at Rivoli.

Lillie (Rowan) Hutchinson's husband, a minister of the Florida Methodist Conference, was moved from Key West to Alachua last June on account of his health. Lillie's daughter, Novelle, who received the B. M. at Wesleyan in 1933, was married on June 8 to James C. Lane, teacher of vocational agriculture, and they are at Lexington, Ga. for the next school year.

Annie Lou (Sewell) Pittard is the wife of a doctor in Monticello, and the mother of four children: Mary Yancey, A. B. '38; Linton; John, a senior in high school; and Anne, in the ninth grade. Annie Lou has endeared herself to Monticello through her writing, poems, pageants, and beautiful letters.

Eva Louise (Wimberly) Bailey lives in LaGrange. She is a widow, and has two children, both of whom are now married.

1910

Class Secretary: Jennie Daughtry, Al-lentown, Ga.

Jimmie Lou (Cox) Haggard is postmistress of Camilla's new $75,000 post office.

Jewel (Faver) Glass has two children: Katherine, librarian, at G. S. C. W., and Neil, Jr., attending Emory at Oxford.

Florrie (Harwell) Doggett lives in Pacolet Mills, S. C., where her husband is a minister.

Obie Martha (McKenzie) Black has made her home in Montezuma since the death of her husband.

Jeffie (Persons) Pryor's husband is editor of the Fitzgerald Herald. They have three children: Sara Ann Pryor Mathis of Richland, Jeanne, and Shepherd Pryor, the last two in college.

Lessie (Trammell) Beckwith's husband is professor of mathematics at the University of Georgia. Their older daughter, Miriam, was graduated from the university two years ago and has a good position in the Methods Department at Sears, Roebuck and Co. in Atlanta. Their younger daughter, Eloise, was graduated from the University in June at the age of 19. She made quite a fine record during her college career, and in her senior year was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. She is a cadet teacher in the Athens schools this year. Wightman, Jr., eleven, is in the sixth grade in school.

Martha (Wilkinson) Frazer teaches fourth grade in one of the grammar schools in Fitzgerald. Her husband has practiced medicine in Fitzgerald for many years. Two of her sons are married; one lives in Miami, the other in St. Louis.

Florida (Zelius) Lewis lost her husband a year ago in September, and has moved back to her home in Daytona Beach, Florida, where she is this winter hostess of the Peninsular Club. Her son, Chap, Jr., married Lorraine Gratin of that city in March. Her three sons, Bert, Eric, and Dick are with her.

Jessie (Sutton) Lindenfelser (Art) has the most attractive antique and novelty shop in Bartow.

1911

Class Secretary: Mrs. Warren Timmerman, (Marie Adams), 657 College St., Macon, Ga.

Kathleen Albea is bookkeeper at the George D. Warthen National Bank in Sandersville. One of her hobbies is growing flowers.

Olive (Capps) Butler's husband is an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist in Gainesville, Ga.

Floyd (Fort) Jeffreys lives in Jacksonville, Florida, and is on the State Board of Forestry. She is an Officer in the State Garden Club and also in the Colonial Dames.

Mattie Wade (Garbutt) Hutcheson's only son, Corporal Donald Jamerson, is a member of Georgia's efficient and effective State Patrol. A daughter, Mrs. A. V. Brown, lives in Blackshear, and another daughter, Ann, is in high school.

Addilu (Powell) Hardy lost her husband six years ago. She lives in Cairo, Ga., where she is society editor of the local paper and is active in church and civic affairs, especially in everything that has to do with music.

Winnie (Power) Groover of LaGrange has two children, Winifred, in high school, and Charles, in the second grade.

Nell (Whiting) Wilson has moved from Covington to Midville.

Frances (Chambers) Zeigler teaches the fourth grade in the Tampa school system. She says that the year that she spent at Wesleyan was the most inspirational in her life, with Bishop Ainsworth and Mrs. Burks as outstanding influences. Her work under Miss Gooch has always been a help to her, especially when she was Pastor's assistant at Hyde Park Methodist church. Minnie's maternal grandmother was a graduate of old Wesleyan in the first class.

1912

Class Secretary: Jennie Loyall, Wesleyan College, Macon, Ga.

Kittie (Bower) Crane has taught the same Sunday School class in Dixie, Ga. for ten years. She is president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, and zone leader for her district. She was a delegate from her church to the Annual Conference in Macon last year and had dinner at "new" Wesleyan. She has one married daughter, a son at Auburn, and a daughter, Frances, who is a senior in high school. Frances attended the League Assembly at Wesleyan and came home planning to come to Wesleyan as a student next year.

Genie Griner teaches sixth grade in Evans County Consolidated School.

Thena (Holt) Evan's daughter, Thena, who was a student at Wesleyan Conservatory in 1937-38, is studying art under Lamar Dodd at the University of Georgia, and is a member of Alpha Delta Pi.

Nelle (Irwin) Horkan has a lovely home on Riverside Drive in Gainesville, Ga. She has a charming daughter, Patsy.

Reba (Moore) Standifer was at Wesleyan for Commencement, when her second daughter, Marjorie, graduated from Wesleyan. Reba's only son is at the University of Georgia this year, and she has a third daughter, Mary, who will come to Wesleyan soon.

Martha (Peek) Brown of Cartersville has an only daughter, Martha Peek, who is working in Atlanta.

Ora (Rawlins) Carter, Special '12, of Ray City, Ga., has a little granddaughter, Margaret Ann Wilkes, a year old October 22. The baby's mother is Evelyn (Carter) Wilkes of Valdosta, a member of the Conservatory class of 1934. Ora's daughter, Lucille, will graduate at high school in Valdosta this year and is planning to come to Wesleyan Conservatory.

Sympathy is extended to Ruth (Stallings) Witherspoon of New York in the death of her father, L. Tucker Stallings, director of the Lamar Rankin Drug Co. of Atlanta.

Sallie Frank Thompson is Welfare Director of Houston County, with headquarters in Perry, Ga.

Willia Leigh (Tinley) Brooks has served as superintendent of the Primary Department of the Methodist Sunday School in Hazlehurst for many years, and also held many offices in the Missionary Society. She is also interested in P. T. A. work.

Elizabeth (Reed) Mack lives in Lakeland where her husband practices law. Their son, Ted, graduated at the University of Florida in 1934 in law and is a court reporter, living in Lakeland. He married a Lakeland girl in March. Elizabeth's daughter, Betty, graduated from F. S. C. W. a year ago and married Gyte McCord, graduate of the University of Florida, and assistant in his father's office as clerk of court in Tallahassee. Elizabeth's mother still lives in Bartow not far away from Lakeland.

Rosalie (Mallory) Willingham's son,

Frank, married a Moultrie girl in June. The tea that Rosalie gave in her honor, as co-hostess with Helen (Mallory) Birdsey honoring her daughter Martha Birdsey who married Hamilton Napier, was one of the most delightful social events of the fall in Macon and was held at their lodge.

Lucile (Trammell) Shi's son graduated with honor in law at Mercer in June. Lucile had a son who graduated in High School this year and one from Grammar school. Her oldest son is married and lives in Macon.

Alice (Domingos) Evans and her husband Major Evans spent some months in Washington this summer when he was ill at the Walter Reed Hospital. They were in Macon with her family for Thanksgiving and will spend several weeks in Florida before Major Evans receives new orders from the Army. The Atlanta Alumnae Club is missing Alice very much in all of its undertakings there and her friends are glad that her two sons are located in Georgia to entice them back often.

1913

Class Secretary: Mrs. R. J. Taylor (Elizabeth Baker), 1985 Ponce de Leon Ave., N. E., Atlanta, Ga.

Macon Representative, Mrs. J. C. Anderson (Annie Gantt), Stanislaus Cir., Macon, Ga.

Theodora (Atkinson) Cobb and her husband returned to Japan in August, taking only one of her children with her. Two others are in school in America, Margaret at Wesleyan.

Callie I. Cook is always busy with her ceramic art studio in Milledgeville. She keeps in touch with her former Wesleyan students who come often to study with her or to ask advice about their work.

Gladys (Garfield) Tubbs lives in Miami, Fla. She has two daughters, Gladys Olive, 18, and Elizabeth, 14. Gladys is on the Miami Edison High School Board. She is on the board of the Miami Woman's Club, and is an active member of Trinity Church.

Ruth (Grice) Edwards spends much time with her small grandson, Jack Keller Sands. She lives in Claxton.

Sara (Hearn) Garrard's husband is first assistant physician at the State Hospital in Milledgeville. Sara has served as Regent of the Nancy Hart Chapter D. A. R., and also as Regent of Major William Horton Chapter, D. A. R., besides holding various chairmanships. At present she is serving as National Vice-Chairman of the Southeastern Division of Student Loan Fund of D. A. R. Her hobby is collecting antiques.

Carrie Jane (Hicks) Rushin lives in Dublin, and has one son, Gene, who was recently married to Miss Aubin Mixon of Wrightsville. Carrie Jane attended the Kentucky Derby this year.

The Memphis, Tenn. Commercial Appeal recently carried an article and attractive pictures of the attractive home of Ella Bess (McMichael) Schmeisser and her husband, Dr. Harry C. Schmeisser in that city. Mrs. Schmeisser, says the story, was a friend at Wesleyan of Chung-ling (Soong) Sun and her sister, Mey-ling (Soong) Chaing, and from them learned much about the fascinating art and culture of China. The solarium in her home reflects her interest. A unique fireplace with a fine bamboo mantle, a mandarin portrait framed in ebony, a coffee table of Chinese Chippendale in blond mahogany and many other lovely things make this room beautiful.

Minnie (McMichael) Reese's husband is cashier in the bank at St. Petersburg, Fla. They have one daughter, Jo Anne, who will be ten years old on Christmas day.

Mae (Maxwell) Reynolds is the wife of one of Cairo's leading doctors, and is the mother of three children, A. B., Jr. and Maxwell being graduates of the University of Georgia, and Virginia, a student at Birmingham Southern.

Irma (Moore) Knox's husband is Judge of the Brunswick Judicial Circuit. She has one daughter, Frances, now Mrs. Wallis Walker of Arcadia, Fla., and one son, Gordon, Jr., a freshman at the Citadel in Charleston. There are also two grandchildren, Patty, who was three years old in February, and Wallis, Jr., who arrived July 9. Irma's brick home of the colonial type of architecture is one of the loveliest new homes in Hazlehurst. She won one of the awards in the Home Beautification Contest sponsored by the Garden Club, of which she is an enthusiastic member. She is also interested in P.-T. A. work, having served as president at one time. She represented the Woman's Society of Christian Service at the Reorganization Conference held in Fitzgerald in September, and was elected a delegate to the Moultrie Conference in April. She was elected secretary of Missionary Education at the Charter Meeting of the Hazlehurst Missionary Society recently.

Catherine (Polhill) Pate's daughter, Catharine, is a senior at Wesleyan and president of the Athletic Association.

Emma May Rambo is living in Rockledge, Florida, where she raises fine Indian River oranges.

Martha (Riley) Holliday's boys are both away at school this year, Jack at Georgia Tech and Pete at North Georgia College, Dahlonega.

Since the magazine has been on the press, we have been shocked to receive newspaper notices of the death of Susie (Merritt) Garner of Atlanta. She was active in club work there, a member of A. A. U. W. and of Zeta Tau Alpha. She is survived by Judson Garner, her husband, a member of the firm of Haas and Dodd in Atlanta. She came back to Wesleyan often in recent years, when her niece, Eleanor Moore of Portland, Tenn, daughter of Marie (Merritt) Moore, 1914, was a student.

Leo (Baker) Taylor and her husband are coming back to Georgia more often these days while their son, Earl Jr., is a student in Barnesville at Gordon Institute, preparing for his entrance in the fall to the University of Florida in Gainesville, their home. There Leo is busy looking after her mother and her home, and Earl's father and his home in addition to her own household.

1914

Class Secretary: Mrs. Carroll Griffin (Kathleen Holder) 516 Westover Drive, Atlanta, Ga. Macon Representative, Mrs. C. B. Clay (Mary Emma Drew) 365 Cherokee Ave., Macon, Ga.

Eloise (Cooper) Cannon's husband retired from active business last January on account of ill health. However, they have made several interesting trips recently, in the spring going to Texas, and in the summer to points of interest in tide-water Virginia. Eloise sent in news notes about Conyers alumnae for the magazine.

Ruth (Credille) Bakes has not been back to Wesleyan in a long time, but this year one of the blouses (better known in our day as "shirt-waists") that she wore when she was at Wesleyan is back on the campus. It is the proud possession of Jane Foley, a niece-in-law, who wears it just as it was when it was made for Ruth. It is an attractive handmade white dimity with a little round collar of the present day edged with tatting and trimmed with hand embroidery.

Helen (Dunn) Golson's husband is acting State Superintendent of Banks. They live in McDonough and have a grown son, Walter Cook, and a daughter, Marjorie.

Annie L. (Feagin) Hamilton is organist of the Christian Church in Dublin. She has a young son, Dick, who entered high school this fall. She and her family have recently moved into a new home.

Josephine (Fleming) DeLamar of Hawkinsville is organist for the Methodist church in Hawkinsville. She also plays the accordion, and is on demand for club programs.

Lucile (Flournoy) Truitt has two sons, Forrest, Jr., who works for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company in LaGrange, and Flournoy, a student at the Citadel in Charleston.

Mary Dudley (Fort) Colley is Conference Superintendent of Christian Social Relations in LaGrange. She is state first Vice-Regent of the D. A. R. Her children are Stewart, Jr., Henrietta, and Allen Fort.

Minnie (Greer) Monroe's family were pioneer settlers in Ashburn, Ga. Minnie has charge now of Greer's Dairy in that city.

Mildred (McKenzie) Rumph is an active member of the Montezuma Garden Club. She has two sons, Dave and Jack. Dave won the McKenzie Memorial Golf Championship recently.

Claire Robinson is a capable business woman of Montezuma.

Nona (Shaw) Moore's son, Roy Worsham Moore, Jr., was married in August to Mary Flagg Townsend of Easton, Conn. and New York City. Nona's daughters, Nona and Josephine, were attendants.

Annie (Simons) Smith, known to her classmates as "Per-Simons", is the enthusiastic and efficient president of the Wesleyan Alumnae Club in Dublin. Annie taught in the Primary Department of the Methodist Church School until the illness and death of her father last February. She has two lovely daughters, Maryan, who graduated at Wesleyan in '39 and is now teaching speech in Thomasville, and Dorothy, who won a scholarship for high honors in high school and entered Wesleyan as a freshman this fall.

Kathleen (Thrasher) Clark is very active in the Woman's Club in Ashburn, now holding a district office. She is a member of the D. A. R. and is noted for her excellent cooking.

Marjorie (Wikle) Butler has recently moved into a lovely new home in Marietta. She has three children, Margaret, who is married and has a year-old son; Doyle, and Howard, who goes to Young Harris.

Iola (Wise) Stetson's son, Basil Wise Stetson, of New York and Green Farms, Conn. was married this summer to Elizabeth Jordan McCristie of Mount Kisco, N. Y.

Mary Evelyn (Wright) Banks of LaGrange is District Secretary of the Woman's Missionary Society. She has one son, William Jr.

1915

Class Secretary: Mrs. W. S. Dodd (Carolyn Knight), 1813 S. W. 11th St., Miami, Florida.

Ellene (Adams) Youmans lives in Metter. Her daughter, Anne, not only plays the piano, but the violin as well.

Margaret (Akerman) Menard's husband, Albert Menard, has been made president of the Pendleton and Pendleton Insurance Agencies in New York. Margaret attended the Golden Anniversary celebration of her mother and father, Judge and Mrs. Alexander Akerman in Orlando, Fla., in February. With her was her daughter, Margie, who was having an unexpected holiday on account of her high average at Davis High School which exempted her from the examinations at the time. She is a junior there, and her average of 98 was the highest made in the school in 1939. Margaret's son, Albert, Jr., received his A. B. degree from the University of Georgia in 1938 and is now studying law at Columbia.

Mary (Almand) Patrick has three lovely children, Billy, working in Miami, Fla., James in Atlanta, and the daughter, Winfrey, a senior in high school this year.

Lollie Belle (Ernest) Jordan of Monticello is president of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church. Her son, L. K., Jr., was married this summer to Margaret Garbutt of Augusta; Charles Ernest graduated in June from Emory; Anne is a senior in high school.

Sara Fite operates a florist's shop in Cartersville.

Caroline (Knight) Dodd's daughter is studying art at the University of Miami, where they live. Caroline also has a son, Stanley, Jr., a senior in high school.

Lucy (Mobley) Moore is connected with the Department of Public Welfare of Newton County. She has just moved into a new home in Covington.

Ruth (Smith) McCalla has recently moved to her lovely country home near Conyers, "Fountain Hill" which she has remodelled and beautifully furnished with antiques.

Mattie (Summerour) Williamson lives in Monroe, Ga. She has three daughters, Donnie Sue, 16; Mary Ann, 10; and Eleanor, 8.

1916

Class Secretary: Mrs. Jesse W. Davis (Merlyn Hiley), Jefferson Terrace, Macon, Ga.

Beverline (Adams) Cochran's husband is a banker in Covington. They have three sons.

Sympathy is extended to Mae (Blair) Roberts in the recent death of her husband, one of the most beloved citizens of Marietta. Mae has a lovely home and one of the most beautiful gardens in Marietta.

Sara (Carstarphen) Thweatt has a position as receptionist at the Macon office of the Georgia State Employment Service, Department of labor.

Rachel (Coward) Cunningham is teacher of languages in Arlington, Ga. high school. She has two daughters in college and a handsome young son in the fifth grade.

Earline (Curry) Kitchens is the wife of a Byromville doctor. Her two sons are Billy, 21, studying pharmacy in Atlanta, and Malcolm, 19. She has held important offices in church and civic organizations, and for a time after her marriage taught in the public school in Byromville.

Louise (Freeman) Fincher is house mother at Senior Hall, University of Georgia. Her three oldest children are married.

Mary Lou (Newton) Morris lives in Dublin in a lovely home on Bellevue Avenue. Her husband is one of the leading business men of the city. Besides her daughter, Marthelle, who came to Wesleyan and has since married, she has an attractive son, Newton, who is a junior in high school this year. Mary Lou is interested in the church, her home, and D. A. R. activities.

Georgia (Smith) Elliot and her family have moved from Conyers to Swainesboro, but Georgia is a frequent visitor to Conyers.

Mattie (Stapleton) Hall is very proud of her two fine sons, who are making excellent records in school.

1917

Class Secretary: Mrs. T. H. Rentz (Jean Oliphant), Mt. Nebo, Milledgeville, Ga.

Katherine (Acree) Whiting of Camilla has built a lovely new home during the past year, and recently became a grandmother twice, her oldest son having a son, and her oldest daughter a daughter. She owns and operates a large farm.

Donnie (Andrews) Sanders is church organist in Edison, and is active in civic work. She has three children: Hubert, 21; Marjorie, in high school; and Donald Edward, in the fourth grade. Her husband is a farmer.

C. B. Branham is Dean at Brenau Academy in Gainesville, Ga.

A most interesting program on Wesleyan was held at John Street Church in New York City this fall at which Sarah Carr Conley spoke on Wesleyan and Mary Wes (Craig) Pigueron, A.B. '11 sang. Enthusiastic accounts of the occasion have come to Wesleyan from persons who attended the celebration. Miniature copies of the first diploma were presented to the audience. In April, Sarah Carr Conley spoke at the Studio-Galleries of The Pagoda in New York City on "My Recollections of the Three Famous Soong Sisters of China."

Elizabeth (Davenport) Plant and her family have returned to Macon to live, her husband being connected with the Canada Dry Company with headquarters in Macon. They have been for several years at Lookout Mountain, Tenn.

Florence (Legg) Hope of New York died in Richmond, Virginia, in June following an automobile accident in which three other persons were killed. Her sisters are: Leila (Legg) Blackburn of the class of 1917, and Marion Legg.

Irene (Malone) Harrison has one of the most beautiful homes in Marietta, and she and her husband have an attractive little son, George, Jr. Irene is very active in the Garden Club.

Agnes (Morrison) Kennon loves her garden, and has a beautiful one at her home in Miami, Fla. She is past-president of the Shenandoah Garden Club. Her husband is a prominent baby specialist, and they have one fine young son, Charles.

Marie (Peterson) Palmer takes an active interest in the social and civic life of Ailey, Ga., where she lives, and frequently travels with her husband who is secretary of the Seaboard Surgeons.

Mary Alice (Strange) Daniel has three daughters, Dot, 19, a junior at the University of Georgia in their home town, Tommie, 16, a senior in high school, and Emma Carter, 9, in the fourth grade. Her husband is secretary and treasurer of the Webb-Crawford Company, and Mary Alice is on the Alumnae Advisory Council for Phi Mu. She enjoys this contact with the Phi Mus very much.

Billy Turpin, son of Edith (Culpepper) Turpin, is a student at Dartmouth College. Billy won many honors in high school, among them the $100 prize offered by the international Civitan Club for the best essay on American Citizenship, 27,000 high school students participating.

Fanny (Blitch) Graham lives in Tallahassee where her husband is supervisor of the state for schoolhouse planning and construction. They moved from Atlanta where he worked for seven years in the State Department. They have two sons, James Lovett Jr., 15 years old and William Blitch, 12. Fanny is active in church and club work.

King (Kelly) Fortson is living in Gainesville, Fla. where her husband is district supervisor of the Farm Security Administration. King's only son, Donald Starr, nephew of Mary Starr of the class of 1913, has graduated from the University of Florida and is now connected with M. Dwoskin and Sons. King's brother, O. L. Kelly, whom she reared, has graduated in medicine from Emory University and is now interning.

1918

Class Secretary: Mrs. J. L. Murphy (Marian Cook), 24 Roosevelt Place, Rockville Center, L. I., N. Y.

Assistant Secretaries: Pauline (Pierce) Corn, Genie Fincher.

Jennie Marie Adams spent several delightful weeks this summer with her cousin, Mattie (Adams) Buchanan of Macon at her summer home at Lake Tahoe, N. C.

Carrie (Addington) Conwell is active in religious and social affairs in Lavonia. She teaches a music class, and is the mother of two attractive daughters, Caroline and Emily.

Anna Pauline Anderson lives in Covington with her mother and a brother.

Margaret (Atkinson) Clark does some supply teaching in the LaGrange schools.

Sympathy is extended to Ray Ballard and Louise Ballard (A.B. '24) in the death of their father, Rev. L. J. Ballard of Atlanta, in October.

Lillie (Bass) Byers has a lovely new home in Salem, Ohio, where her husband is a prominent physician. Their children are: Mary, age 15, who is president of the local Epworth League, and a charming girl; Billy, 13; and David, 10. Lillie has made quite a name for herself in Salem and nearby towns as a reviewer of books, and is much in demand as a speaker by clubs and study groups.

Gracy (Beatty) Watson is County Director of Public Welfare in Hawkinsville. She has three children: Grace, at Reinhardt Junior College, hopes to enter Wesleyan soon; Mary is a junior in high school, and Bill is a Junior at Emory in the School of Medicine.

Adelle (Dennis) Dickey's husband is principal of the Cairo, Ga. high school. She is a fine leader in church and civic activities. She has one child, Billy, in the fifth grade.

Allie Jeff (Doster) White is living an interesting life in Washington, D. C., where her husband, Miller White, is a Major in the U. S. Army.

Elizabeth (Forehand) Haugabook is the mother of two boys, Claude and Dickie, in the seventh and second grades in the Montezuma school.

Georgia (Fort) Askew of Arlington, Ga., has a daughter who is studying at Tallahassee, and a son at the University of Georgia.

Her chief interest besides her family is the beautification of the grounds around her home, and one glance will show anyone that she is successful at the job.

Ester (Harris) McKenzie's son, W. H., III, is a student at West Point. Her younger son is in high school.

Helen (Maffett) Whatley of Montezuma is an outstanding worker in the Woman's Society of Christian Service. She has a daughter, Helen, in the seventh grade in school.

A guest pastor in the First Baptist Church pulpit in Macon one Sunday this summer was Dr. Walter P. Binns of Roanoke, husband of Blanche (Mallery) Binns. Dr. Binns is past president of the Roanoke Kiwanis Club and of the Community Chest, and is on the executive committee of the Southern Baptist convention.

Sarah Mobley teaches in Tarboro, N. C.

Kathleen (Rogers) Pape of Macon has three little daughters, Kathleen, 11; Louise, 6; and Harriet, 3½.

Mary Emma (White) Fitzgerald has one son, Charles Howell, a sophomore at the University of Georgia this year. She lives in Conyers, Ga.

We extend deepest sympathy to Elizabeth (Loyall) Woods in the sudden death of her husband, Dr. Charles J. Woods, prominent dermatologist in Macon, on November 6, and in the death of her father on November 8.

Mitta (Pharr) Fields has looked after her husband's interests since his death in Leesburg and has one son, Sherman, eight years old and her husband's niece Hillman Fields, 12 years of age.

Helen (Phifer) Glass lives in the old home in Gainesville, Fla., where she has a very charming family—her daughter, Florence, a senior in high school, and Martine, 9 years old. Mary (Phifer) McKenzie makes this home "headquarters" but spent much of her time last winter with relatives in New York and other interesting places.

Katherine (Cleckler) Arnold and her husband have completed a beautiful summer home near High Point, N. C. and spent the month of August there landscaping the grounds. The house is built of old brick, moss covered, low and rambling. The interior is finished with natural pine with artistic window grouping so that the beautiful mountain views seem a part of the house.

1919

Class Secretary: Mrs. A. L. Gilmore (Roseline Jenkins), Thomson, Ga.

Mamie (Adams) Murray's husband, E. Bobo Murray of Macon, has accepted a position with the Union Central Life Insurance Company as district manager. Mr. Murray was former teacher of foreign languages at Lanier High School for Boys in Macon.

Linda (Anderson) Lane has been quite busy this summer and fall helping to carry out the plans for the improvement of Wesleyan Conservatory. This fall she went to New York to attend a wedding, and to visit her son, McKibben, Jr., who is at Phillips-Exeter in New Hampshire.

Mary (Atkinson) Whitesell of Columbia, S. C. has a new baby, Frank Cook, born August 15. She now has two boys and two girls.

Mary (Branch) Arnold is president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service in Grantville, Ga. She is the mother of one son, Charlie, Jr.

Sarah (Clements) Beasley lives in Tampa, Fla., 2111 Watrous Ave. She has three children: Walter, a sophomore at the University of Florida, a junior in Tampa High School, and Hal, ten years old.

Dorothy (Krauss) Strong has a pretty new home overlooking a lake in Winter Park, Fla. Her husband is a lawyer and they have three attractive sons, the oldest Hope, Jr., making a good record at Annapolis; the second, Daniel DeGraffenreid, in Winter Park High School; the youngest, Willard Lee, also in high school.

Mary Frank (McClure) Chandler lives in Greensboro, where her husband owns a drug store. They have one daughter, Jane, in the seventh grade.

Benjie (Matthias) Martin's daughter, Rose, was married June 23 to Carson Simms of Charlotte, N. C.

Annabel (Moye) Fleming lives in Sanford, Fla., where her husband has the Ford Agency. They have one son, Billie (W. G., Jr.) who is in high school there. Annabel teaches expression in connection with the public schools, putting to good use her three years' study at Wesleyan and her experience in assisting Miss Wallace. Her husband has Wesleyan ties also. His mother is Carrie (Branch) Fleming, class of 1886, daughter of J. O. Branch, presiding elder and Wesleyan trustee, and wife of W. P. Fleming, for thirty years Ordinary in Cordele.

Mary (Phillips) Clegg is the wife of a Baptist minister in Dalton, Ga. They have three children, James, Craslon, and Mary Jane.

Mary (Powers) Burks lives in LaGrange, where her husband is W. P. A. Reviewer for that territory.

Paula Snelling and her friend Lillian E. Smith were awarded a renewal of their Rosenwald fellowships enabling them to continue their study and travel in preparation for a book on the South and Southern literature.

Marjorie and Ruth White head the Wesleyan interests in Gainesville, Fla., and have the admiration and affection of all for their outstanding teaching in the high schools there. They have an attractive old home with their aunt there.

1920

Class Secretary: Mrs. Mark Ethridge (Willie Snow, Prospect, Ky.

Gussie (Bloodworth) Harrison's husband has been named Postmaster of Milledgeville recently.

Eunice (Burgay) Palmer lives in Edison, where her husband works with the post office. She has two children, Thelma, five years old, and Grover, Jr., nearly two. She frequently appears as soloist for weddings and programs.

Winnie (Ernest) Johnson lives now in Claxton, Ga. She has two daughters, Sara Blanche and Jimmie.

Louise (Cooper) McKinney has two daughters, Blanche, age 10, and Frances Earle, 8 months. She and her family have recently moved into a new home in Blackshear, Ga.

An interesting article about Ruth (Flinn) Harrell and her work in helping an asphasia victim to regain his speech was sent to the Alumnae Office by Mrs. H. W. Pittman of Macon. There is a picture of Ruth and her pupil, a man whose sense of language and speech was wiped out by an automobile accident and who has struggled for seven years and learned all over, as a baby would learn, how to communicate with his family and friends. "Not many patients have the stamina for re-education," says Ruth. The article, written by the young man himself, tells of his gradual acquiring of a vocabulary until he is at last able to hold a position on the newspaper with which he was reporter at the time of the accident.

Ruth (Freeman) Gaulden teaches music in Camilla, and is organist for the Methodist Church. She has two daughters.

Kathleen (Gilham) Hill is active in church work in Montezuma, and is an accomplished musician. Her son, Yancey Hill, Jr., entered the University of N. C. this year, and she has a daughter three and a half years old.

Idalu (Haugabook) Slack lives in Gainesville, Ga. She has two children, Billie and Enid.

Gladys (Holtzendorf) Schulte, her husband, and two attractive daughters, Athleen and Brownie, live in Manhasset, New York.

Mary (Jelks) Stovall's daughter, Mildred, after taking a secretarial course in college, helps her father in his office in Ft. Lauderdale, and works at the Western Union office in the winter.

Miriam (Jones) Brinson of Millen has an attractive daughter, Miriam, who will graduate in June from South Georgia Teachers' College, and a son, Buck, who is a junior at the University of Georgia this year.

Leila (Julian) Garden's husband is Solicitor General of the Cordele Judicial Circuit, and both he and Leila are most active in all civic organizations in Fitzgerald, their home.

Mae (Kelley) Clements and her husband have a pretty home in Jesup, Ga. Her sister, Hattie Ruth (Kelley) Nichols, A.B. '25, has also moved into a new home.

Lila (Lambert) Holliday has four children, ages 19, 16 and 7. Pope Jr., is taking a pre-med course at the University of Georgia. On September 8 her husband had conferred upon him by the university an honorary degree in dentistry. Lila is a leader in church work in Athens.

Helen Lewis has charge of the government relief work in Mitchell County, Ga.

Corinne (McKenzie) Forrester of Montezuma is the mother of a popular son who is a senior in high school this year.

Distribution of Mercury, Lincoln Zephyr, and Lincoln automobiles in Macon and 35 counties in east central Georgia will be handled through the Sparks Motor Company of which Willis Sparks, Jr., husband of Lucile (Mallary) Sparks, is head. Announcement of this arrangement was made by the Ford Motor Company in October.

Julia Mobley is now Mrs. Bill Dixon of Kinston, N. C.

Lide Pate is director of programs for a new Macon broadcasting station.

Margaret Pritchett is in the insurance business in Dublin, Ga.

Sympathy is extended to Beulah (Smith) Jels, and to Mary (Smith) McWilliams of the class of '23 and Margaret (Smith) Weaver of the class of '22 in the death of their mother in the summer.

Agnes (Walker) Pierce's husband is a prominent business man of Cairo. They have one child, Peggy, who is in the sixth grade. They had a lovely trip to the World's Fair and the East this summer.

Helen (Williams) Coxon was recently elected state senator from her district. She lives in Ludowici, and has served as a member of the state legislature for several terms. She is outstanding in politics, and is known as "The Lady from Long".

1921

Class Secretary: Mrs. Eugene Torrance (Mary Fagan), 532 E. 37th St., Savannah, Ga.

Leone (Brannon) Mitchell is active in civic and club work in Dalton. Her husband is judge of the Cherokee Circuit.

Beulah Brinson teaches first grade in Milten, Ga.

Ruth (Conn) Morrison has returned to Milledgeville after a visit to New York and the World's Fair.

Margaret (Evans) McDonald is welfare supervisor in Ashburn, Ga., a position which keeps her very busy.

Josephine (Franklin) Reid is known in and around Montezuma for her talents as an interior decorator.

Frances (Garbutt) Tyler is making her home again in Sandersville after living in Florida for several years. She is active in the work of the Methodist church, having served last year as president of the Woman's Missionary Society.

Janie Lee (Johnson) Banks lives in Grantville, Ga. She has two children, a son, Donald, Jr., and a daughter, Mary Ellen.

Margaret (Jones) Roddenbery is the mother of five children. The oldest boy, Julian, is attending Mercer University, his father's Alma Mater, this fall. The second boy, Ralph, is in high school. Rebecca is in the sixth grade, and Albert in the second. Martha is under school age. Margaret's husband is active in the industrial development of Cairo, where they live, being interested in the production of pickles, peanut butter, and Georgia cane syrup. The two older boys accompanied their parents on a trip through the west this summer.

Sympathy is extended to Lucile Lewis, A. B. '21, Autrey Lewis, A. B. '25, and Gladys (Lewis) McElveen, A. B. '27, in the death of their mother last January. Lucile is a member of the faculty of Colegio Buena Vista in Havana, Cuba; Autrey teaches in Valdosta; and Gladys is keeping house in Atlanta. Gladys has two little daughters, Carolyn and Martha.

Eunice (Lightfoot) Brown is a business woman, owning and operating a clothing store in Dublin. She has a daughter, Annella, who entered the University of Georgia Medical School this fall, and two sons, Moody, Jr., beginning his work at Tech this year, and Alfred, eleven years old.

Alice (McNair) Hampton of Gainesville, Fla., has a lovely daughter, Mary Alice, who is a senior in high school, and is an expert horsewoman, having won honors in camps in New England in this sport.

Emmie (Powers) Hart is teaching the high school subjects recently added to one of the mill schools near Newnan. Her son, a fine-looking boy, just entered high school, and she has a little girl in the fifth grade.

Winifred (Rawlings) Gilmore has been president of the Washington County Wesleyan Alumnae Club for the past two years. She lives in a lovely home she and her husband remodeled at their dairy farm, which is known throughout the state for its advanced farming methods and record-breaking Guernsey cows. Winifred's son, "Doctor" Tommy Gilmore is ten years old.

Sympathy is extended to Agnes (Richter) Mackey and to Isabelle Richter (A. B. '26) in the death of their brother, George L. Richter of Macon in September.

Charles Miriam (Wall) Hutchens lives in Sandersville, Ga. She has two sons, William, 8, and Dan, 6.

A letter came to the class of '21 in reunion at Commencement from Mabel (Woodward) Douglass of Whitmire, S. C. Mabel's husband was convalescing after an acute attack of coronary thrombosis in February, and Mabel was quite busy with her home, the florist business which her husband's mother operates, and her two children: George Woodward, four; and Francis Michael, one year.

Alice (McNair) Hampton, has built an attractive new suburban home in Gainesville, Fla. where she lives with her daughter Mary Alice and with her son, Fred, who is twelve years old. Mary Alice, a Senior in High School, is interested in horseback riding which she enjoyed in camp in Vermont this summer.

1922

Class Secretary: Mrs. Ed Flanders (Bruce Cleckler), Buford Place, Macon, Ga.

Fannibel Adams is now Mrs. S. B. Spingler of Boston, Ga.

Grace (Allen) Hailey has two children, Grace Allen, 10, and Mildred, 17. Grace's husband has a drug store in Hartwell, and they have a lovely new home which Grace planned herself.

Jeffie (Bennett) Smith's son spent the summer at Camp Dixie in north Georgia and had a happy vacation. He is in his first year at high school in Hazlehurst, and his ambition is to be a lawyer. Jeffie was most helpful in getting up news notes and addresses of alumnae for this magazine. She says that managing her home and doing her share of church and P.-T.A. work consume most of her time, but she does find time for her favorite pastime, reading.

Jennie Mae (Clark) Bush has been a widow since 1938, and is now a clerk in the post office in Eastman, Ga. She has two daughters, Marion, 17, and Pauline, 14, studying at Reinhart College in Waleska.

Gladys (Dismuke) Newman of Albany spent a week-end recently with her Wesleyan roommate, Jeffie (Bennett) Smith in Hazlehurst. Gladys is on the Executive Board of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the South Georgia Conference. Her son, Billy, is in high school.

Marguerite (Duncan) Dearing lives in Hazlehurst, where she is active in the missionary society of the First Baptist Church and the Garden Club. She was awarded the prize of the Hazlehurst Garden Club for the greatest number of winning entries at the monthly meetings. She grows many beautiful and rare flowers on the grounds of the Magnolia Hotel which she, her husband and her mother own and operate.

Mary Edwards teaches in the primary grades in Claxton.

Nell (Eley) Collier with her husband and two daughters recently moved into a new home on Vernon Road in LaGrange. The older daughter, Elizabeth, is a senior in high school. Isabelle is about two years old.

Josephine (Evans) Miller is active in church and civic work in Ashburn, and is always interested in any Wesleyan affairs. She has two attractive children.

Cecil (Hicks) Queen's son, Sam, is in the eighth grade in Montezuma. She is an active worker in the P.-T. A.

Jewell (Holt) Lang has two fine boys, Billy, 10, and Neal, 3. Her hobbies are her quaint old home in Sandersville, and the antiques with which she has furnished it.

Elizabeth (Jenkins) Reece's name was given incorrectly in the August magazine, in an article about her sister Rosaline (Jenkins) Gilmore, and Rosaline's new office as national treasurer of the Alumnae Association. Elizabeth's death in the spring of 1938 brought sorrow both to Wesleyan where Elizabeth has many friends, and to Emory, where her husband is a member of the faculty. Rosaline is glad that after many years in Louisiana and Mississippi, she lives again in Georgia and can be nearer Elizabeth's two boys.

Jeannie K. Jewell, who holds a music degree from Wesleyan, lives in Milledgeville. For some years illness in her home has kept her close at home, and friends have missed her usual service in church and patriotic organizations.

Ellie (McNeill) Caldwell is bookkeeper for the R. D. Cole Manufacturing Company, and is an ardent worker in the Methodist Sunday School in Newnan. Her husband died several years ago, and she and her mother have made their home together since then.

Helen (Owen) Forrester has a son, Julian Owen Forrester, about 16 months old.

Isma Swain teaches English at LaGrange High School, and also directs the Glee Club. She makes a fine contribution in the community in directing music in clubs and in church organizations.

Clementine (Strozier) Jessup teaches in the Eastman public school. She has an attractive little cousin, Mae Daley of Dublin, in the freshman class at Wesleyan this year.

Louise (Walters) Johnston teaches in the high school in Rochelle, Ga., and her husband serves as pastor of the Abbeville and Pitts Baptist Church. They have three children.

Mary (Wilson) Adams teaches English in the Fitzgerald High School. Her husband is former mayor of Fitzgerald, and they have one son, Charlie Roy, seven years old.

Sara (Wood) Mercer is teaching in the high school in Excelsior, one of the four large consolidated schools of Jeff Davis County. Her husband is superintendent of schools in Excelsior and they have two children, Eugene, 12, and Carolyn, 3. She has served as president of the Home Demonstration Club in Excelsior for several years and is one of the leaders in the church.

1923

Class Secretary: Mrs. R. A. Patterson (Ruth Sears), Cuthbert, Ga.

Anne (Boyett) Bostwick has a son who is a sophomore at Auburn, and a son entering the first grade in Arlington, Ga. this fall. She is always busy, interested in the Red Cross, the P.-T. A., and other civic and social activities.

Louise (Burnley) Hicks has been for several years Supervisor of Welfare Work for Twiggs County, Georgia.

Myrtle Estes teaches violin in Covington.

Ruth Field, who has returned from Mission work in Japan to care for her father since her mother's death, is a great addition to the church in Newnan, where she is an enthusiastic worker. She has spent some time this year in Florida.

Emmie Johnson teaches music in the Sandersville public school, and gets up skits and choruses for most of the entertainments given in the city. She is organist for the handsome new Methodist church, completed in 1939.

Helen (Kilpatrick) Moseley's husband is professor at Augusta Junior College. They have two children, Joseph Rufus, Jr., and Martha.

Sympathy is extended to Louise (McKenzie) Jones of Americus in the death of her twelve-year-old daughter, Camille, in May, after an illness of three months. Louise has a young son, Phil Jones, Jr.

Emily (Park) Herman has three lovely children, two in grammar school and the youngest, Carolyn, in kindergarten.

Sarah (Rogers) Roughton teaches piano in Sandersville, and is always in demand for musical programs. She is active in literary club work, also. Her children are, Sarah, age 9, and Ralph, Jr., 7, who is following in his mother's steps as a musician.

Lucile (Sanders) Sewell has a brick bungalow on the highway in Newnan, Ga. She has one son, Henry.

Sympathy is extended to Mildred (Shelton) Hitch of Savannah, in the death of her husband, R. M. Hitch, former Mayor of Savannah.

Dorothy (Toole) Ezell of Cartersville has two adorable little girls, Beth, 5, and Dotty, 1.

Frances (Whiteside) Feagin has recently moved into her attractive new home in Albany which she and her husband and their two daughters, Frances, fifteen, and Jean, thirteen, are enjoying.

Corinne (Womble) Sowards' husband is Chairman of the Fitzgerald Chamber of Commerce. They have one child.

1924

Class Secretary: Mary Thomas Maxwell, G. S. C. W., Milledgeville, Ga.

Sarah (Askew) Brannon has four very attractive boys. The oldest, John, Jr., has just entered high school. Gene, Joe, and Jimmy are the younger ones.

Ruth (Broadhurst) Peacock lives in Dublin where her husband is in the lumber business. Her friends will be interested to know that she has recovered from a recent operation for appendicitis.

Ruby (Broadhurst) Riggins lives in Jesup, where her husband is manager of the local theatre, and showed the Wesleyan film for the alumnae there. They have two children, Sarah and Ward, Jr. Ruby is active in the Woman's Club, Legion Auxiliary, and Garden Club.

Gertrude (Butler) Hughes takes an active part in church missionary work in Camilla. She has two lovely children, a girl and a boy.

Marjorie (Carroll) Pound has two attractive children, Marjo, age 12, and Merritt, Jr., age 6, Marjorie's husband is professor of history at the University of Georgia. He received his Ph. D. at the University of North Carolina last summer.

The capable, efficient director of the Dougherty County Department of Public Welfare is Ailene (Corry) Arensbach. Wesleyan friends know of her ability, and Albany friends are delighted to have her in the business and social life of the city. Her lovely young daughter, Corry, is in the second grade in the Albany school.

Anne (Douglas) Wallace has four children. Adelaide and Ann are in high school, Leonard Jr. in grammar school, and William, age four. Her husband is a bank cashier in Madison. Her daughter, Ann, is state president of the Children of the American Revolution.

Carolyn (Field) Crane is society editor of "The Bartow Herald", published in Cartersville. She has one son, Bert, age 6.

A picture of Carolyn (Fulghum) McCord and her young son, Fletcher, Jr., appeared in the Macon Telegraph in June. They were spending the summer in Macon. In the winter they live in Lawrence, Kansas, where Fletcher, Sr. is on the faculty of the University of Kansas.

Elizabeth (Garrett) Page's husband is an architect and contractor in Dublin, and they have four attractive children: Betty, Bluford, Garrett, and Mary Frances. "Liz" is society editor of the Dublin Courier-Herald, charter member and past president of the Parnassas Club, honorary president of the Oconee Chapter of U. D. C., and enjoys the distinction of being the only woman to serve on the City Board of Education.

Marjorie (Guel) Key's son, Homer, Jr., went to North Georgia College, Dahlonega, this fall.

Eloise (Humphrey) Daniel's husband has a responsible position with the county in Millen, Ga., and they have one son, eleven years old.

Audrey (Jenkins) Garrard has one son, Carrol, age 15. She is teacher of English in Alford's Consolidated School, Hart County, and has done an outstanding work as mission study chairman of her missionary society.

Leah Kittrell's violin is the joy of all her friends. She recently appeared for the fiftieth time as violinist in a wedding. She lives with her father, Dr. C. H. Kittrell, in their charming place near Dublin, "Shady Valley".

The home is the gathering place for their wide circle of friends. Leah is past president of the Woman's Study Club, and is a member of Oconee Chapter of the U. D. C.

Nell (Lester) Buchner's daughter, Betty, is in the fifth grade in the Montezuma school.

Elizabeth Malone is librarian of the Craighead County Library in Jonesboro, Ark., where they are building a real library from a small W. P. A. one. Elizabeth has charge of spending $12,000 on books in the next two years. She has been in Memphis doing library work for a year. She took her library degree at the University of Illinois.

Mary Miller conducted a tour to Mexico this summer, leaving New Orleans June 7.

Maurine (Munro) Mauldin is head of the department of languages in the high school in Lavonia. She has one little daughter, Joanna.

Emily (Persons) Rawlins lives in Thomas-ton, Ga. She has one daughter, Frances, who is a junior in high school.

Rosalie (Radford) Stillwell entertained the Covington-Oxford Alumnae Club at her home in September. The oldest member of the club, Addie (Singleton) Branham, A. B. 1880, was present, and Susie (Bonnell) Stone of 1882, daughter of former president J. M. Bonnell was also present. Susie was born in the college. Four Wesleyan girls, Emily Campbell of Mansfield, Elizabeth Stillwell of Covington, Lucy Cline of Oxford, and Virginia Sowell of Porterdale, attended the meeting. Rosalie was disappointed that so few of her classmates were at Commencement this year for she wanted to show off her little four-year-old daughter and find who would be her classmates at Wesleyan in 1958.

Helen (Ridley) Smith, her husband and little daughter, Helen, have moved from La-Grange to Manchester, where Mr. Smith has the Ford Agency.

Carolyn (Summerlin) Kendrick's husband is manager of the Kendrick Auto Supply Company in Dublin. They have a son, Hyrell, Jr., eleven years old.

Carolyn (White) Izlor is a leader in church activities in Ocala, Fla. and has a daughter, Laurie Virginia, in Junior High School and a son, Lorry, eight years old.

1925

Class Secretary: Mrs. Carey Williams (Celeste Copelan), Greensboro, Ga.

Mary Lou Barnwell, who has been for some time Head Resident of Social Work at St. Marks Center, New Orleans, La., is this year studying for her M.S. degree in Social Administration at Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio.

Hattie (Branch) Sibley has a daughter, Harriet Harris Sibley, born July 4.

Maryella Camp is still the same enthusiastic, witty person she always was, and can keep everyone around her in a good humor. She is head of one of the young people's departments of the Methodist Church in Newnan, and teaches large classes in English in the high school. This past summer she received the M. A. degree from Duke University, and she and her mother and father have a lovely new home where they delight to entertain their many friends.

Lucile Carswell and her friend, Agnes Pittman have made quite a success of their cottage, "Ag-Lu Inn" at Jacksonville Beach, Fla., where they take summer vacationists. In the winter Lucile teaches at Miller High School in Macon.

Florence (Cason) Hardison's husband has a farm near Byron, Ga. They have four children, three boys and one girl. Florence is president of the P.-T. A. in Byron this year.

Celeste (Copelan) Williams and her husband, editor of the Greensboro, Ga. paper, enjoyed a motor trip to New York and Canada this summer. They have one son, Carey, Jr., two years old in December.

Virginia (Dozier) Van Brakle is living at 118 E. 40th St., New York.

Addie Beall Early has accepted a position as assistant supervisor in the Federal Farm Security Administration at Cuthbert, Ga.

Laree (Farr) Blanks and her husband live on their dairy farm near Milledgeville. Laree's little son, Bruce, is ten, and her daughter, Patricia, four.

Jeffie (Fincher) Fambro's husband is president of the Rockmart Bank. They have two children, Betty Rose, 11, and Paul 9.

Mary (Godwin) Lewis is the wife of a professor at the University of Florida. They have a fine young son, Hal, Jr.

Martha (James) Acree of Camilla was president of the missionary society in her church in Camilla for the past year. She spends most of her time looking after her husband and home, and enjoys playing golf as a hobby.

Helen (McNatt) Bradley of Claxton has two sons, Waldo, Jr. and Dan.

Elizabeth (McRae) Churchwell keeps up her interest in Little Theatre work in Albany, this year serving as chairman of a most successful membership campaign for the organization. In addition to social, club, and church interests Betty and her husband are watching daily the progress of their new home on Rawson Drive. Their Albany friends are thrilled over the beauty of the Southern Colonial house, and are glad that the Churchwells seem now "anchored" to Albany.

Janet (McRitchie) Hollis has a lovely new home in Newnan, Ga., and takes a great interest in the grounds around it. Her son, Edgar, Jr., is in the sixth grade in school.

Blanche (Parker) Johnson lives in Millen. Her attractive little son, Merrill, Jr., started to school this year.

Grace Parker is working with the Welfare Board in Millen, Ga.

Kathryn (Pate) Rackley of Albany has two fine boys, Otis D. Jr. (called "Sonny") who celebrated his fifth birthday on September 25, and Thomas Eugene, thirteen months. Kat in describing them says, "They're as unlike as two peas in two pods." Sonny is a decided blond, while Tommy a handsome brunette.

Elizabeth Rogers has taught the sixth grade in Sandersville for a number of years. Her father, Dr. O. L. Rogers, is county health commissioner.

Cornelia Shiver is teaching history this year at Lander College, Greenwood, S. C.

Lois (Spears) Ginn's husband is in the automobile business in Covington, Ga. They have four children. The family moved into their new home in October, a very beautiful home of the old colonial style.

Bertha Turner teaches English in the high school in Gainesville, Ga.

Sara Wilkerson is state supervisor of recreation under the W. P. A. program, in North Carolina. Her offices are in Raleigh, N. C.

1926

Class Secretary: Mrs. Cubbedge Snow (Frances Cater), 116 Callaway St., Macon, Ga.

Dorothy (Allen) Lund of Miami, Fla., has a little daughter, Mary Olive, two years old.

Mary (Allman) Alford is interested in church, club and civic affairs in Hartwell. She is former president of the District Federation of Woman's Clubs, is at present chairman of adult education for that organization. She has for four years taught a class of men in the Mill Village Sunday School, and is teacher of English in Eagle Grove Junior High School. She has two children, Jack, 6, and A. N. III, 8.

Julius Amis is State Supervisor of the North Carolina W. P. A. Library Project. There are 1,208 employed on the project, with seven trained librarians. The project is operating in school and public libraries or reading rooms in all of the 100 counties in N. C. There are 12 project-owned Bookmobiles, and the project assists other counties that own their own trucks.

Rossie Andrews received the Master of Music degree at the University of Michigan last summer, and is teaching piano, organ, and theory at Guilford College in Greensboro, N. C. this year.

Elizabeth (Banks) Jarrell has two lovely children, Betty Banks, nine, and Billy, four.

Josephine (Bedingfield) Abney was elected president of the Macon Y. W. C. A. in January.

Mary (Bennett) Wilson, after she left Wesleyan, graduated in music at Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, and has studied music in New York and Chicago. She has lived in Havana, Cuba, New York, and Chicago, and is now living in Chicago near the University, where her husband is studying. She was president of the Dames Club of the University in 1938-39. Her niece, Lois Bennett Davis of Macon, is with her this winter and is studying at the University.

Nancy (Blount) Coney has a lovely voice, and is leader of the choir in the Methodist church in Hawkinsville.

Mary Alma (Cobb) Stevens, whose husband is Personnel Director of the Federal Land Bank in Baltimore, Maryland, has a little son, Bobby, age two. Her address is Apt. 191, The Northwood, Baltimore.

Gladys Davis is clerk of the County Commissioners of Pierce County, an office her father held before his death.

Laura Belle (deBeaugrine) Todd has moved from Sandersville to Smyrna, where her husband is superintendent of the Fitzhugh-

Lee school. They have one son, Bobby, in high school.

Helen (Dover) Turner lives in Madison. She has two children, Bobby, 12, and Mary Margaret, 5. Her husband is agent for the Sinclair Refining Company.

Claudia Dykes is at home in Montezuma with her mother, Susie (Simmons) Dykes of the class of '97, after a year in New York.

Evelyn Estes teaches piano in Oxford and Covington.

Lola (Hagood) Davis is active in church work in Marietta. She has a four-year-old son, William.

Addie (Kellam) Orr's husband is in the grocery business in Dublin. They have two sons, Freeman Roy, Jr., ten, and Tal Kellam, five. Addie is very active in church and club work.

ReLee (Mallory) Brown is a member of the Oxford-Covington Wesleyan Alumnae Club. She works in the college bookstore at Emory at Oxford, and enjoys her contact with the college boys.

Katherine (Manget) Farmer of Newnan has two attractive children, a son and a daughter.

Lucile Manget, Conservatory, works in Atlanta, and comes home to Newnan, Ga., for the week-ends.

Mary (Rives) Carter's husband is in the wholesale grocery business in Gainesville, Ga. They have two fine boys, Rives and Allen.

Sympathy is extended to Martha Roberts in the death of her father, Frank Roberts of Macon, in September following a heart attack.

Elizabeth (Smith) Nalls lives in Carnesville, Ga., where her husband is professor of vocational agriculture in the Red Hill School. She has three daughters.

Elizabeth Watson is an interviewer with the W.P.A. Administration in Macon.

Louise (Williamson) Jenson lives in Dublin where she is secretary for the Dublin Production Credit Association and her husband is golf "Pro" at the Country Club.

Addie Lee (Wood) Reagan's husband is a member of the Post Office force in Cairo, Ga., where Addie Lee was for some years a teacher in the high school. She is active in the work of the Presbyterian Church.

1927

Class Secretary: Mrs. H. B. Hoover (Luretia Jones), Trapelo Road, Lincoln, Mass.

Virginia (Arnall) Moody's little red-haired daughter and a new home in Newnan, Ga., keep her very busy.

Jean (Askew) Powers and her husband live in the country near Newnan and like it very much. They are very proud of their brand-new baby.

Lilias (Baldwin) Turnell and her husband, cashier of the First National Bank in Madison, spend a great deal of time at their cabin on a lake near the city.

Maxine (Baldwin) Schaufele has a baby son, Christopher Baldwin Schaufele, who is nine months old. Maxine and her family live in Dublin.

Margaret Barge has a variety of jobs in Newnan. She cares for her mother, an invalid, goes often with her doctor father on his visits since he has not been very well, writes society news for the paper, works in a jewelry store, or ready-to-wear store, or beauty shop much of the time. She plays for the Sunday School and for the Civitan Club.

Eva (Brewer) Taylor is president of the Woman's Missionary Society in Doerun. She has three children, Floyd McKown, Jr., 11; Thomas Elkin, 6; and Anna, 3.

Sympathy is extended to Virginia (Childs) Bootle in the death of her mother after a heart attack in October.

Elizabeth (Coates) James is the very efficient president of the Wesleyan Alumnae Club of St. Petersburg, Fla., which keeps Wesleyan in the newspapers of that section. The club entertained for five St. Petersburg girls who left for Wesleyan in September, with a lovely luncheon at the Nikko Inn. Elizabeth (Coates) James has one little daughter, Martha.

Jewel (Easterling) Tippins teaches private music pupils in Claxton. She has one little girl, Patty.

Virginia Hall spent the summer at Camp Greystone in North Carolina.

Emily (Landrum) Edwards is teaching in the C.C.C. Camp near Rydal, Ga., and says that although she has taught many years she finds this to be the most interesting school work she has done. Her little daughter, Emily Anne, three years old, and her husband, a disabled World War Veteran, drive with her to camp on school days. Anne, says Emily, is fond of books and is planning to be a real "Wesleyanne" some day.

Kathleen (McCowan) Lewis lives in Greenboro, and supplies in the public school. Her husband was re-elected without opposition in the spring primary as Ordinary of Greene County. Celeste (Copelan) Williams, A.B. '25, and her husband live next door, both families having built new homes about three years ago. Kathleen has one child, Edward Lloyd, Jr., age 3, and his playmate is Celeste's little boy.

Margaret (Madden) Rape is a welcome addition to the younger set in Covington, where her husband is in the Frigidaire business.

Carolyn (Manget) Kirby's son, Wilkins, Jr., is in the sixth grade in Newnan. Her baby girl is most attractive. Carolyn was president of the Missionary Society in the Methodist Church, and is now a circle leader.

Reba (Meek) Burnett's husband is postmaster in Rockmart, Ga. They have two children, Gladstone, Jr., age 14, and Gloria, age 10. They were selected by the Atlanta Journal as "Georgia's Typical Family" and given a trip to the New York World's Fair.

Marguerite (Miller) Herndon's husband is Superintendent of the Cairo public schools. They have a three-year-old son, John, Jr.

Elizabeth (Murray) Redwine has two attractive children, Jennie Quinn and Frank, Jr. She lives in Newnan, Ga.

Marian Page has been at home in Byromville since 1935 when her mother died, and is teaching Latin and history in the high school. She was a diligent worker in the "Community House Campaign" in Byromville. It is finished now and is called the "Maggie L. Page Memorial" in honor of Marian's mother and Mildred Shirah's aunt.

Ruth (Ricketson) Whipple and her husband, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Jesup, have three sons: Robert Lee, Jr. ("Bob"), 10; James Virgil, 5; and Daniel Stephen, 2. They have lived in Jesup for eight years, and Ruth is correspondent for the Savannah Morning News and for the Macon Telegraph. She says she often recalls the good old classes under Miss Garner—and getting out the Jester.

Grace (Sears) Parrott recently returned from a trip to Cuba with her husband. Their young son is about two years old.

Grace Speer teaches biology in the Gainesville, Ga., High School.

Mildred (Strozier) Martin's husband is employed by the Georgia Power Company in Milledgeville. They have two children, Clementine ("Teeny"), nine, and Stanley, Jr., four.

Virginia (Stubbs) Leps' husband is superintendent of schools in Winter Haven, Fla., and they have two attractive children, Virginia, 8, and Josephine, 2, who will be Wesleyan girls some day.

Hazel (Turner) Kerns teaches piano at Asbury College in Wilmore, Kentucky.

Since the death of her father, Dale (Williams) Taylor, Conservatory, and her husband have been living in Atlanta with Dale's mother who is a semi-invalid. Dale and her husband are active workers in Wesley Memorial Church, Clark being a Steward.

1928

Class Secretary: Mrs. E. W. Strozier, Jr., (Mary Nell Wiley), Oxford, Ga.

Frances Adair is quite busy as Rich's representative in Cartersville, Ga.

Marian (Arnall) Roberts of LaGrange has just been chosen president of the Woman's Missionary Union in LaGrange, composed of women of all uptown churches in the city. She has two sons, Arnall, 7 and Vann, a year and a half.

Virginia (Banks) St. John is president of the Missionary Society, superintendent of the Intermediate Department of the Sunday School, an active member of the Reading Circle and member of the choir of the Methodist Church in Newnan.

Lula (Boswell) Hailey's husband is with the Gilbert Hotels, and is in charge of one of these hotels in West Palm Beach at present. They have three children, two girls and one boy.

Pauline (Brooks) Guerry of Montezuma is a capable business woman. She has a daughter, Gloria, nine years old.

Sara Lee (Edwards) Whatley has two children, Sam, Jr., ten; and Sara Lavinia, nine. Her husband is head of the English department at G. M. C. in Milledgeville, and chairman of the Publicity committee. Sara Lee is interested in her work at the Presbyterian church, and the Music Club. She is at present in charge of the Ready-to-Wear Department in a Milledgeville store.

Cleo (Coley) Love is teaching public school music at Chattanooga Valley School and directs the school band. She "commutes" from LaFayette every day, taking her daughter Leila (named for Leila Jones Horton, A. B. '32) with her. She is organist and choir director at the U. S. Army Post Fort Oglethorpe, and has a fine choir and an electric organ.

Sara (Fincher) Davis is leader of a circle in the Woman's Missionary Society in Doerun, where her husband is a hardware dealer. They have two children, Floyd Edwin, Jr., age 6, and Joseph Alfred, age 2.

Mary Louise (Foster) Swearingen has a new daughter, Anne, born September 3. Anne has blue eyes like her four-year-old brother, Lin. Mary Louise finds time to do some club work, and retains her office as secretary of the A.A.U.W. Her husband teaches at G.S.C.W. in Milledgeville.

LeVert (Franks) Lang now lives in Milen, where her husband is with the Builders' Supply Company. She has two children, Martha, 10, and Powell, Jr., 8.

Frances (Grice) Adams of Claxton has two little daughters.

Ruby (Hendrix) Harris and her husband live in Winder, where Ruby is active in civic and social affairs.

Frances (Huckabee) Downs lives in Ashburn, where she takes an active part in civic and social affairs.

Elizabeth (Lipham) Jones of Dalton has two children, Anne and Worthy.

Olivia (McCarty) Gaines has two fine little boys.

Annie Mays taught library science in summer school at Arizona State College, Tempe, Arizona, and afterward visited Los Angeles and San Francisco, California. She is this year librarian at Mercer University in Macon, succeeding Mr. Kenneth Cameron in this position.

Leita Moore is now Mrs. John W. Morgan, and lives at 730 East 36th St., Savannah, Ga.

Miami (Paulk) Nelson lives in Adel, and has three children, Homer Sheridan, seven, Edna Sue, six, and John, four.

Martha Watts is welfare director for Washington County, Georgia, a job which she has handled capably for nearly three years.

Helen (White) Thornton, the efficient president of the Wesleyan Club in Albany, sent in news notes about members of her club for the magazine. Helen herself has been busy this fall doing some supply teaching in the Albany schools, but she always finds time for Wesleyan.

1929

Class Secretary: Mrs. B. B. Blalock (Elizabeth Gill), Moultrie, Ga.

Anne E. (Benton) Jordan is the same vivid, enthusiastic person she was at Wesleyan. She, Lollie Belle (Ernest) Jordan, of the class of 1915, and Martha (Gunn) Jordan, of the class of 1933, married three brothers of Monticello, who have recently started a new business, manufacturing bobbins, spools, etc. Anne E. is president of the P.-T.A., and active in church work. Her children are: Bill, 11; Carl, 6; and Joanne, not quite a year old.

Essie Mae Cobb is director of the Laurens County District of Public Welfare in Dublin. She toured Florida this summer on her vacation. She is an enthusiastic member of the Wesleyan Club of Dublin.

Margaret (Cone) Tolbert's husband is head of the vocational agriculture department in the high school in Lavonia. Margaret is active in religious and civic affairs, and is president of the P.-T.A. She has one son, Ralph, six years old.

Helen (DeLamar) Peters and her family live in Macon. She has two children, John, Jr., seven, and Emily, five.

Helen (Granade) Long, who studied at Wesleyan Conservatory in 1929, is organist and choir director of the First Methodist Church in Milledgeville. She has recently organized a vested Junior Choir. She is vice-president of the Milledgeville Music Club. Her little daughter, Helen Evers, seven years old, will take violin lessons this winter.

Lucile Green is active in Junior Assembly in Athens, Ga.

Maggie Jenkins teaches music at G. S. C. W. in Milledgeville. She spent this summer studying at Columbia University.

Elva (Kensinger) McWilliams, her husband, and little four-year-old son, have moved from Tampa, Fla., to Dallas, Texas, where Mr. McWilliams' business took him.

Elva was formerly president of the Wesleyan Club of Tampa, and she left the club busy with plans for selling vanilla, having a spaghetti supper, etc., to make money for Wesleyan. Maidee (Smith) Ray, of the class of 1933, is the new president; Margaret (Everett) Dugger, '21, vice-president, Marie (Burke) Moore, Cons. '33, treasurer. Louise (Wetherell) Hansen, of the class of 1913, is an active worker in the club.

Sarah (McRee) Joiner of Camilla has two children, George and Jeannette.

Charlye (Peterson) Gilmour is living now in New York, where she is budget advisor in the ready-to-wear department of Wannamaker's. She spent a few weeks with her family in Ailey this summer, coming and returning by boat.

Catherine Pittard, who is teaching music at G. S. C. W. in Milledgeville gave a musical appreciation hour in Russell auditorium on October 23.

Mary (Powell) Crittenden's husband is County Agent in Darien. They have two children, LeRoy, Jr., age 8 and Mary Floyd, who arrived this summer.

Hortense Royal is now Mrs. John D. Raines and lives in Ashburn, Ga., where she is active in church and social affairs. She and her husband have built an attractive home.

Charlotte (Shields) Langford is president of the Grammar School P.-T.A. in LaFayette, and is a splendid one. She is an active member of the Junior Woman's Club, and is an enthusiastic golfer. Her young son, Frank, is in the second grade.

Betsy (Smith) Buchanan lives in Americus where her husband is in the hardware business. She is president of the Woman's Missionary Society, and her husband is past president of the Kiwanis Club.

Allie (Stephens) Reynolds has a second son, born January 23, the first day of the worst blizzard the South has had! His name is Edward Howell Reynolds for his uncle who was named for his grandfather, Dr. Edward Howell Myers, president of Wesleyan.

Nancy Stewart was named head of the department of modern languages at Mercer University this year, succeeding Dr. J. A. Parsell, resigned.

1930

Class Secretary: Mrs. F. Wesley Green (Charlye Mathews), 1075 Columbia Ave.,

N. E., Atlanta, Ga.

Carolyn (Anderson) Pierson and her husband are moving soon from Marietta to Washington, D. C. They have an adorable little son, not quite two years old.

Mary (Banks) Morcock is the very efficient president of the Wesleyan Alumnae Club of Oxford-Covington. She writes that life is as full as ever with a two-and-a-half-year-old, "Woodie" to make it so. She and her husband are building a new home in Covington.

Martha (Bedgood) Wilson's husband is a representative of Armour and Company with headquarters in Dublin. In addition to painting a good deal this summer, Martha had three lovely trips, one to Ft. McClellan in Anniston, Ala., another to Sea Island Beach, and a third to Panama City Beach.

Lydia (Coney) Jay's husband is Mayor of Fitzgerald, and they are outstanding in civic, social, and religious life of the city. Their only son is eight years old.

Margaret (Garnett) Harris and her husband have bought a home in Boynton, Florida, where he is principal of the public school. They have two fine red-headed boys, Kendall, age one year and ten months, and Paul, three months.

Grace (Hendricks) Peterson lives in Ailey, where she is active in civic organizations. She has a charming little daughter, Nancy, four years old.

Minnie Lee (Herrington) Varner has recently moved into her lovely new home near Darien, Ga. Her husband is a prominent lawyer and business man in Darien.

Walton (Hinson) Courson lives in Baxley, Ga. She has one little boy, called "Sonny".

Monica (Holt) Oliver is teaching both expression and public school music in Hazlehurst, Ga. She is the first public school music teacher the school has ever had. She has two sons, Jimmy and Richard, six and four years old. Jimmy started to school this year. Monica also assists with the music at the Methodist Church, and has been pianist at Sunday School and Church.

Josephine (Humphries) Jones' husband is manager of the Sinclair Refining Company in Dublin. Josephine is interested in church work. They have twin daughters, Joanne and Annette, six years old.

Julia (Lamar) Parish and her oldest daughter, Anne, of Long Beach, Calif., visited Katherine (Kilpatrick) Lamar and her husband in the spring. Her sister, Lena (Lamar) Ozon of Atlanta came down for a visit at the same time also.

Ruth (McMath) McKenzie takes an active part in the Music Lovers' Club of Montezuma. She has a small daughter three years old.

Augusta Mallory is the competent principal of one of the grammar schools in Fitzgerald.

Sympathy is extended to Martha (Paulk) Lowe in the death of her husband, H. E. Lowe, Jr., prominent and popular young business man of Macon. Martha has one little daughter, Betty.

Mildred (Seawright) Day has a lovely home in Athens, Ga. Her husband travels for a drug firm, and they have a little son about five years old.

Evelyn (Smith) Watson's husband is pastor of the Baptist Church in Blackshear. They have a daughter eight years old, a real brunette, and a blond boy of five: Martha and David.

Ruth (Smith) Anderson and her husband have moved to Jefferson, Ga., where he is County Agent.

Winnefred (Stiles) Bell is president of the Clara Schuman Music Club of Mobile, Ala., the oldest music club in the state, and is also president of the Mobile County Medical Auxiliary for next year.

Katherine Vinson received her Master's degree in physical education from Columbia University in 1939. She now teaches this subject in Albany, Ga.

Estelle Walker is a teacher of music in the Montezuma high school, and is organist for the Methodist Church.

1931

Class Secretary: Mrs. F. C. Nixon (Hazel Macon), Valdosta, Ga.

Elizabeth (Anderson) Belcher, her husband, and little son Sam have moved into their new home at 209 Rogers Ave. in Macon.

Sara Vickers (Bailey) Haygood has a fine eight-months-old son. She was secretary to the superintendent of schools in Marietta, but now devotes all her time to house-keeping and nursing. Her husband is a dentist.

Mildred (Barber) Clements is the interested and energetic president of the Arlington,

Ga. P.-T.A. and is active in all phases of community work. In her own original way she has remodeled a hundred-year-old house, originally built of logs, and made a lovely home and grounds that anyone would envy. She has two daughters, Jeanne, who entered the first grade this fall, and Suzanne, not quite two years old.

Carolyn (Bell) Watkins, Conservatory, has two "real boys", Charles Watkins, Jr., four, and Bill, not quite two. Carolyn and her family live in Dublin.

Elma Black is bookkeeper for her father's drug store, Black's Pharmacy, in Dublin. This past summer she enjoyed a trip to Ohio, Kentucky, and Indiana.

Margaret Cannon teaches English in Fitzgerald High School. She had a lovely trip to New York last summer, and also attended summer school at the University of Georgia.

Claire (Carter) Malone lives at 1150 Sunset Rd., Coconut Grove, Florida. Her son, Randy, Jr., is 9 and daughter, Claire, is 2.

Stella (Cater) Baxley is a new member of the Macon Junior League. She and her husband, Dr. Baxley, have returned to Macon after living in Porterdale. They have three children, Margaret, Stella and Billy.

Carolyn (Channell) Webb lives in Plains, Ga. She has a baby son.

Elizabeth (Clark) Kennedy's husband is in the automobile business in Cairo, Ga., and Elizabeth sings in the Methodist choir and is active in social and club work in the city. They have two charming little girls, one in the fourth and one in the second grade.

Laura (Clark) Leonard has two children, Laura and Charles. Hazel (Macon) Nixon, of the class of '31, writes that she saw them recently in Valdosta, out walking on the nurse's afternoon off. Laura was pushing the baby carriage and had a chow on a leash. Little Laura was pushing her doll carriage, and it took them forty minutes to go two blocks!

Arlene Cobb is working in the District Office of the Motor Oil Company in Atlanta.

Gladys (Coker) DeVoe is active in woman's club work in Montezuma, and in the church. She is a talented musician.

Carabel Crosby teaches in the Adel, Georgia grammar school.

Linda Ewing teaches music in the high school in Vidalia, Ga.

Katherine (Fleming) Dunn has moved into a new brick home in Camilla. She has a three-year-old son.

Louise (Hinson) Covington lives in Hazlehurst. She has three sons, Lewis, ten; John, eight; and James, a year old October 26. Louise's brother, Willie, was representative from Jeff Davis County in the Georgia Legislature last year.

Evelyn (Latimer) Vaughn lives on Fairview Street in Marietta. She has a little boy, "Sonny", in the second grade in school.

Bessie (Lester) Hart has a second daughter, Elsie, born in October.

Gladys (Hodges) Peters and her husband and little son, Thomas III, live in Dublin, where her husband farms.

Mabel (McLendon) Coney lives in Hawkinsville, and is active in church, social, and club activities.

Sympathy is extended to Helen (Manry) Lowe in the death of her father in May. Helen lives in Edison, where her husband is a banker. She is principally interested in religious and P.-T.A. work. She has two children, Fred, adopted four years ago, and now twelve years old, and Cornelia, not quite two years old.

Onita (Mathews) Drenon is pianist of the First Baptist Church in Jesup. She has one adorable daughter, Jon Anne, aged three. Onita and her family have just moved into a new brick home.

Martha (Mobley) Hancock's husband is a prominent lawyer in Jefferson, and is proprietor of the Roosevelt Treatre in that city. They have a fine little son.

Caroline (Parsons) Lester's daughter, Caroline, is in the second grade in Montezuma.

Edith (Poole) Ventulett lives in Albany. She has two children, a five-year-old son, and a six-months-old daughter. Her sister, Elizabeth, only 27 years old, died recently after a long illness.

Julia (Potts) Short and her husband make their home with Julia's mother in Newnan, Ga.

Dorothy (Smith) Hopkins has a second son, Carter Wayne, born April 7 and named for Dorothy's brother, Dr. Carter Smith of Atlanta. The baby's grandmother is Nannette (Carter) Smith of the class of 1895. Dorothy's older son, Lindsay, III, is four years old. Dorothy recently won a poetry prize of the Atlanta Writers' Club for a sonnet.

Frances (Warren) Heath of Hazlehurst has an adorable little daughter, Charlotte, who celebrated her first birthday on September 6 with a party. Frances' husband is a lawyer, and is city attorney for the second year. He is a member of the Board of Stewards of the Methodist Church, and has taught the men's Bible class for many years. Frances is active in church work, and is on the program committee of her missionary circle. She recently assisted the pastor in making arrangements for the Sunday School Training Course. Her mother spent part of the winter and spring with her, and taught the mission study course. Mrs. Warren is a sister of Dr. G. E. Rosser of the Wesleyan faculty.

Sara (Erwin) Black and her husband are located in Plant City, Fla. where he is leading dentist.

1932

Class Secretary: Mrs. C. E. Watts, Jr., (Blanche Wannamaker), Bennettsville, S. C.

Florence (Averill) Walker is past president of the Music Lovers' Club of Montezuma, and is active in church work.

Jettie (Beasley) Kennedy, Conservatory, is the official "first lady" of Glennville, Ga., her husband being mayor of the city. She is interested in church and civic activities.

Yona (Bell) Lott is living in Americus, where her husband is in the tire and auto accessories business. They have a son, Sam, Jr., five years old.

Lula (Calhoun) Vinson's husband farms near Byron, Ga. She has two children, W. E. Vinson, III, five; and Kitty, three.

Margaret Carter is working at Davison-Paxon's in Atlanta, and her address is Box 57, College Park, Ga.

Lois (Daniel) Brandon's husband is superintendent of the Cartersville city schools. Lois is kept busy looking after her two daughters, Catherine, 5, and Betty, 2.

Olivia (Dubberly) Hughes, Conservatory, takes an active part in church and civic work in Glennville, Ga. Her time is taken up largely also with her son, Jae III, who was two years old last May.

Evelyn (Edwards) Owen's husband is in the laundry and dry cleaning business in Milledgeville. They have two children, T. E., Jr., nine, and Ann, three. Evelyn assists her husband in his business, and is active in church work.

Dorothy (Fountain) Taylor has been living in Doerun for four years. Her husband is in the turpentine business.

Sarah Hammock teaches in the Macon Public schools. She passed through Murfreesboro, Tenn., this summer and stopped to speak to Miss Virginia Wendell, formerly counsellor of women at Wesleyan, who was very much interested in hearing news of the college.

Margaret (Hester) Campbell's husband was recently elected State Senator from the 34th District. She has a family of three little boys, Robert, Walker and Kent. Walker starts to school this year.

Myrtle (Johnston) Dawson's husband has a position with the Candlewick Yarn Manufacturing Co. in Dalton.

Leila (Jones) Horton has a son, Harry Nelson Horton, born in September.

Louise (Pittman) Peabody has a second son, Henry Wooten Peabody, born in March.

Eugenia Rawls, after a very successful summer tour in "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray" began a long tour which opened in Princeton, N. J. in September, in the dramatic hit play, "The Little Foxes" starring Talulah Bankhead. Eugenia plays the part of the daughter, Alexandria Giddens. Reaching Hollywood for the Christmas holidays and returning by way of Atlanta, the company will give a performance in Atlanta in February.

Ruth (Ray) Gleaton moved into her new home in Arlington in the spring, and most of her time is taken up with her two children, Mary Ruth, almost three, and Billy, nine months old.

Josephine (Simerville) Fulmer, Conservatory, was killed in an automobile accident near Woodbury, Ga., December 22, 1939.

Sympathy is extended to Dorothy Simmons in the death of her father after a long illness. Dotty herself was ill during part of the time her father was in the hospital, but has now recovered.

Gertrude (Slocumb) Cherry, Conservatory, lives in Douglas, Ga. She has one little daughter.

Martha Augusta (Smith) Barker has a position with the Universal Credit Company, Atlanta, Ga. Martha's two attractive children, Pierce and Harriett, are six and four years old respectively.

Florrie (Warren) Furlow is living in Long Island, New York, where her husband is a pilot for the Southeastern Airlines, flying from Atlanta to New York. They have two children.

Sympathy is extended to Eleanor (Whitehead) Simms in the death of her father last November. Eleanor had come home on account of her father's illness and was with him the last few weeks of his life.

1933

Class Secretary: Mrs. Hubert Searcy (Christine Quillian), Huntington College, Montgomery, Ala.

Miriam Adams studied music in New York in the summer of 1939. For the past two years she has been head of the music department in Manchester.

Margaret (Budd) Stephenson's husband is connected with the Post Office in Covington. She has two lovely children, Margaret, eight years old, and a baby girl of a few months.

Mozelle (Burke) Hodgson's husband is connected with the Hodgson Oil Refining Co. in Athens. They have two children.

Temperance (Burson) Lear, Conservatory, is a splendid music teacher in the Cairo, Ga. public schools. She has a large class.

Mildred (Castleberry) Giddens sent in news notes about alumnae living in Adel, where she and her husband are building a new home in the country. She is interested in the recently organized Woman's Club of Adel.

Lillian (Chandler) Peterson is another Wesleyanne who lives now in Ailey and is a leader in the civic and social life of the town.

Martha (Gunn) Jordan of Monticello has two children, Barbara, 7½, and Sid, 2.

Emmie Louise (Harvey) Powell of Monticello has one son, nearly two years old.

Nannie Claire Hicks is now Mrs. B. H. Lord, Jr., and lives in Washington, D. C.

Aldora (Hudson) Turner's husband is associated with the Russell-Turner Motor Company in McDonough, Ga. She has two sons, Bobby, three, and Beau, one.

Carolyn (Lawton) Harrell, Glover F. Harrell, received his degree in business administration at Baylor University in Waco, Texas, with honors.

Helen (McGrew) Fortney, her husband and three-year-old daughter, Margaret, spent the day at Indian Springs in September with Suelle (McKellar) Swartz and her husband who were spending their vacation there. Suelle says that little Margaret is a most attractive child, with her mother's large blue eyes and just enough red in her blond hair to make it look like gold. Suelle's lively young son, Billy, visited his grandparents, Prof. I. E. McKellar of Macon and Anna Bell (McCrory) McKellar, 1910, while his parents were at Indian Springs.

Modena (McPherson) Rudisill has a daughter, Modena, born May 2. Modena and her husband, Rev. E. D. Rudisill, pastor of the Patillo Memorial Church in Decatur, have two fine young sons. Modena says she is very glad this one is a girl so she can come to Wesleyan.

Blossom (Malone) Henderson of Monticello has two children, Betty Joyce, seven, and Mary Ann, three. She is very active in church, P.-T. A., and all welfare projects in her home town. Her husband is in the fruit freezing business, and has one of the first frozen food locker systems in the state. Blossom keeps books at the plant.

Jane (Northcutt) Brown has an adorable little girl, Beverly, five years old. Jane's husband is the Buick dealer for Marietta.

Johnnie Peterson studied at Mercer University this summer, and teaches Latin and French in the high school in Hawkinsville.

Mary (Rudisill) Trippe of Milledgeville has a son, born in February.

Julia Smith studied law in her father's office after leaving Wesleyan, passed the State Bar Examination in 1936, was in the H. O. L. C. Atlanta office in 1937-'38, and was appointed court stenographer for Oconee Circuit in 1940.

Elizabeth (Smyly) Smith, Conservatory, lives in Eastman. She has one child, a son, Hal M., Jr., 3½ years old.

Margaret (Sparks) Singletary has an adorable little boy, R. C. Singletary, III. Margaret and her family live in Blakely, where she is active in religious and social affairs.

Katherine (Snooks) Walker has a little daughter, Laura Katherine, born February 14. She is the first "Walker girl" in the family for 74 years, and naturally gets plenty of attention.

Carolyn (Vance) Riley moved from Sumter to Spartanburg, S. C. in July, and writes that she finds many Wesleyan friends in her new home, among them Cornelia (Huffine) Haddle, whose husband is assistant superintendent of a mill near Spartanburg, Louise (Page) Ward and Hallie Page. Carolyn's little daughter, Carolyn Vance Riley, II, was a year old on October 15. She has never been sick a day in her life. She has blond hair and blue eyes, and is now walking and talking, and her mother plans to send her to Wesleyan some day.

Lucille (Wallace) Nuckolls of Gainesville, Ga., has a fine son, John Alexander, born March 19, 1940.

Nancy (Whitaker) Young is a new member of the Macon Junior League. She has one son, Harold, four years old.

Joan Stanley is living at home in Mt. Dora, Fla. and teaching in the schools there and missing her Wesleyan friends.

1934

Class Secretary: Mrs. Ward Pafford (Sarah Jones), Valdosta, Ga.

Martha Kate (Anderson) Lamb is the wife of a highway engineer, and they have made their home in Sandersville for three years. Her two daughters are Anne, three, and Patricia, one.

Elizabeth (Ashford) Romberg's husband is president of the Georgia Ice Association. They live in Gainesville, Ga., and have three children: George, 5½; Caroline, 4; and Carl, 2.

Anita Beall is one of the group of Wesleyan girls teaching in Hazlehurst this year. She is teaching piano.

Ann (Bone) Evans and her husband moved into a new home in Milledgeville about a year ago. Ann is an enthusiastic housekeeper, and spent all summer canning, preserving, and making her home attractive. She has been chairman of the Junior D.A.R., and is actively interested in the Community Concert Association and the Red Cross.

Mary Jean Chapman is associate editor of The Sandersville Progress which her father owns and edits. Her grandfather, C. B. Chapman, beloved figure in Georgia journalism, died in September at the age of 81, with his years in newspaper work, added to those of his son, making a total of over 100 years of service. Mary Jean teaches eleven-year-old girls in Sunday School, and does literary and service club work. Her sister, Louise, is now president of Student Government at Wesleyan Conservatory.

Miriam (Cook) Wall lends her musical talent to many Sandersville affairs, and is active in church work. After her marriage in 1934, she continued taking piano lessons from Professor Maerz for some time. Last year she and Sarah (Rogers) Roughton, '23, gave a two-piano recital under the auspices of the Sandersville Music Club. She has a home on St. Simon's Island, and golf is one of her many interests. Her husband is mayor of Sandersville, and reports are that he is a grand one!

Nelle (Edwards) Smith is working in the Office at Coleman's Sanitorium in Eastman, Ga., where she and Rosser live. Her little son is not quite two years old.

Martha (Emory) Johnson works in the office of a department store in Gainesville, Ga. She has a lovely daughter, Patsy.

Vivian Eslinger is teaching mathematics in Pleasant Grove Consolidated High School, near Dalton, Ga.

A lovely picture of Martha Ellen (Gaines) Cash and her young daughter, Lauranne, appeared in the Roanoke, Virginia World-News when Martha Ellen and her family moved to Roanoke from Washington, D. C.

Mary Porter (Jackson) Gentry lives in Eastman. She has two little sons, Oscar Gentry III, six; and Charles Jackson, four.

Lillian (Jones) Jefferson and her family have moved to Cairo, Ga., where her husband is connected with the Roddenberry syrup, pickle, and peanut industries. Lillian takes an active part in church and club work in Cairo, and still serves as organist in the Episcopal Church in Thomasville, which is not many miles away. She has two children, Bobby, aged two, and Anne Stacy, aged one.

Virginia (Milam) Jordan is helping her husband as he gets a new drug store started in LaGrange, Ga. They are building a new home just across the street from Anna (Simon) Daniel, of the class of '36.

Margaret (Miller) Glover has a pretty little bungalow in Newnan, and a lovely garden.

Jacquelyn (Nicholson) Pentecost moved from Atlanta to Charlotte, N. C. in March, and wrote to ask for the names of Wesleyan girls living in Charlotte, saying, "I'm sure I would feel more at home if I could see someone from Wesleyan."

Ruth (Pierce) Haisten lives in Newnan, and has an attractive little son.

Evelyn Sewell writes from Oxford, Ga.: "This summer I went as counselor on one of the Youth Crusade Caravans. It was a great experience. I met charming Wesleyan Alumnae. I have a position this winter in West Palm Beach, Florida with Rev. Claude Haynes as Director of Young People's Work in the First Methodist Church there. The main event of the year for me is that I became an aunt twice—all at the same time. Mary Joan and John Carter Sewell were born April 10 in New York City to Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Sewell."

(Since this letter Evelyn has accepted a position as educational secretary of the First Methodist Church in West Palm Beach, Fla.)

Evelyn (Thaxton) Thrasher went to live in Ashburn as a bride, and has added much to the social and church life of the city. Her husband, a prominent young business man, was former mayor of Ashburn. They have a lovely baby girl.

Charlotte (Tyus) Dekle has a second son, William Ober Dekle, born in June. Her older son is called "Three" because he is the third "Clyde Dekle" in the family.

Maryella (Veatch) Perry is keeping house in her lovely new home five miles south of LaFayette, Ga.

1935

Class Secretary: Mrs. R. W. Thrower (Margaret Munroe), S. Collier Rd., Apartment 8, Atlanta, Ga.

Eleanor (Anthony) Solomon and her husband have built a new home in Rivoli, near Wesleyan.

Cleo (Arnold) Evans is organist at the Presbyterian Church in Newnan, and is leader of the Business and Professional Women's Circle. She is a great granddaughter of Catherine (Brewer) Benson, first graduate of Wesleyan, and a grandniece of Gertrude (Benson) Arnall, A.B. '81.

Elizabeth (Baggarly) Phillips is a successful teacher in a consolidated school near LaFayette. It is a fifteen-teacher school, and the superintendent is the husband of Cleo (Coley) Love, Cons. 1928.

Emmie (Bragg) Middlebrooks is active in Junior Assembly work in Athens. She has one little girl, age 3.

Margaret Carpenter has just gone into business for herself, selling office supplies in Marietta. She worked for several years on one of the Marietta newspapers.

Annie Frances Clower teaches English and science in the high school in Fitzgerald. She went to New York to the World's Fair last year.

Louise Cook has spent several summers studying at Duke University on the Master's degree in history. She is teaching this year in Hazlehurst, Ga.

Clara Dukes, Conservatory, is now teaching in the grammar school in her home town, Pembroke, Ga.

Elizabeth Jordan is doing stenographic work at the Chevrolet Company in McRae.

Katherine (Jordan) Stewart's husband is assistant physician at the Georgia State Hospital in Milledgeville.

Vondelle (Kicklighter) Miles and her husband enjoyed a trip to the New York World's Fair and other points of interest this summer. They live in Metter, Ga.

Martha (McCord) Slocumb has a little daughter, Martha Sandra, born in April.

Anne (Malone) Ballard has recently moved from Monticello to Rome, where her husband is connected with Procter and Gamble Company. They have three children: Bill, 4; Nancy, 2; and Bob, who will be a year old on Christmas Eve.

Louise Manget is teaching music at Knox School in Cooperstown, N. Y.

Louise (Page) Ward has a son, born August 28. She and her husband have just built a new home in Spartanburg, S. C.

Josephine (Redwine) Carmichael lives in McDonough, where her husband is in business with his father, manufacturing furniture. They have two children, Betty, 5, and Cary, 1½.

Helen Snooks is now Mrs. James P. Collins of Swainsboro, Ga.

Hazel Tabor is teaching in Warrenton, Ga. this year.

Dot (Tinsley) Dailey is working hard at Mayari, Oriente, Cuba. The Mission Board had not planned to send missionaries to this station on account of the health conditions, but Maurice and Dot had heard of the utter lack of church facilities there and insisted on being sent.

Dorothy (Tinsley) Dailey has twin sons, born November 12, Frederick Maurice and Thomas Carroll Dailey.

1936

Class Secretary: Mrs. J. Clay Murphy, Jr., (Emily Boswell), 1029 Everett Ave., Louisville, Ky.

Virginia Bowers and Bernardine Smith are studying at the Tulane School of Social Work in New Orleans. Virginia was maid of honor in the wedding of her sister, Elizabeth, of the class of 1938, in August.

Frances (Cain) McNatt is living in Vidalia at present. She has a charming little daughter, Sue, about two years old.

Loula (Callaway) Albright's husband is superintendent of one of the cotton mills in La-Grange. They have a new baby, Benjamin Phillip, Jr., three months old.

Ouida (Carter) Castleberry, Conservatory, lives in Valdosta, where she is active in the Child Welfare Clinic, an organization made up of young married women of that city.

Alice Chastain has a stenographic position in the South Georgia Ice Company in Montezuma.

Milton (Dickens) Drew has a secretarial position in Marianna, Fla. She has a little son five years old.

Marjorie Hillman is still teaching in the high school in Jesup, and takes an active part in orchestra, band and glee club work.

Roberta (Ingle) Jolly lives in Columbus. She has one little daughter, Charlotte Rollins Jolly.

Mary Evelyn (Jones) Hagood's husband is a young surgeon in Marietta, and they have a little son, Richard, a year and a half old. They have recently moved into a new home.

Margaret (Long) Morrison teaches fifth grade in the Glenwood public school. She is also keeping house, and enjoys helping in various community activities.

Nida (McGehee) Ferrell, her husband and two adorable children, Bobby, three, and Nina, four months, have recently moved into a new home in Dublin. Nida's husband is one of the leading young doctors in Dublin.

Mary Ann (Peacock) Powell and her husband, Oscar Powell, married in June, are living in Arlington, where they have furnished the garage apartment belonging to Ruth (Ray) Gleaton and her husband. Ruth says Mary Ann is an excellent housekeeper and cook, as she has had opportunity to know!

Alice (Ray) Stebbins sent in news notes about alumnae living in Darien. Of herself she says, "I'm having lots of fun living down on the Georgia coast, where Freddy is in the drug business. I am looking forward to visiting the college very soon."

Mary (Rumph) McGehee and her husband are happy over their young son, Samuel John McGehee, Jr., who arrived on September 16.

Anna (Simon) Daniel and her husband are building a new home on Vernon Road in La-Grange. They have a new daughter, Susanne.

Mildred Shirah has taught since her graduation, and in September began her second year in the Oglethorpe High School. In the summer of 1937 she and her brother made an extensive tour of the western states and Mexico. In 1939 she visited the World's Fair and other points of interest in the northern states. As soon as school was out this year she and Kathleen Grady (A. B. '39) who also teaches in Oglethorpe went with three other girls to Miami and from there took a boat to Cuba. Mildred visited her former roommate, Mary Ethel (McLean) Napier in Atlanta last year, and says Mary Ethel has an adorable little boy, now two years old.

Frances (Ware) Smith teaches in Pitts, Ga., and lives in Abbeville, where her husband is vocational agriculture teacher.

Martha Wiseman taught speech in Adel for a year, but has had to give up her work to be with her invalid mother.

1937

Class Secretary: Mrs. W. L. M. Knox (Margaret Evans), Thomson, Ga.

Katherine (Alfriend) McNair is a new member of the Macon Junior League.

Mildred Brannen received her A. B. degree in library science from the University of North Carolina in June. She made a tour of libraries one week during March, seeing libraries in Richmond, Washington, Baltimore and New York. She also attended the World's Fair again.

Carolyn Cogburn, Conservatory, has been doing secretarial work in Sanford, Fla., her home town, for the past year.

Geraldine (Doss) Dunson and her husband are in Philadelphia where he is taking a special course in chemical engineering.

Rebecca Hall is teaching in Soperton this year. She attended the University of Tennessee summer school this year.

Carolyn Jordan of Glenwood married Bill Davis in the spring of 1939, and they are making their home now in Macon, Ga.

Marinelle (Montgomery) Barker has two children, Annamaye, four, and Maynard, Jr., two.

Margaret Snooks is principal of the vocational school in Waycross, Ga.

Nina (Tabor) Dorsey has a son, James Elliot, born August 20. Her husband, Jake Dorsey, is a mortician in Abbeville.

Frances Townsend is very happy in Germantown, Penn., with her sister, Virginia. She is studying voice from Mr. Leonard Treash, and is singing in the Presbyterian Church choir.

Katherine (Wink) Fincher lives in Calhoun where her husband is a druggist.

1938

Class Secretary: Margaret Turner, 1307 Morrison Avenue, Tampa, Florida.

Florence (Crisler) Lawrence has moved from Canton to Dalton, where her husband has a responsible position with the Cabin Crafts Co. Both Florence and her husband teach classes in Sunday School; she is assistant Scout Leader, her husband is Scout Master.

Jo Estes has almost completed a secretarial course at Draughton's Business College in Atlanta, and is teacher of comptometer and bookkeeping machines and secretary to the business manager of the school.

Louise Deaver Hamrick teaches in Conyers.

Elizabeth Harrell teaches in the Dalton public school system. She sent in a number of the news items in this issue of the magazine.

Helen Majors is working at E. R. Squibb and Sons in Atlanta. She and Jo Estes live together.

Eloise (Noble) Shropshire lives in Cartersville. She has a young son, George.

Mary Yancey Pittard is doing welfare work in Jasper County now.

Bobbie Ponder spent last year in Atlanta studying at business school, and is now working with the Williams Banking Company in Rhine.

Bernardine Smith went back to Tulane this fall for some more social service studies. When this year's work is over she will have the Master's Degree.

Dot Wink is working for her father who has been very ill in Dalton. She is also president of the Cotillion Club.

Alberta Wolf is back this year as instructor in modern languages at Mercer University. For the past two years she has lived in New York where she held a position with the French government.

Louise Miller is one of the most active and interested Alumnae in Leesburg, Fla., where she helped look after her father's business when he was sick last winter. She later visited her uncle in Macon, Robert Walker, M. B. graduate of Wesleyan.

1939

Class Secretary: Irene Moyer, Eufaula, Ala.

Anne Bethune is Service Representative of the Florida Light and Power Company in Miami. Anne is president of the Wesleyan Alumnae Club of Miami.

Carrol (Cabaniss) Gordy has a daughter several months old.

The story of how Frances Campbell sang over radio from a diving bell 55 feet below the surface of Silver Springs, Florida, was told in the Atlanta Journal magazine section September 15 by Louise Wadsworth.

Carleton Ellis is a very successful teacher of music. She is this year in Adel, Ga.

Mary Leila Gardner is music instructor in East Mississippi Junior College, Scooba, Miss.

Edna (Garrett) Cook has been assistant camp fire guardian in Arlington, Ga., but recently transferred her talents to housekeeping in Tifton, Ga., as the bride of Robert Cook, formerly of Columbus.

Winifred (Milam) Rich and her husband live in Milstead, where he has a responsible position with the Callaway Mills.

June Moody graduated from Peabody College in Nashville in June, and is now at home, 201 Morningside Drive, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Clara (Puckett) Winston's husband is connected with the U. S. Marine Hospital in Baltimore, Md. Clara is working on her Master's degree in music at Peabody Conservatory, taking piano from Sklarevski and also studying at Hopkins University. She teaches Music Therapy at the Union Hospital in Baltimore. Her address is 2103 N. Charles St.

Joyce Rakestraw is writing life insurance and making quite a reputation for herself, having led the state for her company in writing insurance for women in September.

Maryan Smith enjoyed a most interesting trip to Washington, D. C. this summer when she chaperoned the senior class of Sandersville High School. During the latter part of the summer she was bridesmaid in Marybeth (Jones) Leach's wedding, and besides seeing the knot securely tied, she caught the bride's bouquet. She is teaching speech in the public schools in Thomasville this year.

Frances Staley came back to Wesleyan this fall as assistant librarian succeeding Edith Hoeflich, resigned. She spent the past summer at Emory University studying library science.

Evelyn Timmerman spent six weeks last summer in New York, studying at Columbia University.

After her graduation from Wesleyan Yvonne Walker was head of the music department in the Laurens, S. C. public schools where she enjoyed her work, particularly her Girls' Glee Club. At the close of school she went to Julliard School in New York to continue her study of voice.

Bertie Williams is doing office work for her father in Ashburn, and takes an active part in social and church life of the city.

1940

Class Secretary: Lee Rees, 1237 Clifton Rd. N. E., Atlanta, Ga.

Margaret Adams spent the summer visiting Catherine Massie in Richmond, Va., relatives in New York and in Mount Vernon, Ga. She is taking two courses at Wesleyan this fall, Dr. MacDonald's new course in Southern History, and Professor Collins' course in Press Photography.

Beth Belser is working in the china department of Rich's in Atlanta, starting on July 15 with a special college group in which there were eleven colleges represented. The group had two weeks of intensive training, and then were placed in various departments, shifting from one to another in order to learn the store. Before July 15 she taught swimming for the Red Cross and spent a week in the mountains. She says, "Wesleyan was represented this summer on Rich's College Board by the Starr twins—the only school to have two representatives."

Helen Brennan visited in Albany, Atlanta, Augusta, and Milledgeville this summer, going to see Betsy Cook who was at G. S. C. W. summer school in Milledgeville. They enjoyed driving in Milledgeville with Miss Rozar and her charming mother. She is a cadet teacher in the Chatham Junior High School in Savannah.

Leola Burnett went to the beach and to the mountains for her vacation, and visited in Tampa, Fla. She is studying advertising and journalism at Columbia this fall.

Anne Comolli is at home this fall, working for her father in the granite industry. "Daddy has promised me that I shall be kept very busy all the time," she writes.

Jane Cook, Ruth Hall, Elizabeth Graham and Alfred Dorman had a delightful six weeks this summer touring the west in Alfred's new car. They stopped by Wesleyan one day on the way back.

Alice Domingos attended Leadership Training School at Junaluska, N. C., and went with her sister, Ann Maria, A. B. '39, and her grandmother, Minnie (Bass) Burden, A. B. '76, to visit a cousin, Lillie (Bass) Byers, '18, in Salem, Ohio. She has accepted an office as Student Counselor in the South Georgia Missionary Conference, and will be in contact with college life through this work.

Alfred Dorman and the three friends mentioned above had a delightful summer in the west this summer. They met up with Addie Rie McKellar, '29, and her parents in Oregon! Since coming home Alfred has been working as billing clerk in her father's firm. She is now doing speech work at Northwestern University, and her address is: Phi Omega Pi House, 1906 Sherman Ave., Evanston, Ill.

Sarah Earle spent a week at Edisto Beach and a week at Lake Junaluska this summer. She also had several of her college friends visit her in August. This year she is continuing her study of violin at the Woman's College of Furman University. She was ill much of the summer, but when not in bed enjoyed her orchestral records which give the accompaniment while she filled in the first violin part.

Geneva Giese spent two weeks in New York during the summer, and has since been attending the University of Georgia Evening School.

Elizabeth Glass became Mrs. Elmo L. Draughton Jr. of Macon on September 1.

Martha Rodgers of Macon and Martha Ramsey of Evans were two of her attendants. She had a lovely wedding at Mulberry Street Methodist Church. Her husband is connected with the First National Bank in Macon.

Elizabeth Graham is teaching in Hazlehurst this year.

Elizabeth Guy attended the first session of summer school at the University of Florida. She is teaching English and social studies in a new junior school at La Crosse, Florida this winter.

Ruth Hall is teaching history in Greensboro, Ga., this year, as well as coaching basketball and tennis. She was one of the quartet of Wesleyan girls who "did" the west by auto this summer, taking in 23 states, Juarez, Mexico, Banff, and Lake Louise, Canada. They traveled 11,000 miles. Ruth visited friends at Myrtle Beach, S. C. on her return.

Maria Harrell is teaching again this year in Hahira, Ga.

Martha Hausman was married to R. M. Zittrouer during the summer, and is making her home at 595 Moreland Ave, N. E., Atlanta. She is planning to come back to Wesleyan on Thanksgiving.

Margaret Hunter is back at Wesleyan Conservatory completing work for the B. M. degree. She studied part of the summer at the Conservatory, too.

June Jackson is studying at Draughon's Business College, and living with Gene Launius at 1279 W. Peachtree St., Atlanta. June says they often see Marjorie Potts, Beth Belser, Eleanor Muse, Ann McDonald, and Lee Rees.

Carol Jones went to New York this summer to the World's Fair, then visited in Washington and Maryland, driving down through the mountains of North Carolina and stopping there a few days. She and Eleanor McCrary and Kitty Hopper had a get-together in Washington. Carol began work on her Master's degree at the University of North Carolina this fall, and her address is New Woman's Building, III, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N. C.

Jessie Jones is working in the First National Bank in Atlanta, having accepted a position there two weeks after graduation.

Jewel Kennelly is at home in Jacksonville, Fla.

Frances Kline is teaching high school in the McRae-Helena High School, McRae, having started September 16. She says she is excited over being near Macon and coming up to Wesleyan often.

Elizabeth Lamkin attended summer school at the University of Georgia, taking library science. After summer school she visited Jessie Jones in Atlanta, and this fall she is teaching in the high school at Evans, Ga., ten miles from Augusta. Her classes are English and French, and she is librarian. She writes that she is enjoying her work.

Gene Launius says, "I am now one of the million employed, working in the Credit Department of the First National Bank of Atlanta and enjoying it very much. If you ever need a small loan just call on me!" She is living at 1279 W. Peachtree.

Lewis Lipps has a position in Augusta with the University of Georgia Medical School Laboratory. Her address is % Y. W. C. A., Augusta, Ga.

Ruth Little was this summer a member of one of the Youth Crusade Caravans of the Methodist Church. The group trained at Junaluska for a week and spent seven weeks in South Carolina in seven different communities. She is this fall teaching in Porterdale, Ga.

Eleanor McCary is taking a year's course in Medical Technology at Mary Immaculate Hospital in New York. She was a week late beginning her work because of an automobile accident in which she had four teeth knocked out, a deep gash in one leg, and bruises all over. However, she has now recovered, we are glad to hear.

Ann McDonold is studying at the School of Nursing, Emory University, this year.

Emily McGehee is teaching third grade in Dawson, Ga., this year. Her address is % Mrs. H. T. Chapman, Dawson.

Sue McLendon is doing substitute teaching in Jacksonville, and going to business school. She expects to be a full-time teacher by February.

Eleanora Marston studied this summer at pre-, regular, and post-sessions of summer school at Temple University, Philadelphia, Pen. She is now teaching mathematics at Cramer Junior High School in Camden, N. J.

Catherine Massie writes, "I stayed at home this summer except for a week at Lake Junaluska with Mary Nell Sampley, Alice Price, Marjorie Standifer, Sarah Earle, and Helen Tabor. Alice Domingos was there taking a course and came over to see us several times. I plan to go to business school this fall."

Ruth Moyer is teaching physical education in Thomaston.

Eleanor Muse worked this summer for the Fulton County Department of Welfare, and on September 12 started work at Emory University Hospital, where she is Recording Librarian, keeping the records of patients in the hospital. Eleanor says her only vacation was Labor Day week-end, when Marjorie Potts, Beth Belser, Gene Launius, and June Jackson gathered at Jewel Kennelly's beach house at Jacksonville for a house party. Margie, Ruth, Gene and Eleanor flew back to Atlanta from Jacksonville.

Jessie Olliff went to Emory summer school, and is now teaching fifth grade in Ocilla, Ga.

Vivian Parker is back at Wesleyan Conservatory this year, using the music scholarship which she was awarded last Commencement. She and Margaret Hunter are roommates at the Conservatory.

Bess Patterson is teaching English and speech and supervising recreational activities at Habersham College in Clarksville, Ga., this fall. She traveled in Georgia and Tennessee this summer, and spent part of the summer at home.

Elna Peagler is taking a business course in Homerville this year.

Faye Ponder is teaching history in the high school in Rhine this year. She spent the summer visiting friends.

Marie Porter is teaching dramatic art in the Blakely, Georgia school.

Marjorie Potts is working with the Retail Credit Company in Atlanta, in the Sales Department. She is planning to come to Wesleyan for Thanksgiving.

Alice Price spent most of the summer at home, with two weeks away for house parties at Lake Junaluska and Greenville, S. C., and a little visit to Atlanta. She is in Bronwood at present.

Mary Grace Price spent six weeks this summer in New York and Canada. She is now teaching high school group classes in speech in Shellman, Ga.

Elaine Pridgen was married November 1 to Walter M. Massey, Jr. of Macon, and had six former Wesleyan girls in the wedding, Branch (Ellis) Duncan being matron of honor, and Ruth Hall, Elizabeth Graham, Margaret Hunter, Dale Crawford, and Hazel (Holmes) Burns bridesmaids. Elaine spent the summer planning her new house, which was finished this fall.

Martha Ramsey visited Elizabeth Glass, Marie Porter, Ora Hollis, and Frieda Brown this summer, and was bridesmaid in two weddings. She is teaching dramatics in Millen, Ga. this year.

Lee Rees is studying at Emory University Library School. She and her sister, Frances, also enrolled at the Library School, live at 1237 Clifton Road, N. E.

Edna Nell Richards is teaching English in four high school grades in Sneads, Fla., she plans to be back for Thanksgiving.

Catie Ridley took a business course at Wesleyan Conservatory this summer, and is now working with the Bankers' Health and Life Insurance Co. in Macon.

Saralyn Sammons is teaching sixth grade in Vienna, Ga. this fall.

Mary Nell Sampley says: "Massie, Price, Tabor, Earle, Standifer, Domingos and I spent a week at a house party at Rock-Leaf Lodge, my new rock home at Lake Junaluska, this summer." Mary Nell is pinch-hitting as Methodist Student Secretary at Mississippi State College for Women while her sister, Ethleen, (class of '24) is ill. She is also working on her degree in Home Economics. Her address is 224 S. 11th St., Columbus, Miss.

Martha Schaffer is studying music at Wesleyan Conservatory, having won a scholarship at commencement. She plans also to study later in New York.

Dolores Schatzman is Mrs. Benjamin C. Smith, Jr., and lives at 296 College St., Macon, Ga.

Christine Spivey went on one of the Youth Crusade Caravans this summer, to Tennessee and Virginia. She is now teaching in the high school in Garfield, and is coaching basketball among other extra-curricular duties.

Marjorie Standifer is teaching in Hilton, Ga. She had the misfortune to break her ankle shortly after school opened, but managed to keep on with her work on crutches. Alice Price, visiting Wesleyan in October, brought this news of Marjorie.

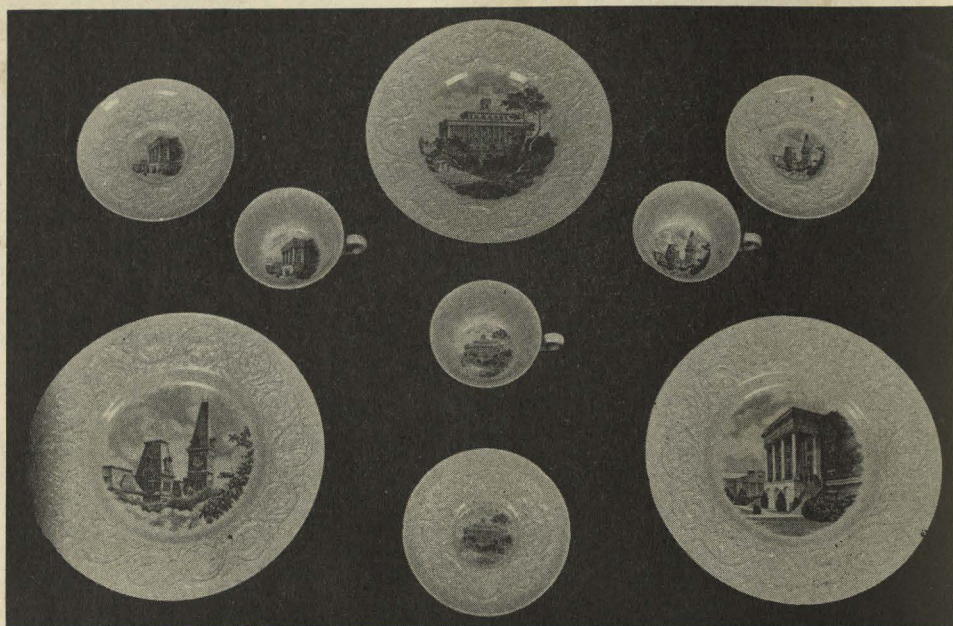

Ida Stephens is at home this fall. She had a delightful summer, visiting friends in Philadelphia, New York, Wellesley Hills, and Wilkes-Barre.

Helen Tabor is a cadet teacher in the Bibb County School System this year.

Joyce Turner attended a six weeks session at the University of Pennsylvania this summer, taking a journalism course, "Criticism and Publicity", and an education course, "Teaching of English Literature." After summer school she went to the New York World's Fair, spent two weeks in Maryland, and stopped over for a week in Norfolk, Va. and Williamsburg. In November she is to begin publicity work for the Chamber of Commerce in Ft. Myers.

Lucille Williams is studying music at home this winter, and is doing welfare work. She writes that on the side she is planning to humor an old whim and try her hand at short story writing. Lucille saw Jo Bernd at Atlantic Beach this summer. Jo's family have gone back to Cuba, and Jo is teaching this year in Jacksonville, Fla.

THE PERFECT GIFT FOR ANY GIRL WHO CAME TO WESLEYAN!
WESLEYAN COLLEGE PLATES, CUPS AND SAUCERS

The Wesleyan china, made by Wedgwood in Etruria, England, may be had in any of three scenes, The Original Building, The Towers of Old Wesleyan, The Candler Memorial Library; and in any of five colors: Staffordshire Blue, Rose Pink, Green, Old Mulberry, and Black.

The large plates are 10½ inches in diameter; the small plates 9 inches. The price is $1.50 per plate (either size); $1.50 per set of cup and saucer. These will be shipped to you express collect.

Order from: The Alumnae Office, Wesleyan College, Macon, Georgia

Please send me..... Wesleyan plates
 Wesleyan Cups and Saucers
 (Number)

Color..... Scene..... If plates, size.....
 (Colors may be mixed in a set of plates or cups and saucers.
 Send price of china with your order.)

Name.....

Address.....